ANNUAL BANQUET IS HELD AT SUTHERLIN

SUTHERLIN — The annual junior-senior banquet of Sutherland high was held at the Sutherland hotel Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock. Twenty-six places were set for members of the two classes, the high school faculty, and, as special guests, Mrs. R. C. Irving and Mrs. A. H. Gillett.

The table was decorated in red, white and blue, with nut cups, program, tiny airplane place cards, and flowers, carrying out the color scheme. Corsages in the senior colors of lavender and yellow, were place-favors for the girls.

A delicious fried spring chicken dinner was served. Alvin Patterson, junior class president, acted as toastmaster for the program. Each toast carried out the theme, "Airborne." "Pilots," the welcome, by Alvin Patterson; "Grease Monkeys," the response, by James Thompson; "Boot Training," by Mr. Gilchrist; "Wings," by William Parker; and "Happy Landings," by Mrs. Irving. A trumpet solo, "Army Air Corps Song," by Bruce Preyer, and a piano solo, "American Prayers," by Erma Martin, were musical interludes. After the program the group danced until time for the second show, which they all attended.

Members of the senior class in attendance were: Betty Crockett, Juanita Laswell, Lola Smith, Barbara Schetty, James Thompson, William Parker and James Payne. Juniors were: Violeta Hietmann, Erma Martin, Betty Briscoe, Clara Kendall, Audrey Watkins, Edna Ruth Real, Alan Patterson, Norman Brown, Wayne Adamson, Donald Larson, Lloyd Thornton, Emmett Norris, Bruce Preyer and Bobby Stowe. Faculty members and guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gilchrist, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Gillett and Mrs. R. C. Irving. Mrs. Carl Wimberly, who has been teaching at Sutherland high in Mrs. Irving's absence, was unable to attend the banquet.

FORSYTHE GUILD HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING

The May meeting of the Forsythe Guild was held at the home of Miss Vera Fredrickson with the president, Miss Verna Carothers, in charge of the business session.

The devotions were led by Mrs. Reba Hartley, who gave excerpts from "The Father's House" by the Rev. Mr. March.

Mrs. W. M. Campbell, sponsor of the group, gave a report on the literature available for the work of the Guild.

Mrs. Orlena Slattery was appointed to plan the activities of the group during the summer months. Mrs. Reba Hartley was elected treasurer to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Miss Elizabeth Campbell. Mrs. Hayward was welcomed into the group as a new member.

During the social hour delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, Miss Fredrickson to: Verna Carothers, Orlena Slattery, Dolma Grobe, Gertrude Rast, Elton Sherk, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mrs. Morris H. Roach, Mrs. Reba Hartley, Mrs. James Sawyers and Mrs. Hayward.

The next meeting of the Guild will be held June 1 at the home of Mrs. James Sawyers at 454 North Stephens street.

MRS. ROBERTSON IS HOSTESS TO CLUB
SUTHERLIN — Tulips and colombine formed a very pretty motif for the charming one-thirty o'clock luncheon given by Mrs. Lawrence Robertson Tuesday when she graciously entertained the Tillikum bridge club at her home on Fourth avenue.

Covers were placed for: Mary Alice Randall, Mrs. E. J. Loney, Mrs. J. D. Collier, Mrs. Brittain Slack, Mrs. E. H. Randall, Mrs. Savilla Bamber, Mrs. Anton Coenenberg, Mrs. Clifford Parrott, Mrs. William DeWitt, Mrs. L. Palmer, Mrs. A. L. Cooper, Mrs. Paul Trozelle and the hostess, Mrs. Robertson.

Auction bridge was the diversion of the pleasant afternoon hours with Mrs. Slack winning high score, Mrs. Bamber low, and Mrs. Cooper the traveling goose.

BROWNIES HOLD BUSINESS MEETING

SUTHERLIN — The Brownies held a short meeting with all Brownies and leaders present. The business of the day was completing plans for the fly-up and Girl Scout investiture, which will be held jointly at the Community hall Friday, May 19 at 4 p. m. There will be a potluck picnic lunch. All parents are cordially invited. There will be no meeting held on Wednesday, May 17.
