Holman or Morse?

Is Morse a New Deal "stooge"?

Is Holman a pro-Hitler isolationist?

READ

WHAT OREGON'S LARGEST REPUBLICAN NEWSPAPER SAYS!

—excerpts from the leading editorial in the May 10 Portland Oregonian:

Is Holman a bigot?

The Oregonian says: "His record for racial and religious prejudice, however, seems to us indisputable."

Is Morse a New Dealer?

The Oregonian says: "He stuck to the party when Mr. Holman was voting for Roosevelt in 1932. He certainly was NOT bought into the senatorial race as a new deal talking horse."

Is Holman an habitual absentee?

The Oregonian says: "His absenteeism was the scandal of Congress."

Is Morse Henry Kaiser's candidate?

Mr. Holman has charged that half of Kaiser's 100,000 employees are not needed and are kept on the payroll solely to vote against Holman. The Oregonian says: "The Kaiser stuff is gargantuan hokum."

Is Holman against cooperation with our allies?

The Oregonian says: "His record as an isolationist or what he himself calls, a 'nationalist' is indisputable."

Will either candidate split the party?

"This much is certain," says the Medford Mail-Tribune, "that if Holman should be the nominee, the Democrats will send a Senator to Washington for the first time since Senator Lane. Independent Republicans will NEVER swallow Rufus."
