Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lawrence Kelley

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Wiley, 809 South Kane street, was the scene of a beautiful candlelight wedding at five o'clock Tuesday evening, May 2, when their lovely daughter, Miss Evelyn Greer Wiley, P. R. 2/C, U. S. N. A. S., of Peru, Indiana, became the bride of Victor Lawrence Kelley, Aero, 2/C U. S. N. A. A. F. I. San Clemente Island. Mr. Kelley is the son of Mrs. V. C. Lenke, of Pasadena, California, and R. V. Kelley, of Duluth, Minnesota.

This was the first marriage solemnized in Roseburg, of which both the bride and bridegroom belong to the U. S. Naval Forces. A tasteful arrangement of red rosebuds over the fireplace, and bouquets of fragrant spring flowers about the rooms added to the beauty of the occasion.

Attorney Paul Geddes, accompanied by his wife, sang "The Sunshine of Your Smile" in grateful tribute to the bride's parents at whose wedding that solo was sung.

The bride, attired in the white uniform of the Waves, wearing a corsage of red rosebuds, and carrying a white prayer book, entered on the arm of her father, as Mrs. Paul Geddes at the piano played Wagner's Lohengrin bridal Chorus, the notes of which, translated into words, rejoice: "Now to the altar of the loving God—To plight our happy faith for evermore!"

Mr. Wiley gave his daughter in marriage and the double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Rinke A. Feenstra, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Roseburg.

When the bride and bridegroom had pledged their vows, Mrs. Geddes, in conclusion, played a portion of Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

Miss Jean Wiley, sister of the bride, was maid of honor; she wore a blue ensemble, with a corsage of Oriental peonies. The bride's brother, Lawrence Wiley, was best man.

Those present, besides the bride's family, were Mr. and Mrs. Ray B. Hampton, Miss Eula Carnahan, the Rev. and Mrs. Rinke A. Feenstra and Attorney and Mrs. Paul Geddes.

After the ceremony dainty refreshments were served by the bride's mother, assisted by Mrs. Hampton and Miss Carnahan.

Following the wedding the happy couple was entertained by friends of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, at the Hotel Rose. On Wednesday, May 3, Mr. Kelley accompanied his bride as far north as Portland, where she entrained east for her base at Peru. Mr. Kelley then went south, returning to his base at San Clemente Island.
