Mrs. Homer Grow Presents Annual Spring Program For Woman's Club

One of the largest and most charming events of the spring season was the annual spring birthday tea and program of the Roseburg Woman's club held at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the clubhouse with Mrs. Homer Grow as program chairman and Mrs. I. B. Riddle and Mrs. Walter Good, joint chairmen of the tea, assisted by Mrs. R. W. Marsters, Mrs. W. R. Brown and Mrs. Foster Butler.

Gorgeous bouquets of dogwood, wisteria, tulips, syringa, duetzia and lilacs were artistically arranged about the rooms by Mrs. Velle Broadway and Mrs. H. O. Parfetter. The tea table, covered by an attractive lace cloth, was centered with a silver candelabra holding pink and yellow tapers and flanked by graceful bouquets of wisteria, tulips and double lilacs. Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, club president, and Mrs. George K. Quine poured. Members having birthdays between the dates of January 1 and June 30 acted as hostesses with the committee in charge.

Mrs. G. V. Wimberly graciously welcomed the guests and members and introduced Mrs. Grow, who has so very efficiently acted as club announcer and music chairman of the club.

Mrs. Grow opened the program with a short talk on National Music week and introduced the following: Miss Gladys H. Strong and Mrs. Clyde Beard, who marvelously played two piano duets by Grieg and followed by playing a Slavic dance; Mrs. Charles A. Brand very beautifully sang, "She Stands There Smiling," "Wholly Buy My Lavender," and "Speak To Me of Love," accompanied by Miss Gladys H. Strong at the piano; Miss Margaret Page very ably presented the dramatic reading, "The Watchman" and followed with the charming encore, "Clivers;" Mrs. Morris H. Roach played two very lovely violin numbers, "Play Fiddle Play" and "To a Wild Rose," accompanied by Mrs. Homer Grow, and R. M. Church concluded the program by singing the three beautiful numbers "Machushia," "For You Alone" and "Dawn," accompanied by Mrs. Grow and with Mrs. Roach playing the violin obligato for the last two numbers.

Mrs. Grow and those taking part on the program were highly complimented for their splendid performance, which was greatly enjoyed.

Tea was served at the close of the program and a social hour of visiting followed. Those present were: Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, president, Miss Gladys H. Strong, Mrs. Clyde Beard, Mrs. Charles A. Brand, Miss Margaret Page, Mrs. Homer W. Grow, Mrs. O. S. Chambers, Mrs. A. S. Coen, Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. Henry Carstens, Miss Jennie Jorey, Mrs. J. P. Dillard, Mrs. M. K.
