MR. AND MRS. GILCHRIST HONORED AT DINNER

SUTHERLIN — A very unusual occasion was enjoyed Wednesday evening, when the board of directors of the Sutherlin school district No. 130 and their wives, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Winston A. Gilchrist at dinner in the banquet room of the Sutherlin hotel.

The theme of the decorations was the accomplishments during Mr. Gilchrist's superintendency in Sutherlin. The centerpiece on the dining table was a "bond" basket representing the last of the bonded indebtedness. The flowers were yellow "out-standing" warrants that have been paid while the placecards were "butterflies" made from "blank" checks that represented economy in the operation of the school.

After the dinner the party went to the Coenenberg home where "Zion Check" running was enjoyed until a late hour, with Mr. Gilchrist winning first prize for the men and Mrs. Icel Clark first for the ladies.

Mr. Coenenberg in behalf of the board thanked Mr. Gilchrist for his work here and wished him success in the future.

Mr. Gilchrist responded by expressing his thanks to the board for their cooperation and support and asking them for their equal support to his successor, Mr. Monger.

Those enjoying the affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Winston Gilchrist, guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Coenenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Icel Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cragcroft and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Green.
