INTERESTING MEETING ON TUESDAY EVENING

Alpha Zeta Theta Rho Girls club met at the I. O. O. F. hall with Wanda White, president, in charge and Mrs. F. J. Herman acting as advisor in the absence of the regular advisor, Mrs. Ralph L. Russell, and the assistant advisor, Miss Vivian Logsdon, who have been in Portland the last week attending the Rebekah assembly.

A report on the Mother's day tea held May 7th was given and new officers were elected and included: President, Marilyn Matthews; vice-president, Vivian Hayes; recording secretary, Doris Moran; and treasurer, Edith Rand.

Plans were made for a skating party for members and their invited guests for Wednesday evening, May 24.

Group singing was enjoyed during the social hour. The next meeting will be held June 6 at seven-thirty o'clock at the I. O. O. F. hall.

Women in Close Democratic Race

The hottest contest in Friday's primary election in Douglas county centered around the race of Emily F. Edson and Nancy Honeyman Robinson, both of Portland, for the office of democratic national committeewoman. The outcome, insofar as Douglas county is concerned, probably will not be known until the official canvass is made by the county clerk. Precinct standings were reported unofficially as follows:
