MAXINE SUTTON AND ROBERT J. SLOCH MARRY ON SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Miss Maxine Sutton, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sutton, Lookingglass road, Roseburg, became the bride of Robert J. Sloch, son of J. T. Sloch, Roseburg, at a very impressive ceremony Sunday afternoon, June 11, at the attractive home of the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Franks. Dr. Morris H. Roach, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Roseburg, performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

White crepe-paper streamers and a floral bell decorated the large dormer window of the living room and formed a pretty setting for the ceremony. Preceding the service Miss Willene Luellen sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Miss Rae Burghardt, who played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bridal party to advance to the improvised altar.

The bride was very attractive in an orchid-colored dress suit. She wore a circular veil and spray of roses in her hair and her corsage was an orchid. Miss Anna May Sutton, of Portland, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and was lovely in a tan-colored afternoon frock with a corsage of pink carnations. Floyd Turner acted as best man.

A reception followed and the beautifully decorated and tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom. Mrs. R. H. Franks was assisted in serving by Miss Rae and Miss Aleta Burghardt and Miss Donna Sutton.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Sutton, J. T. Sloch, Mrs. A. R. Owens, Eileen Pratt, Iva Turner, Willene Luellen, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Burghardt, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Sutton, Donna, Anna May, Jackie, Dwayne, Beulah, Clare and Letta Sutton, Alberta, Rae, Bradley, William, Jerry and Lee Burghardt, Floyd Turner and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Franks and son, Robert.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg high school this spring. The bridegroom made his home in Spokane, Wash., until last Christmas, when he moved to Roseburg to make his home with his sister. He is employed by the O. K. Tire shop. Following a short wedding trip to Crater Lake, the couple will make their home on South Pine street in Roseburg.

Miss Ethel Ann Van Voorst

Miss Ethel Ann Van Voorst, student at Catlin school for girls in Portland, was graduated from the school last Friday evening and received the coveted French Award for 1944 (no medal was given due to the war) as a citation for being the outstanding student in the school in reading and conversing in French. Miss Van Voorst, a student of the school for the last three years, was senior editor of "The Gardulous Pine," school annual and was commissioner of dramatics for 1944. She expects to enter the University of Arizona this fall to continue her study in dramatics and foreign languages. Miss Van Voorst's parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Van Voorst and Mrs. A. C. (Evelyn Van Voorst) Newell, of Roseburg, went to Portland to attend the graduation exercises they were accompanied home by Mrs. Carol Kerr, who returned to her home in Roseburg, after a trip to Portland to visit and to attend the graduation exercises. Miss Van Voorst remained in Portland until Tuesday, when she came to Roseburg for the summer months.

Marries at Post Chapel in Texas

Mrs. Merle A. Dixon

The candlelight wedding of Miss Dorothy May Puckett, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Puckett of Idlewild Park, Ore., to Private Merle A. Dixon, of the U. S. Army Air Forces, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Dixon, of St. Ignatius, Montana, took place Saturday evening, May 6, in the Post Chapel of Marfa Air base, Marfa, Texas. Chaplain Richardson, Captain, of Marfa field chapel, officiated at the impressive double ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Private Steve Cotrel, was very beautiful in a formal wedding gown of white lace and satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and with tiny blue velvet buttons down the bodice. She wore two long corsages of white carnations at the waistline. The skirt was floor-length and very full. The bride wore a single strand of pearls and carried a white satin Bible topped by a spray of white carnations tied with satin ribbons with long streamers. Mrs. Wayne Nelson acted as matron of honor and Private Wayne E. Nelson was best man. The couple spent a short honeymoon in Elpin, Texas, and are now living at Marfa Air base, where the bride is an employee and the bridegroom is stationed. The bride was graduated from Glide high school and attended Northwestern Business college in Portland for a year. She is a member of the Catholic U. S. O. and was voted into the Gamma Mu sorority for young business women. Private Dixon attended school in St. Ignatius, Mont., and upon completing his high school course took a post graduate course. He entered the army in 1942 and had special training at Curtis-Wright Technical school in Glendale, Calif., after which he was transferred to Marfa Air base at Marfa, Texas, one of the highest training commands, where he participates as a skilled mechanic.

The bride wore a very attractive rose-colored street dress with a blue coat and hat and blue accessories. Her corsage was of blue and white sweetpeas. Following a wedding trip to

MRS. CLARK LEEDY HONORED AT CHARMING AT-HOME AFFAIR FRIDAY

Mrs. Paul Jenkin, assisted by Mrs. Gordon Stewart, entertained at one of the largest and most charming affairs in Laurelwood Friday evening in compliment to her daughter, Mrs. Clark Leedy, nee Meredith Anne Jenkins, of Seattle.

Gorgeous bouquets of spring blossoms were artistically arranged about the rooms. The tea table, covered by a lovely lace cloth, was centered with an arrangement of pastel-colored blossoms and tall pink tapers. Alternating in pouring were: Mrs. G. V. Wimberly and Mrs. J. R. Wharton; and Mrs. R. L. Whipple and Mrs. William F. Amiot. Assisting Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Stewart in serving and about the rooms were: Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. E. C. Patterson and Miss Coletta Langenberg.

The lovely garden of the home was lighted for the occasion and comfortable garden furniture was arranged for the enjoyment of the guests.

Mrs. Leedy left Monday for Brooks, Ore., to spend the second week of her vacation with her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Leedy, before returning to her work in Seattle.

NORTHSIDE SUNSHINE CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING THURSDAY

The Northside Sunshine club held a very enjoyable meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Stella Payne. Beautiful bouquets of sweetpeas decorated the rooms.

Mrs. Mabel Patterson had charge of the business session and Pollyanna gifts were exchanged. A lovely birthday gift was presented to Mrs. Payne and bingo was in play during the afternoon with Mabel Patterson winning the grand prize.

At the tea hour, delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Payne to: Clara Steiwig, Bernadine Princes, Myrtella Emmitt, Mabel Patterson, Enore Fisher, Elizabeth Wolfe, Laura Mack and Ada Kruse.
