for their fright. When we get Saipan, our super-Fortresses can SHUTTLE from there to our base in China, hitting Japan BOTH WAYS and so conserving our SCARCE gasoline in China.

WATCH this Marianas battle. It's big. There is every possibility that it may get bigger. This might even become the place for the Japs to throw in their navy.

CHANGSHA has apparently fallen. At any rate, its radio has gone silent. The Japs are trying to knock out China while there is still time. Our job is to SAVE China while there is still time.

ON Blak, 1200 miles to the south of Saipan, we storm another ridge that has been holding us back from two more Jap airfields. In the Kuriles, 2000 miles to the north, navy bombers from Aleutians bases hit Jap installations BY DAYLIGHT.

AN ominous (to the Japs) note comes from Russia, where War and the Working Classes, a Russian magazine, makes sharply critical and slighting remarks about Japan's ambition to rule Asia.

BERLIN radio says Henry Wallace has gone to Moscow to cook up a deal with the Russians to use Siberian bases to bomb Japan.

VIPURI has fallen to the Russians, who moved up toward it along the Gulf of Finland, with the heavy ships of their Baltic fleet following them along the shore, sinking Finnish ships.

IN recent exciting days, we've practically forgotten Italy, where the Germans are still fighting rear guard actions in an effort to get back behind their Arno line.

THE German rocket bombs (or pilotless flying torpedoes—whatever they are) still fall in southern England, but in DIMINISHING numbers.

A force of around 1500 U. S. bombers hits the Calais coast where the rocket bombs are being launched and then goes on to bomb interior Germany.

AVOID RENT CONTROL

By Charles V. Stanton

APPEARANCE before the Roseburg city council Monday night of a group of tenants protesting recent rent increases poses a disturbing problem—one which has brought much trouble to many other communities throughout the country.

It is one of those festering sores resulting from cancerous inflation; hidden, slow-growing, yet sapping the strength from those who, by force of circumstances, become its victims. The sufferers are those not benefitted by average wartime wage increases.

On the other hand, there are persons earning high wages in essential industries who would gladly pay the rate of rental the persons in less favored income brackets cannot pay.

Some owners of rental property, naturally, are more inclined to take advantage of profit-making opportunities than are others.

The federal government has attempted to solve the problem in some areas by establishing rent control districts. A department of the Office of Price Administration sets arbitrary rentals, usually cutting back all rates to a period before the upward spiral began.

We do not want a rent control district established in Douglas county. Our rentals are considerably below the average for like communities in the state.

In fact, in a recent reconversion project it was necessary for the property owners to pay a considerable sum of money to make up the difference between the actual rental fees and the amounts necessary to amortize the cost of the improvement.

But if a few landlords step out of line and impose rates which become exorbitant, inflicting great hardship upon tenants, then stern measures will be necessary.

Consequently the situation is one which calls for the exercise of tolerance, unselfishness and a spirit of cooperation on all sides.

We have heard of some instances in which hotel and apartment rentals have been boosted as much as 80 per cent. While the present charges may be comparable with those made elsewhere, yet such an enormous increase, particularly upon tenants with fixed incomes, is a great hardship.

they may have OVERPLAYED the new secret weapon, thus risking a bad reaction when the Germans at home find it ISN'T stopping the invasion.

ON the home front there is a tale to the effect that a new transport plane, equipped with elevators inside, is being readied for FDR's personal use.

IN Maine, CIOer Pettis, trying for both the republican and the democratic nominations for congress in the first Maine district, is turned down hard by the republicans but gets the democratic nomination.

Any way, the Maine republicans wanted no truck with Pettis.

Camp White Band, Drama to Aid War Bond Drive Here

The Camp White Reassignment Center band and a troupe of ten actors will be in Roseburg Wednesday, June 29, to present the play, "The Call of Freedom," as a contribution to the Fifth War Loan drive.

The play, written by two Stockton field soldiers, depicts a soldier returning from war to a strange America, and three scenes describe his memories of battle.

The troupe will visit six southern Oregon communities to aid in the bond drive.

The Roseburg appearance at the Indian theater at 8:30 p. m., will be preceded by a band concert, starting at 7:30 p. m. at the Victory Center.

Arrangements for the show at Roseburg were made here Wednesday by Staff Sergeant Don Safford, who is acting as advance agent and business manager.

Mrs. Donn Radabaugh, theater manager, reports that tickets are to be placed at the War-Bond headquarters in the Lumbermen's building. Persons who have purchased war bonds between the dates of June 7 and June 28, may receive a ticket upon presentation of the dated bond.

Growth of Navy, Coast Guard and Marines Shown

WASHINGTON, June 22—(AP)—The personnel strength of the navy, marine corps and coast guard stood at 3,400,646 men and women on May 1, Senator Walsh (D-Mass.) reported in a senate document entitled "The Decline and Renaissance of the Navy, 1922-1944."

The total included 8,727 women officers and 71,980 enlisted women. In contrast, the total strength of the navy and marine corps on June 30, 1938, was 11,695 officers and 122,631 men, said Walsh, who is chairman of the senate naval affairs committee.

After reviewing the decline of naval strength from the disarmament conference of 1922 until the late 30's, Walsh noted that the navy's permanent authorized strength today is 5,299,480 tons of battleships, aircraft carriers, cruisers, destroyers and submarines, compared with 780,000 tons of under-age ships and 300,800 tons of over-all vessels at the end of 1932.
