Unknown Gives $1,000 Bills to Two Churches

ST. LOUIS, May 11.—(AP)—Two days after Centenary Methodist church reported finding a $1,000 bill in counting its collection plate offerings, St. John's Methodist church officials said they had received one too. The second was in an envelope inscribed "for St. John's endowment fund."

"Two $1,000 bills!" exclaimed Bishop John C. Brookfield appreciatively last night. "It's an epidemic we'd be glad to see continue."

The Centenary church's surprising donation was received in last Sunday morning's contributions and St. John's reported the second was found in their evening collection. They believe one person made both contributions.
