IVAN BUCKLE AND PAULINE REYNOLDS MARRY IN TEXAS

GORMAN, Texas, April 29.—Miss Pauline Reynolds, daughter of Mrs. W. E. Reynolds of Rt. 2, and Mr. Ivan Buckle of Kellogg, Idaho, were married Sunday evening at 8:00 p. m. April 16, in the Church of God by Rev. T. C. Buckle, brother of the groom.

The church was decorated with white lilies, gladioli, and bridal wreath with a background of greenery and white tapers, lighted by Mrs. Gerald Johnson and Miss Wanda Donaldson. Mrs. Iva Ford of Carbon played "The Flower Song," "Mendelssohn's Wedding March," and Roy Bachman and Mrs. Christine Jagers of Carbon sang, "I Love You Truly."

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Arthur Bennett, city constable, wore a white satin slipper gown with a veil of white Brussels net falling from a tiara of white and pink rosebuds. She carried a white Bible on which rested a bouquet of white carnations. Her sister, Miss Doris Reynolds, was bridesmaid and wore a gown of blue moire taffeta, with a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Jackson and Miss Donaldson wore pink and white taffeta gowns with carnation corsages of contrasting colors. Little Miss Dorene Buckle, niece of the groom, was flower girl. Pvt. Preston Capers of Livingston, La., was best man. The groom, best man and minister wore boutonnières of white carnations.

At a reception at Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Wilson's home, aunt of the bride, bluebonnets and pinks decorated the dining room where Mrs. Gale Bennett of Eastland, and Miss Doris Reynolds served punch and cake to forty guests.

The couple left Thursday for a wedding trip to Roseburg, Oregon, where they will visit his mother, Mrs. T. C. Buckle. They will live in Kellogg, Idaho, where he has employment at the Robertson Motor company. The bride is a graduate of Carbon high school, and was a student in the Ranger Junior college. The groom, a graduate of Sutherland, Oregon, high school was in the armed forces 18 months before receiving a medical discharge in October. The couple met last summer while he was visiting his brother here on furlough.

Out of town relatives and friends attending the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Murray, Mrs. Palmer Stokes, Mrs. E. S. Reese, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Driver and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Murray and family, Mrs. Christine Jagers, Roy Bachman, all of Carbon, and Mrs. Gale Bennett and Herman of Eastland.
