Mary at Post Chapel in California

Captain and Mrs. Harry Lee Cross, Jr.

White calla lilies formed a beautiful setting at the Post Chapel in San Luis Obispo, California, for the impressive wedding ceremony of Miss Kathryn Jean Ritchie, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, of Roseburg, and Captain Harry Lee Cross, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Cross, Sr., of Suffolk, Virginia, May 6. The wedding was performed by Chaplain Todd in the presence of the bride's parents and fifty officers and their wives.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was very lovely in a floor-length wedding gown of white Mousseline de soie, fashioned with long sleeves, a fitted bodice with neck outlined with a net ruching, and a sweetheart bow on the skirt. She wore her mother's wedding veil, which was finger-tip in length, and fitted with a coronet of orange blossoms. Her show bouquet was of white carnations and bouvardia and centered with a large purple orchid.

Mrs. Burnett Davison, Morro Bay, San Luis Obispo, was matron of honor and was charming in a floor-length gown of sea forman green chiffon, fashioned with long sleeves and full skirt. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and sweetpeas. Her husband, First Lieutenant Burnett Davison, acted as best man.

Mrs. Ritchie, mother of the bride, wore an attractive ensemble of navy blue georgette and her corsage was of red roses.

Proceeding the ceremony, Chaplain Durham sang, "Because," accompanied by Private Carlson, organist, who played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bride party to advance to the altar and at the close of the ceremony, played Mendelssohn's recessional. Lt. Thomas A. Foreman was usher.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at 382nd Infantry Officers club. The beautiful tiered and decorated wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom.
