Lt. Byron Strong's Death Officially Reported by Navy

The Navy department has officially announced the death of Lieutenant Byron W. Strong, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Strong of Oakland. His death occurred Feb. 1, in the Marshall islands attack. His parents were notified Feb. 8 that he was missing in action, and later learned that he had disappeared following a three-plane collision during the bombing of an enemy target in the western Marshalls.

The family has been notified that his body has been recovered in the wreckage of his plane and interment was made in a Central Pacific cemetery.

Lieutenant Strong participated in a series of naval actions during his three years in the navy. He engaged in the battles of Coral Sea, Midway, Guadalcanal and Tulagi, as well as in the first battle at Savoia island and in the Santa Cruz action. During these engagements he was a cruiser pilot.

He was transferred to a dive bomber squadron aboard a carrier and took part in the capture of Tarawa and in the first day's engagement at the Marshalls.

He was awarded two medals for bravery in action and the Purple Heart.

Surviving are his wife, Nancy Strong, Oakland; his parents, a sister, Mrs. Betty Therereau, Pecos, Texas, and his aunt, Miss Gladys Strong, the latter a resident of Roseburg.

Baptist Bible School To Open Here June 5

The annual daily vacation Bible school, sponsored by the First Baptist church in Roseburg, will open June 5 with classes for boys and girls from 4 to 16 years of age. The program will include worship, Bible study, Bible stories, music, handwork, manual training and art. A demonstration and exhibit will be open to the public at a program to be held Friday, June 16.

Registration of pupils will be held at the church at 3 p. m. Friday, June 2.

Miss Doris McReynolds of the Western Baptist Theological seminary, Portland, will direct the school, assisted by four department superintendents and a corps of teachers.

The school will be open to all interested boys and girls.

Seals Rally in Ninth Inning To Down Angelinos

(By the Associated Press)

The San Francisco Seals staged a three-run rally with one out in the ninth inning to beat Los Angeles Angels, 6 to 4, in last night's Coast league game at Wrigley field.

Pitcher Prim of the Angels was working with a one-run lead when he struck out the first Seal batter in the ninth but the next four players singled to score two runs and an Angel error let another across before the inning ended.

The Sacramento Solons made it two wins out of three in their current series when they defeated the San Diego Padres, 6 to 3.

Rain caused postponement of the Portland-Seattle and Hollywood-Oakland contests.

Team Standings:

Team	W	L	Pct.
Seattle	31	23	.574
Portland	30	23	.566
San Francisco	29	24	.547
Hollywood	28	25	.528
San Diego	28	28	.500
Los Angeles	26	27	.491
Oakland	23	29	.442
Sacramento	17	33	.327

percentage point for the lead at 571 although they have played seven more games, won four more and lost three more than the champs.

Orrell engineered Detroit's third straight over New York in a relief role as pinch-hitter Unser belted Dubiel for a bases-loaded home run with two out in the last of the ninth. Orrell, bought from Portland last year, was credited with his first win in the big show.

Kleiman of the Cleveland Indians also passed the test in a role of a fireman, getting his first major league triumph after replacing Kennedy in Cleveland's 7-4 edge over Boston.

Walker Boosts Lead

McLish, 18-year-old graduate of Oklahoma city's American Legion team, made the grade for Brooklyn after two losing efforts by turning back Pittsburgh with five hits for 8-4 win. Dixie Walker boosted his bulging average to .436 on a double and two singles.

Seward of the New York giants was the fourth member of the "I won my first one" class as he survived a wobbly first inning to beat Chicago, 8-5.

Lanier's six-game winning streak went by the boards as Boston pounded out a 5-1 edge behind Barrett.

Nortney emerged from a hitting slump to single home Washdell with the telling run as Schanz hurled the Phils to a 5-1 nod over Cincinnati.

Browns Tie Yanks For Top Spot In American League

(By JACK HAND)

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Four Rookie Pitchers celebrated their first big league victories today but the biggest thrill went to Al Hollingsworth, 34-year-old veteran of 17 baseball campaigns, who graduated into the 1944 win by boosting the St. Louis Browns into a first place tie with the New York Yankees in the American league.

Hollingsworth's relief chore went on the right side of the ledger when the Browns scored two runs in the ninth to tie the Washington and went on to a 3-3 verdict in 11 night innings.

As Joe McCarthy's clan had fallen before Detroit, 6-2, in the afternoon, St. Louis moved into
