Marry at Impressive Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cacy.

A wedding uniting one of Roseburg's most popular young couples took place Sunday at an impressive ceremony at the First Christian church, when Miss Dorothy Crocker, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Crocker, and Paul Cacy, R. M. 2/c, U. S. navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cacy, were married. Rev. Len B. Fishback, pastor of the First Christian church of Roseburg, performed the ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple. Baskets of lilies formed a colorful setting for the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was very lovely in a soft-colored blue crepe dress, fashioned with a fitted bodice with a ruching of the dress material outlining the neckline. The sleeves were three-quarter in length and she carried a white Bible topped by a large orchid.

Miss Lois Kurtz, wearing a two-piece navy blue frock and a corsage of carnations and rosebuds, was maid of honor. Earl Ward, a classmate of both the bride and bridegroom, was best man.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Floyd Lewis, a former school teacher of the couple, sang, "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Homer W. Grow at the pipe organ. The wedding party advanced to the altar to the strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, played by Mrs. Grow. At the close of the ceremony, Mrs. Grow played Mendelssohn's recessional.

Both the mothers, Mrs. Crocker and Mrs. Cacy, wore navy blue ensembles with white accessories and their corsages were gardenias and rosebuds.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents on North Jackson street. Beautiful bouquets of colorful spring blossoms were arranged about the rooms.

The bride's table, covered by a very lovely lace cloth, was centered with a decorated, tiered white wedding cake topped by a miniature sailor bridegroom and bride. The cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Walter Kurtz, mother of the maid of honor, presided at the punch bowl and assisting in serving were: Mrs. Carl Wassom, sister of the bride, and Mr. A. B. Cacy, mother of the bridegroom. Mr. Robert C. Snoddy was in charge of the guest book. The many beautiful wedding gifts were displayed.

For traveling the bride chose an attractive model of watermelon-color with brown accessories. Her corsage was an orchid. Following a honeymoon in Portland and to coast points, the couple will return to the A. B. Cacy home on North Jackson street to visit for a short time, before they both leave for Rhode Island, where the bridegroom will report for duty.

Those attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lewis and son, Gary, of Marshfield; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Crocker and daughter, Mrs. Carl Wassom; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cacy, Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Britton and son, Jim; Mrs. Paul Abeel, Mrs. Walter Kurtz and daughter, Miss Lois; Miss Maxine Bailey, Mrs. L. W. Ruhl and daughter, Miss Ruth Anne; Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Lawson; Mrs. E. E. Leas; Mrs. Sidney C. Moon, Jr.; Mrs. Charles E. Hart, Mrs. Donald White, Miss Phyllis Gadoway, Mrs. Ray Puckett, Mrs. Mabel Harless, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Church, Rev. and Mrs. Len B. Fishback and daughter, Miss Winona Mae; Earl Ward, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. DeBernardi, Sr. and Mrs. Homer W. Grow, Mrs. R. L. Bathrick, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hampton, Mrs. Allen Cordon, Mrs. Robert C. Snoddy, Mrs. C. W. Clark, Mrs. Jack Trusty, Mrs. T. B. Virden and Mrs. Guy Cordon and daughter, Miss Carolyn.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from Roseburg senior high school in the class of 1941. The bride has been employed at Lawson's jewelry store and the bridegroom has been in the U. S. navy since December, 1941. He recently returned from active service in the South Pacific war area.

DOROTHEE MANNING AND LESLIE HEATON MARRY IN OAKLAND, MAY 7TH

Miss Dorothee Manning, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Manning, of Oakland, became the bride of Private Leslie Heaton, U. S. army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Heaton, also of Oakland, at a very beautiful and impressive wedding at two o'clock the afternoon of May 7th at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Mr. Howard performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

White snapdragons and spiraea were used to form a lovely setting for the service.

The bride was lovely in an afternoon frock of blue crepe. Her corsage was a large orchid. Mrs. Gene Tapp, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor, and wore a soft-rose colored frock and a corsage of rosebuds. Dallas Heaton acted as best man for his brother.

A reception followed, at which time the beautifully decorated tiered wedding cake, topped by a bride and soldier bridegroom, was cut by the bride couple. Mrs. J. E. Sonne, grandmother of the bride, poured the coffee and Mrs. A. Carlson and Mrs. John Edwards cut ices and served the cake.

Following the reception the bridal couple left for California, where the bridegroom is stationed at Camp Haan. The bride was graduated from Oakland high school and was employed at the office of the Douglas County Flour Mill in that city until the time of her marriage. The bridegroom was graduated from high school in California and entered the army service immediately after being graduated.

POTLUCK DINNER IS ENJOYED AT WEBER HOME ON SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Weber entertained at a very lovely one o'clock potluck family dinner at their home Sunday. Colorful spring flowers were attractively arranged on the table and about the rooms.

Covers were placed for: Bill Weber, pharmacist mate 3/c, U. S. navy, St. Mary's college, Berkeley, Calif.; Miss Joyce Weber, of Oakland, Calif.; Mrs. Harry Dutton, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weber and sons, Michael and Dennis; Mrs. Albert Kronke and daughter, Karen; George Weber, Sr., Miss Helen Richmond, Miss Wanda Weber, Mrs. George Weber, Jr., Miss Evelyn and Miss Dorothy Hunter and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Weber.

ALL-BOYS RECITAL IS INTERESTING AFFAIR THURSDAY

On Thursday evening, an all boys' recital was given by pupils of Gladys H. Strong. It was an unusually interesting one, not only because of the fact that it was given by boys, but the standards of work were high. Beginners as well as more advanced pupils played. It was a very pleasing program.

Mrs. Clyde Beard Presents Pupils in Charming Recital

The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Fisher in Laurelwood was the scene of a very charming and colorful evening of music Thursday, when Mrs. Clyde H. Beard presented a group of nineteen piano pupils in a delightful recital program with Mrs. Howard Pattison, soprano, assisting with two groups of vocal numbers.

A group of seventy-five guests and pupils enjoyed this fifteenth annual recital to be given by Mrs. Beard and the audience was very generous and sincere in expressing appreciation. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Joseph Deets received the guests and graciously assisted about the rooms throughout the evening. Beautiful spring flower arrangements and formal dress formed the lovely setting for the occasion.

A lovely gift was presented to Mrs. Beard by her junior and senior high school pupils.

The pupils, representing grade school, junior and senior high school and adult ages, played with commendable assurance, careful interpretation and evidenced real joy in the study of music.

The program opened and closed with a patriotic note during which Joe Strickling and Larry Fisher, in Boy Scout uniform, held American flags, while Betty Hehn, Dorothy Busch and Mrs. Beard played "The Stars and Stripes forever" by Sousa and "The Star Spangled Banner."

Mrs. Howard Pattison charmed her audience with her well-chosen and artistically interpreted vocal selections. Her sincere, natural personality and lovely soprano voice delighted the guests. Her accompaniments were played by Mrs. Beard.

An informal social hour followed the program, during which Mrs. Gene Mills graciously presided at the punch bowl. The attractively appointed serving table was centered with a beautiful arrangement of mixed spring flowers and lighted tapers.
