with our (large) plane production."

THE Japs have obviously been SAVING UP their fleet for some great emergency purpose.

WE have great naval strength in the Pacific. In addition, Admiral King (top navy commander) speaks in Washington of arrangements with the British for naval co-operation in the Jap war.

OUR commanders are confident. Nimitz says our fleet "packs sufficient power to be favorable to us in a decisive engagement."

THE news of the next few days (perhaps even hours) will be watched with acute and anxious interest by all of us.

IN Cherbourg as this is written, our men are fighting from house to house toward the docks that are our goal.

THE weather grows viler and viler — still apparently in league with the Germans.

WE NEED the port of Cherbourg. The Germans know we need it. They're determined to hold us back from it to the last possible hour.

VIIPURI is in the hands of the Russians, and the Finns are evacuating Helsinki.

"KILL THE UMPIRE"

By Charles V. Stanton.

A GOOD newspaper is in much the same position as an impartial umpire attempting to officiate at a crucial game attended by intensely partisan fans.

A good illustration of this fact is an act which occurred at Eugene last Sunday when newspaper reporters were banished from a session of the state convention of a labor union because some delegates disapproved of the manner in which the scribes reported a heated argument over unseating certain delegates.

The action of the convention is indicative of what many individuals and organizations expect of the press. They demand only the most favorable mention.

Many people do not realize that a reliable newspaper, and the press as a whole, is a mirror which reflects the good and the bad alike.

Many people would have a newspaper render only a pleasing likeness, just as they expect a photographer to retouch a negative to hide the blemishes.

Knowing the integrity of the Eugene newspaper and its editor, we believe the action taken against the Eugene reporters was entirely unjustified.

Organized labor seems to be suspicious of the press. Rabbidly partisan, as it must be, it is ever ready with its cry of "kill the umpire!"

One of the first acts of a business man moving into a community is to get acquainted with the editor of the newspaper and try to make a good impression.

Neither labor unions, nor any other organizations, can create public confidence when they hide their activities from public gaze.

under way in Finland to form a NEW cabinet that can make peace (on some kind of terms) with Russia.

DIAL LOG

By SUSAN

Tonight we just want to pass on to you a copy of the prayer Gabriel Heatter gave on his broadcast of June 6—one of the loveliest and most moving things we have heard in years—and we thought perhaps you'd like to have a copy too.

"Merciful God, watch over these men. They march in a crusade for humanity and freedom. These are not men of war. These are not men of hate or vengeance. These are humble men. Men whose hearts will never forget pity and mercy.

"Into your care we give our prayers—our lives—our sons—all that we are and can ever hope to be on this earth. Send these men back to us—home to us—for they are part of man's spirit—of man's dream of a world which is free and where kindness lives; watch over these men—we who are meek and humble, whose faith is strong ask this. Send these men back to our hearts and our homes—this is our prayer."

To which we only add "Amen"—and thank you, Mr. Heatter.

Mrs. Will Rogers Claimed by Death

SANTA MONICA, Calif., June 22—(AP)—Will Rogers' widow, whom he courted on a bicycle and whom he called "my sweetheart," is dead.

Mrs. Betty Blake Rogers, 65, succumbed at the Rogers' ranch home in Santa Monica canyon last night. Relatives said she had been ill for several weeks, and that she suffered a severe attack of influenza in Washington, D. C., during the winter.

Rogers, humorist and philosopher, was killed with Flier Wiley Post in an Alaska plane crash in 1935. A month ago today, his body was entombed at Will Rogers Memorial in Claremore, Okla., his home town. Mrs. Rogers' body likewise will be interred there.

Betty Blake, known as "the prettiest girl in Arkansas," was born in Rogers, Ark. Rogers married her there Nov. 25, 1908. Three children survive: Will Rogers, Jr., former congressman and now an army lieutenant; James Rogers, acting publisher of the Beverly Hills Citizen, and Miss Mary Rogers, who resided with her mother.

Stern said the Portland operator, J. F. Durr, admitted a shortage of 1479 gallons out of a total of 1650 gallons. The Vancouver operator, J. C. Hale, admitted shortage of 1185 gallons from an inventory of 1700 gallons, and selling gas to friends without requiring coupons, Stern said.

Both stations now are under new management, Stern added.
