FULLERTON, P. T. A. NEW OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED MONDAY

Fullerton P. T. A. installed the new officers at an interesting meeting Monday afternoon at the schoolhouse with Mrs. Louis Kohl-hagen, Sr., a charter member and past president, as installing officer.

New officers include: Mrs. W. E. Futrelle, president; Mrs. Harrie W. Booth, vice-president; Mrs. Skilling, treasurer, and Mrs. C. E. Smith, secretary.

Mrs. C. E. Jump, retiring president, opened the meeting with Mrs. Futrelle taking over, following the installation ceremony.

Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held at the Roseburg Woman's clubhouse, opposite Hunt's Indian theatre, Saturday, May 13. Parents and friends are asked to send their donations to the schoolhouse or are asked to call 219 and the articles will be called for. The sale will be held all-day. Mrs. A. W. Bashford has charge of pre-sale arrangements and Mrs. Gordon Bennett is chairman of the sale.

A tea followed the business meeting with the pre-school children and their mothers being entertained by the first grade students, who demonstrated their ability to read and sing. Mary Sullivan played the piano during the tea hour. This was the last meeting of the year.

NEW IDEA CLUB IS ENTERTAINED AT LUNCHEON WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Ella Lough graciously entertained the New Idea club at a very delicious one o'clock luncheon at her home Wednesday afternoon. She was assisted in serving by Mrs. R. C. Gile. Beautiful spring flowers graced the table and were attractively arranged in bouquets about the rooms.

Covers were placed for Mrs. S. A. Sanford, a guest, and Mrs. C. E. Marks, Mrs. F. H. Applehoff, Mrs. V. R. Buckingham, Mrs. W. D. Harris, Mrs. Anna Rainwater, Mrs. C. B. Galkins, Mrs. R. C. Gile, Mrs. R. H. Williams and the hostess, Mrs. Lough.

Mrs. Marks presided over a short business meeting, which was followed by an enjoyable social hour and an exchange of Pollyanna gifts. The next one o'clock luncheon meeting will be May 24 at the home of Mrs. Anna Rainwater.

Wilmer H. Page, Coast Guardsman, And Catherine DeLeo Marry

Of much interest in Roseburg, Winchester and Wilbur, is the marriage of Wilmer H. Page, seaman first class, U. S. Coast Guard, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer C. Page, of Salem, formerly of Roseburg, and Miss Catherine May DeLeo, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony DeLeo, of Port Townsend, Wash., at the St. Mary's Star of the Sea church in that city on April 18. The Rev. Father Robert Dillon performed the impressive ceremony at 11:30 o'clock in the morning in the presence of more than a hundred friends and relatives of the couple.

The wedding took place on the 24th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tony DeLeo, who, incidentally, were the first to be married in St. Mary's Star of the Sea church. A very lovely white theme was carried out in the church decorations, which included: calla lilies, white stock, carnations and snapdragons. Music for the ceremony included sacred hymns sung by Mrs. Frank Surmeyer, accompanied by Mrs. Montleth at the organ.

The bride was very beautiful in a tip-toe length wedding gown of white satin, fashioned with a full-length train and a yoke of inserted lace. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a coronet of Stephanotis. She carried a Colonial shower bouquet of gardenias, lilies-of-the-valley and Stephanotis.

Miss Margaret Rose Fraser, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and was charming in a floor-length gown of rose satin. She carried a colonial bouquet of Eucharis carnations. A soft blue-colored feather headdress completed her ensemble.

Frank Surmeyer, of the U. S. Coast Guard and a former college friend of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

Rollin D. Page, brother of the bridegroom, and James Caldwell, cousin of the bride, were ushers. Mrs. DeLeo and Mrs. Page, mothers of the couple, both wore attractive ensembles of navy blue and corsages of gardenias and rosebuds.

A reception followed the nuptials at the home of the bride. A beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a wedding bell, was cut by the bride and bridegroom, while twenty-five sorority sisters of the bride wore impressively sang the two sweetheart songs of their sorority.

The bride's table, covered by an exquisite cloth was centered with an arrangement of white stock and carnations and flanked by tall white tapers. Gorgeous arrangements of calla lilies in large baskets were placed about the rooms and were also used at each side of the fireplace. Mrs. Pierce, aunt of the bridegroom, poured and Mrs. Caldwell, an aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl, assisted by Mrs. James Wise, of Everett, Wash., and Mrs. Jessie Jones, of Elma, Wash., cousins of the bride. Mrs. James DeLeo, sister-in-law of the bride, served the cake.

The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Dee Thompson, a sorority sister.

Following the reception, a wedding dinner was served to the family and out-of-town guests, in the attractive Marine dining room of the Palms cafe overlooking Port Townsend bay. Special arrangements of snapdragons, sweetpeas, stock and carnations were used, while the bride's table was centered by a bowl of roses, flanked by tall lighted tapers. At the head of the table were: Mr. and Mrs. Tony DeLeo and Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer C. Page, parents of the couple; the Rev. Father Robert Dillon, Mrs. Roy Pierce, aunt of the bridegroom; Mrs. Bridget Sofie, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Agnes H. Page, grandmother of the bridegroom. Fifty attended the dinner.

Among the guests attending the wedding were 25 sorority sisters of the bride and their house-mother, Mrs. Hancock.

The bride attended Metropolitan business college in Seattle and has been attending the University of Washington and is affiliated with Phi Mu sorority.

The bridegroom is exceptionally well-known in Roseburg, having made his home here with his parents, while his father was connected with the Lockwood Motor company. He later returned to Winchester to make his home with his grandmother, Mrs. Agnes H. Page, for two years and during that time was a student at the Wilbur school. He was very popular here and has a large number of friends in this county. After being graduated from high school in Salem, he attended Oregon State and is now in the U. S. Coast Guard.

For traveling the bride chose a street dress of soft rose material, with matching hat, while her top-coat was of pastel blue color. She wore a corsage of gardenias and rosebuds.

Following the dinner, the couple left Port Townsend on the Iroquois on their honeymoon.

Preceding the wedding, the bride-elect was honored at a large shower given in Seattle by her sorority sisters and on April 13 was guest of honor at a charming linen shower given by her cousin, Margaret Rose Fraser.

STEDFAST CLASS HAS ENJOYABLE LUNCHEON MEETING ON THURSDAY

The Stedfast class of the Presbyterian Sunday school held their social and business meeting in the church parlors on Thursday. A no-host luncheon was followed by a short business meeting and entertainment.

Mrs. W. M. Campbell led the devotionals and Mrs. John Travis, president of the class, presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Jim Pinkerton has charge of the interesting program.

Those present were: Mrs. John Travis, Mrs. Geo. Sewell, Mrs. Willis Myers, Mrs. Victor Bean, Mrs. Ida Bailey, Mrs. Helliwell, Miss Conover, Mrs. A. Bellows, Mrs. Geo. Campbell, Mrs. Morris Roach, Miss Margaret Clapp, Mrs. A. E. Kent, Mr. Harold Bellows, Mrs. W. G. Blake, Mrs. Jim Pinkerton, Mrs. Margaret Rodgers, Mrs. E. C. Richmond, Mrs. Reba Hartley and Mrs. W. M. Campbell.

MRS. A. J. YOUNG IS HONORED AT CHARMING SURPRISE PARTY TUESDAY

Roseburg Bethel No. 8 of Job's Daughters honored its mother of the Bethel, Mrs. A. J. Young, at a very charming surprise birthday affair Tuesday evening at the Masonic temple, which was attended by a large number of members and friends affiliated with the Masonic order.

Mrs. Young organized Roseburg Bethel No. 8 in 1925 and was its first guardian. She has gained recognition throughout the state for her untiring efforts in behalf of Bethel work and has organized a large number of Bethels in the state. She is a past grand guardian of Job's Daughters of Oregon and is also a past officer in the Inter-National Job's Daughters order.

The candlelighting ceremony opened and closed the affair. A letter from Mrs. Wilbur McKee, nee Elizabeth Williams, of Ann Arbor, Mich., who was the first Honored Queen in Roseburg, was sent to Mrs. Young and presented to her at the party. Three charter members were also present and included: Mrs. Kermit Johnson, nee Dorothy Marsters; Mrs. A. J. Ellison, nee Frances Butler, and Mrs. Morgan Russell, nee Esther Wright.

Mrs. Edna Stanley, Gresham, grand guardian of Oregon, and Mrs. Edna Catlow, Portland, grand secretary, were present and were given Honorary memberships in Roseburg Bethel.

Little Nancy Stewart, whose birthday is on the same date as that of Mrs. Young, was gowned in a pale pink organdy floor-length gown, and she gathered handkerchiefs in the beautiful drill and presented them to Mrs. Young, who was also the recipient of many other beautiful birthday gifts. Nancy's mother, Mrs. Gordon Stewart, nee Lois Ann Whipple, is a past honored queen of Roseburg Bethel.

Mrs. Stanley installed the new Council including: Mrs. Albert Micelli, guardian; R. B. Hampton, associate guardian; Mrs. W. C. Holmes, guardian secretary; Mrs. Earl Wiley, guardian treasurer; Mrs. Bernard Saar, guardian of Music; Mrs. Lorene Robinson, guardian of hospitality; Mrs. Robert Savage, guardian of sociability; Mrs. Fred Hamilton, guardian of paraphernalia, and Mrs. H. B. Carter, guardian of finance.

Following the party, a beautifully decorated birthday cake was cut and served in honor of the occasion.

The affair was the largest and most charming social event to be sponsored by the Bethel here in many years.

MR. AND MRS. DISHMAN CELEBRATE TWENTY-FIFTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dishman celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary at a very delightful party Monday evening at their home. Beautiful bouquets of lilies, tulips and other mixed spring flowers lent a colorful note to the rooms.

Beautiful gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Dishman from: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Luthy, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Knott, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Healy, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hudnell, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Andrews, Mrs. J. Earl Pickens, Mrs. C. R. Freum and Mrs. Erney Radtke, nee Emma Lou Dishman, daughter of the host and hostess, who had come to Roseburg for the occasion from Portland.

Bridge and pinocle were enjoyed with Mrs. Knott and Mr. Metzger winning the pinocle prizes and Mrs. Myers the bridge prize. Later in the evening Mrs. Dishman, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Radtke, served delicious refreshments.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS

The Maricopa Camp Fire girls enjoyed a most interesting hour Wednesday afternoon on the library lawn with their leaders, Miss Fredricka Hamilton and Miss Patricia Savage.
