Seals Split Two With Rainiers to Hold First Place

(By the Associated Press) San Francisco holds onto first place in the Pacific Coast Baseball league today by the skin of its teeth as a result of its split with Seattle last night while the fast-climbing Portland Beavers were measuring Hollywood 7-3.

San Francisco and Seattle took turns slugging the ball all over the lot with the Seals taking the opener 11-2 and Seattle the nightcap 13-3. The win pushed Seattle into third place ahead of Hollywood.

At Los Angeles, Chet Johnson, the former Seattle high school southpaw, bested Prim, Angel wrongsided, to give San Diego a 1-0 win over the slipping Los Angeles nine.

Sacramento inched up on Oakland in the duel for seventh place with a 5-4 win.

Team Standings:
W L Pct.
San Francisco 21 12 .636
Portland 21 13 .618
Seattle 19 16 .543
Hollywood 18 16 .529
San Diego 18 18 .500
Los Angeles 16 17 .485
Oakland 14 21 .400
Sacramento 9 23 .281

Noted Writer To Speak at Kiwanis Meet in Roseburg

The Roseburg Kiwanis club will open its regular Tuesday luncheon meeting to the general public in order that all interested persons may hear Lise Lindbaek, noted Norwegian lecturer and writer, who is to be the principal speaker, W. M. Campbell, Kiwanis president, announced today.

Persons desiring to attend the luncheon program, starting at 12:10 p. m. Tuesday, should make reservations at the Umpqua hotel prior to 10 a. m. Mr. Campbell states.

Miss Lindbaek, who was secured for a speaking date at Roseburg by the chamber of commerce for many years worked in practically all European countries. She studied classic languages and archaeology, and while excavating a Mycenaean royal tomb in Greece, she witnessed one of the many revolutions in that country. She spent five years in the Italy of rising fascism, and there got to know and hate fascism and everything it stands for. She travelled frequently throughout the Mediterranean, and in 1934 published her first book about modern Palestine. From 1930-1936, she was an accredited correspondent at the League of Nations, and covered many outstanding events; she also published a book about the League's activities, in the form of a diary from Geneva. After the death of the famous Norwegian explorer and humanist, Fridtjof Nansen, she worked for several years collecting material about his work, with the assistance of scholarships from the Norwegian Academy of Letters and Science and the Nobel Institute of Peace in Oslo.

In 1936, she went to Spain where she was to remain for almost two years, in close contact with the Intrepid International Brigade, the advance guard of democracy; workers and soldiers from all countries, who poured to Spain in the Scandinavian countercurrent, understanding the development clearer than the governments seemed to be doing at the time. Lise Lindbaek for some time even was a member of the brigades, and wrote a book about them. She lectured widely about Spain in the Scandinavian mountains and after the collapse of Spain went on doing relief work for Spanish children in French concentration camps. While doing this, in connection with her work as a correspondent, she witnessed the collapse of Franco. She escaped to North Africa and after almost a year of waiting in Algiers and Casablanca, arrived in this country, where she continued working for the Norwegian Free Press, and writing books.

Her last book, "A Thousand Norwegian Ships", deals with the Norwegian merchant marine, during this war, and is based on hundreds of interviews with Norwegian sailors from all over the world.

NOTICE OF MEETING
Annual meeting of Lookingglass Cemetery Wednesday, May 17. Basket dinner. (24.) President.

Albina Decisions Pease For Oregon Ring Title

PORTLAND, Ore., May 13—(AP)—Joey Albina, 160, Portland, claimed the middleweight boxing championship of Oregon today after having won a 15-round decision from Mickey Pease, 156-pound Portland policeman.

Both contestants tired under the long route and finished the final five rounds in slow motion. Jimmy Liddell, an ex-marine, wounded at Guadalcanal, scored an eight-round technical knockout over Billy McCann of Seattle in their scheduled 10-round semi-windup. Liddell weighed 139, McCann 144.
