Engagement Announced at Dinner

Gladys Gilbert Studio, News-Review engraving. Miss Peggy Jacobson

Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Jacobson announced the engagement of their lovely daughter, Miss Peggy, to George Douglas Gremmel, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Martin Gremmel, of Glen Ridge, New Jersey, at a very charming seven o'clock family dinner at their beautiful home at 935 Chapman street, Laurelwood, Saturday evening. No date has been set for the wedding.

Covers were placed for twelve and in addition to the guests of honor and members of the family those present were: Commander and Mrs. George F. Erbe, of Astoria, and Mrs. C. Lundeen and Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lundeen of Roseburg.

Tall white tapers in silver candelabra flanked the low bowl of pink and white sweetpeas gracing the beautifully appointed table.

The bride-elect will be graduated from St. Helens Junior college in Portland this spring. Both she and the bridegroom-elect were graduated from Glen Ridge high school in New Jersey and the latter attended Rutgers university, New Brunswick, N. J., and is a member of Chi Psi fraternity. He is now in the U. S. army and is stationed at Camp Pickett, Virginia. He spent a week of his furlough in Roseburg at the Jacobson home, at which time the bride-elect was home from college.

The Jacobson family recently moved to this city and purchased the former Dr. H. C. Church residence in Laurelwood. Besides their daughter, they have two sons, Tom and Dick, who make their home here. Mr. Jacobson is manager of the Youngs-Bay Lumber company.

Reception to honor Ethel Bailey, president of the Rebekah Assembly, and Ralph L. Russell, grand master of the I. O. O. F., of Oregon. Committees to include: Courtesy, Lena Poole, Elma Stephens and Mammie Dimmick; decorations, Bertha Bayliss, Nora Blosser and Rubie Bloom; refreshments, Anna Gulden, Margaret Rodgers, Evelyn Fredrickson, Winnie Hawn, Myrtella Canady, Emma Lou Radtke, Ellen Pennie, Edna Dieker, Mildred Hayes, Mary Mortenson, Mayme Pickens, Dora Schmidt, Oliver Plumer.

Miss Verna Carothers will be chairman of the annual Emblem ceremony of the Business and Professional Women's club to be held at the clubhouse at 8 o'clock Monday evening. She will be assisted by Amanda Anderson, Vera Fredrickson and Thelma Young.

New officers and new members are especially requested to be present for the installation of officers and initiation.
