Marriage Date Set For July 8th

Dr. and Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Roseburg, announce the engagement of their only daughter, Miss Carolyn Jeanne, to Lt. Charles Frederick Hary, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The wedding date has been set for July 8th and will take place in Texas, where the bridegroom-elect is now stationed by the U. S. army forces at Camp Hood.

Miss Allen, who is one of Roseburg's most beautiful members of the younger set, was graduated from senior high in 1940. She attended Cottey college at Nevada, Missouri, for one year and the last three years has been a student at Oregon State college, Corvallis, where she will be graduated next week. She majored in home economics and is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. She announced her engagement Tuesday evening at a "cookie shine" at the sorority. The bridegroom-elect received his high school and college education in Wisconsin. He was stationed at Camp White, Medford, and later at Camp Adair, Corvallis, before being transferred to Camp Hood, Texas.

The syllabus examinations are sponsored by the Oregon Music Teachers' association. The syllabus manual which is used as a course of study was outlined by the education committee of the Oregon Music Teachers' association and was published by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction. Seven examinations are outlined and may be subdivided. The pupil plays for the examiner, at least four numbers of representative styles and types. They are also examined in their knowledge of fundamentals and musical theory.

MISS CAROLYN CORDON HONORED AT CHARMING SURPRISE SHOWER PARTY

Miss Carolyn Cordon, lovely daughter of U. S. Senator and Mrs. Guy Cordon, was honored at a very charming surprise shower party and tea at five o'clock Sunday afternoon given by Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly at her attractive home on East Lane street.

A group of sorority sisters of the bride-elect, a few close friends and their mothers were invited to enjoy the occasion. Gorgeous bouquets of colorful spring flowers were attractively arranged about the rooms, while the tea table, covered by a beautiful lace cloth, was centered with an artistic arrangement of rhododendrons and orange blossoms, flanked by tall pink tapers.

Miss Patricia McClintock presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. J. C. Hume poured. Miss Joanne Hume and Mrs. L. L. Wimberly assisted the hostess, Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly.

Lovely shower gifts were presented to the guest of honor, after which visiting was enjoyed and tea was served. Miss Cordon will become the bride of Donald Crouch, of the U. S. Air Forces, in the near future. Both formerly attended University of Oregon. Miss Cordon is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority and the bridegroom-elect is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

SYLLABUS EXAMINATIONS TAKEN BY GROUP OF MISS STRONG'S PUPILS

ROSEBURG WRITERS CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING AT HOUCK HOME

A most enjoyable meeting was held by the Roseburg Writers club Friday night at the home of Doctor and Mrs. George E. Houck.

The evening was spent in featuring the hobbies of the various members. Mr. C. L. Farrar, special agent, Investigations Division, Department of the Interior, gave a most interesting talk on precious and semi-precious gems, their source and production, and displayed samples of the types found in the United States. He also spoke on his unique hobby of collecting old clocks, which was very entertaining.

Mrs. Marjorie Hunt Pettit and Carl F. Spaulding discussed stamp collecting as a hobby and displayed several interesting and beautifully arranged volumes.

Miss Mary Ann Bowman of Glendale, Oregon, discussed her many and varied hobbies. Mrs. Vernon V. Harpham displayed some old daguerreotype and tintype photographs in antique settings, and Mrs. Hilda Peterson exhibited her hatpin collection and spoke briefly on her hobby of gold-panning for fun.

Mrs. Houck displayed some buttons from her large and well-assorted collection, and also her coin collection which includes many modern and antique foreign coins, with a special collection of coins from the so-called "lost countries."

Doctor Houck demonstrated his hobby of wood-working and very graciously displayed his many beautifully wrought pieces including a lovely grandfather clock, Indo-Chinese what-not (French colonial pattern), and some occasional tables, together with an antique secretarial desk and organ which were shipped around the Horn by pioneers, which he has recently renovated.

Because of the wide variety of hobbies represented and the active interest demonstrated, it was decided to have one or more meetings devoted annually exclusively to hobbies.

ROBERT NELSON IS HONORED AT THREE DELIGHTFUL AFFAIRS

Robert Nelson, U. S. navy, who is spending his leave in Roseburg visiting his wife, was guest of honor at three very enjoyable affairs recently.
