CLOTHING CLUB HOLDS MEETING

SUTHERLIN—The Clothing II club of the 4-H met last Thursday to practice darning for exhibition. The girls plan to model their dresses on Achievement day. They are planning a party for Saturday at the home of their leader, Mrs. M. Patterson.

POTLUCK LUNCHEON IS ENJOYED BY CLUB

SUTHERLIN—The Sutherlin Past Noble Grand's club met Wednesday in the Methodist church parlors. A bountiful potluck no-host luncheon was served at one o'clock. The tables were prettily decorated with lilacs and other flowers to carry out the May day motif.

Covers were placed for: Mrs. Sarceta Saucerman, Mrs. Elizabeth Dopp, Mrs. Ella Wegner, Mrs. Savilla Bamber, Mrs. Ann Hall, Mrs. Harriett Stearns, Mrs. Charlotte Parker, Mrs. Anna Hankenson, Mrs. Marie Scheibourne.

The business meeting was called to order by the vice-president, Mrs. Parker. The roll call was responded to by Mother's day quotations. The rest of the afternoon was spent in playing games and visiting. Mrs. Stearns and Mrs. Bamber won the prizes for a game presented by Mrs. Hall.

MAY DAY DANCE IS SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

SUTHERLIN—Winding up a winter's enjoyment in dancing old-fashioned dances, the Girl and Boy Scout troops gave a very successful party Saturday evening as a May day dance. A large crowd witnessed the crowning of two diminutive kings and queens as Judy Rose and Judy Hensley were crowned with their kings, Jerry Lang and Gordon Holgate. The tiny tots were dressed in foot length formal made with shoulder straps. Judy Hensley in white, Judy Rose in blue. The little kings wore swallow tailed cut-aways. The two flower girls, Bonnie Hensley and Charlotte Wridge were also in floor length gowns and wore poke-bonnet. Train bearers were Brownie Scouts, Betty Jane Jones and Harriett Ann Riggs. Crown-bearers were Cub Scouts, Donald Firman and Dickie Hempenius. Mrs. William Schaich, chairman of the Girl Scout committee and Harry W. Chenoweth, chairman of the boy's troop committee placed the crowns of gift and flowers on the royal heads. Merton Rosendale was the escort for Mrs. Schaich and Evelyn Cornish and Leanne McCreary accompanied Mr. Chenoweth. Following the crowning ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Jones, who have been instructing the two troops in the old-fashioned dances, were presented with a lovely myrtlewood tray and candle sticks, as a token of appreciation from the Scout troops. The May pole dance was then given by members of the troops, dressed in old-fashioned dresses and frock coats. Beginning as a "Contra Dance 2," the tempo changed to a waltz step and the dancers very expertly wound and unwound the orange and green streamers in a pleasing manner. The music then quickened and the dance finished with the "Contra Dance."

The balance of the evening was spent dancing old-fashioned quadrille, Vesuvian, Schottische, Ice Polka, Rye Waltz, Deaf and Dumb Polka and others. Refreshments were served cafeteria style. Mrs. Schaich, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Bachman, Mrs. Clark being in charge. The troop presented the Girl Scout leader, Lyla Chenoweth with a lovely set of pyrex ware and a birthday cake during the supper march.

Victory Garden Program Launched by Oil Firm

An extensive Victory garden program is being launched by the Standard Oil company, according to C. C. Shore, Marshfield, Ore., superintendent of Standard Stations, Inc., who was a business visitor in Roseburg Wednesday. Standard stations, he reports, now have available a free Victory garden guide and will soon have for distribution a guide on canning and preserving. Stations also are stocking packets of assorted vegetable seeds for the convenience of gardeners. The work, he states, is being carried on in cooperation with the national Food For Victory program.

To Members of Southern Oregon Wool Pool:

You may, if you wish, sell your wool outright at each date of delivery at 45 cents per pound. In fact, we'll give you cash on an outright sale, if you desire. We believe we can get better than a 45 cent price on the fine quality wool obtainable this season. You are, however, privileged to sell outright, if you desire, but our advice to you is

DON'T DO IT!

Wool from the Southern Oregon pool is being consigned to the firm of Adams & Leland, Boston. We have had excellent cooperation from this firm in past years and have every reason to believe our pool will again bring top prices. As a result, we are offering members a 40-cent cash advance and anticipate further payments on a basis of top market prices.
