DOROTHY GADDIS AND GEORGE WERNER MARRY IN CORVALLIS, MAY 12

(Medford Mail-Tribune.)

Alpha Delta Pi sorority house at Oregon State college, Corvallis, was the scene of a pretty wedding Friday, May 12 when Miss Dorothy Katherine Gaddis of Medford became the bride of George Carlton Werner, United States army. The service was read at 8 o'clock in the evening by Dr. E. W. Warrington of the college staff.

Miss Gaddis wedding costume was a pastel blue dressmaker suit, worn with white accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of gardenias and bouvardia and she carried a white prayer book.

Miss Beth Odel, sorority sister of the bride, played the wedding music.

The bride is the daughter of former Mayor and Mrs. Earl C. Gaddis, 608 East Main St., and has a wide circle of friends in Medford, the family having lived here many years. She graduated from Medford senior high school, the Southern Oregon College of Education at Ashland and will graduate from Oregon State college, taking a bachelor of science degree, next month.

Mr. Werner's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wade Werner of Alexandria, Va. His father is a well known foreign correspondent for the Associated Press in Europe, where he is at present, making his headquarters in Lisbon, Portugal. The groom was at Pomona college, Calif., at the time of entering the army, was stationed for several months at Oregon State college in the Army Specialized Training program, taking an army intelligence course, and was recently transferred to Camp Adair for further training.

After a brief wedding trip to the coast, the young couple returned to Corvallis, where they will reside for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaddis, the bride's cousin, Mrs. Rodney Fety, and Mrs. Paul Bulkin were in Corvallis for the wedding.

The Gaddis family formerly resided in Roseburg. The bride is a niece of Miss Echo Gaddis of this city.
