

Local News

Spends Day Here—Arthur Woolley of Leona spent Saturday in Roseburg attending to business.

Here Saturday—Mrs. John Hill, who resides near Boomer hill, was in Roseburg Saturday on business.

Tiller Visitors Here—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Teller and daughter, Mildred, of Tiller, were visitors in Roseburg Saturday.

In Town Saturday—Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Carnall of Tenmile were business visitors in Roseburg Saturday.

Attend To Business—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson of Reston were business visitors in Roseburg Saturday.

Leaves For Portland—Fred A. Knight, of Knight-Porter company, Roseburg, left Sunday for Portland to spend a short time attending to business.

Return To Roseburg—Mrs. Kermit Johnson and son, Roger, and Mrs. E. J. Ellison and daughter, Donna Jean, have returned to their homes in Roseburg, following a few days visiting and attending to business in Portland.

Return To Salem—W. F. McCulloch and D. L. Phipps, assistant foresters, and Lee Porter, Jr., protection assistant, left Saturday evening for their homes in Salem, following a two-day stay in Roseburg attending to business.

Mr. Tripp Here—F. A. Tripp of Azalea spent Saturday in Roseburg on business.

Here From Glendale—Joe Gray of Glendale was a business visitor in Roseburg Saturday.

Spending Few Days in Eugene—Miss Fritz Hamilton of Roseburg is spending a few days in Eugene attending to business.

Leaves Sunday—Mrs. Fred L. Southwick left Sunday by bus for Newberg, Ore., to spend a week attending to business.

Here From Salem—Mrs. H. L. Pearcey, nee Virginia Marsters, of Salem is in Roseburg visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. R. W. Marsters, on North Jackson street.

Able To Be Out Again—Gladys Patterson is able to be out again, following a week's illness at her home, where she suffered from influenza and ptomaine poisoning.

Will Receive Medical Treatment—T. W. Thomason, of the Roseburg city police department, who has been on sick leave, has gone to Portland to receive medical treatment.

Will Be Back in Office Tuesday—Dr. Catherine McNeil, who has been enjoying a week's vacation in the country, will be back in her chiropractic office on Stephens street Tuesday morning.

H. E. C. to Meet—The Melrose Grange Home Economics club will meet Wednesday at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. James Conn. New members are especially urged to be present at this meeting.

Visiting Father—Mrs. Allen Hewitt, nee Jeannette Rice, and two daughters, Marily and Joanne of Seattle, have arrived in Roseburg to spend their vacation visiting Mrs. Hewitt's father, Napoleon Rice, on South Kane street.

Visiting at Knapp Home—John Robinson and baby daughter, Johanna, of San Francisco arrived in Roseburg yesterday afternoon to spend a week visiting the latter's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Knapp, on East Lane street.

Visiting at Church Home—Miss Ann Firkins of Olympia, Wash., is spending a couple of weeks as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Church at Dixonville. Miss Firkins is in charge of the automobile insurance department at the state house at Olympia and is on vacation.

Returns to Portland—Mrs. Elma Goodman has returned to her home in Portland, following the weekend visiting her father, Ed Peyton, at his cabin on the North Umpqua. Mrs. Goodman had as her guest over the weekend, Mrs. Nova Bates, of Roseburg.

Back from Seattle—Mrs. Jean Everett, who makes her home in Roseburg with her uncle, W. C. Harding, on East Oak street, has returned here following a 10-day stay in Seattle attending to business and visiting. Before moving to Roseburg, Mrs. Everett made her home in Seattle.

Leaves for Service—Lawrence Wiley, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Wiley of Roseburg, left last night for Seattle, where he will be sent directly to Jacksonville, Fla., to enter training as a combat air crewman. Lawrence was graduated from Roseburg high school this spring.

Leave Saturday—Mrs. Clifford Sherrill of LaGrande, Ore., and her sister, Mrs. Edna Lough of Seattle, left Saturday for their homes, following a vacation in Roseburg visiting their mother and sister, Mrs. Ella Lough and Mrs. Nova Bates, and family. Mrs. Sherrill was accompanied home by Brent Bates, young son of Mrs. Nova Bates, who will spend the summer visiting in LaGrande.

Here from Bremerton—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ohman of Bremerton, Wash., have arrived in Roseburg to spend a week vacationing and visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Ohman is employed in the shipyards. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ohman 320 W. C. street, Roseburg and Mrs. Ohman, nee Gerry Watson, is a daughter of Mrs. Paul Dussau of this city.

Will Attend Celebration—Mrs. Albert Micelli and daughter, Miss Eleanor, and son, Bob, of Roseburg, have left for Nebraska to attend the sixtieth wedding anniversary celebration of Mrs. Micelli's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Niehus, at Springview. At Valentine, Neb., they will visit Mrs. Micelli's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. William Niehus, and with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Slaughter. They expect to return to Roseburg in a month.

Group To Practice—All girls interested in softball are asked to attend a practice Tuesday night at 7 o'clock at Finlay field.

Visits Over Weekend—Mrs. George Kronenburg, nee Nedra Clark, of Portland, spent the weekend in Roseburg visiting her father, J. E. Clark, Southern Pacific agent in this city.

Enlist In Navy—Vernon Grant Bonebrake of Roseburg has been enlisted in the U. S. navy, according to a report from the Portland recruiting office, which announces enlistment of 26 youths in the 17-year-old age bracket during the past week.

Returns To Coast—George Stanton has returned to his home at Toledo, Ore., following a few days in Roseburg visiting his father, C. G. Stanton, on South Pine street, and with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Stanton, on East Commercial avenue.

Leave For Fir Point—Those registering and leaving for Fir Point today included: Rae Burghardt, Doris Dunning, Donna Primrose, Ruth Ferris, Aileen Slattery, Priscilla Wade, Betty Mae Quist, Sheldon Chambers, Robert and Morris Roach, Betty Wichter and Morena Moore. They will be accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. Morris H. Roach and daughter, Betty. The Fir Point conference will be held from today to July 3.

Eagles of Oregon Elect, Ask Better Pensions for Aged

Frederick Hand Of Oakland Passes

Elkton

Baseball School For Boys, 13 to 17, Scheduled Here

Frozen Food School Is Scheduled at Riddle

Azalea

Portable Welding

Bugs and Insects

Destroy Them With Rotenone Dust, Go-West, Bug-Geta, Old Trapper Garden Dust, Snarol, Ant Syrup and Ant-B-Gone.

"Buy Where You Own the Profits"

Douglas County Farm Bureau Co-Operative Exchange

Roseburg, Oregon

Frederick Hand, 84, died Sunday at the home of his son, Alfred H. Hand, in Oakland, Oregon, following a long illness. Born in Oxford county, England, Oct. 10, 1859, he came to the United States with his mother and two brothers in 1861. He first lived in New York, moving later to Michigan, and came to Oregon in 1906. He had been a resident of Oakland since 1908.

Mr. Hand was a pioneer of the South Dakota Black hills, freighting there with an ox team during the Indian uprising and was acquainted with many of the noted plainsmen, including General Custer and William (Buffalo Bill) Cody.

He was married June 8, 1881, to Mrs. Clara Stocks, who died April 20, of this year.

Surviving are four sons and a daughter: John C. Hand, Provo, S. D.; Edgar G. Hand, Hot Springs, S. D.; Alfred H. Hand, Oakland; Ralph A. Hand, Palouse, Wash., and Mrs. Paul Verman, Los Angeles.

The body has been removed to Stearns mortuary, Oakland. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Elkton — Mrs. A. R. McDonald has returned from a trip to Astoria, where she visited Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Griffith.

Mrs. Anna Bauer has gone to Portland to attend summer school. She will study public

Boys between the ages of 13 and 17 years will have an opportunity to learn the fine points of baseball at the American Legion baseball school, scheduled to start July 10. Mel Ingram, high school athletic coach and supervisor of the summer recreational program, announced today.

The school is to be sponsored by Umpqua post of the American Legion in place of the junior baseball activity maintained in years prior to the war. The school, Ingram reports, will be held three days each week from 4 to 6 p. m., for a period of five weeks.

Ingram also is preparing to organize a softball league for boys. Approximately 40 youngsters registered for the league and are to be divided into teams which will be sponsored by local firms and individuals. Sponsors will pay only the cost of balls and bats. The league will start after the holidays.

Assistance also is being given by Ingram in the adult softball league, which is under the sponsorship of the Lions club. Games will be played on regular schedule this week, but all games will be cancelled next week due to the holidays. Games this week are to be played as follows:

Tonight — Roseburg Lumber Co. vs. Roseburg Alloys; Young's Bay Lumber Co. vs. Sutherland Caribous.

Wednesday — Olympia Supply Co. vs. Dunham's Transfer; Sutherland Caribous vs. Roseburg Alloys.

Friday — Young's Bay Lumber Co. vs. Olympia Supply Co.; Roseburg Lumber Co. vs. Dunham's transfer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Frederick Hand, 84, died Sunday at the home of his son, Alfred H. Hand, in Oakland, Oregon, following a long illness. Born in Oxford county, England, Oct. 10, 1859, he came to the United States with his mother and two brothers in 1861. He first lived in New York, moving later to Michigan, and came to Oregon in 1906. He had been a resident of Oakland since 1908.

Mr. Hand was a pioneer of the South Dakota Black hills, freighting there with an ox team during the Indian uprising and was acquainted with many of the noted plainsmen, including General Custer and William (Buffalo Bill) Cody.

He was married June 8, 1881, to Mrs. Clara Stocks, who died April 20, of this year.

Surviving are four sons and a daughter: John C. Hand, Provo, S. D.; Edgar G. Hand, Hot Springs, S. D.; Alfred H. Hand, Oakland; Ralph A. Hand, Palouse, Wash., and Mrs. Paul Verman, Los Angeles.

The body has been removed to Stearns mortuary, Oakland. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Elkton — Mrs. A. R. McDonald has returned from a trip to Astoria, where she visited Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Griffith.

Mrs. Anna Bauer has gone to Portland to attend summer school. She will study public

Boys between the ages of 13 and 17 years will have an opportunity to learn the fine points of baseball at the American Legion baseball school, scheduled to start July 10. Mel Ingram, high school athletic coach and supervisor of the summer recreational program, announced today.

The school is to be sponsored by Umpqua post of the American Legion in place of the junior baseball activity maintained in years prior to the war. The school, Ingram reports, will be held three days each week from 4 to 6 p. m., for a period of five weeks.

Ingram also is preparing to organize a softball league for boys. Approximately 40 youngsters registered for the league and are to be divided into teams which will be sponsored by local firms and individuals. Sponsors will pay only the cost of balls and bats. The league will start after the holidays.

Assistance also is being given by Ingram in the adult softball league, which is under the sponsorship of the Lions club. Games will be played on regular schedule this week, but all games will be cancelled next week due to the holidays. Games this week are to be played as follows:

Tonight — Roseburg Lumber Co. vs. Roseburg Alloys; Young's Bay Lumber Co. vs. Sutherland Caribous.

Wednesday — Olympia Supply Co. vs. Dunham's Transfer; Sutherland Caribous vs. Roseburg Alloys.

Friday — Young's Bay Lumber Co. vs. Olympia Supply Co.; Roseburg Lumber Co. vs. Dunham's transfer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Frederick Hand, 84, died Sunday at the home of his son, Alfred H. Hand, in Oakland, Oregon, following a long illness. Born in Oxford county, England, Oct. 10, 1859, he came to the United States with his mother and two brothers in 1861. He first lived in New York, moving later to Michigan, and came to Oregon in 1906. He had been a resident of Oakland since 1908.

Mr. Hand was a pioneer of the South Dakota Black hills, freighting there with an ox team during the Indian uprising and was acquainted with many of the noted plainsmen, including General Custer and William (Buffalo Bill) Cody.

He was married June 8, 1881, to Mrs. Clara Stocks, who died April 20, of this year.

Surviving are four sons and a daughter: John C. Hand, Provo, S. D.; Edgar G. Hand, Hot Springs, S. D.; Alfred H. Hand, Oakland; Ralph A. Hand, Palouse, Wash., and Mrs. Paul Verman, Los Angeles.

The body has been removed to Stearns mortuary, Oakland. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Elkton — Mrs. A. R. McDonald has returned from a trip to Astoria, where she visited Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Griffith.

Mrs. Anna Bauer has gone to Portland to attend summer school. She will study public

Boys between the ages of 13 and 17 years will have an opportunity to learn the fine points of baseball at the American Legion baseball school, scheduled to start July 10. Mel Ingram, high school athletic coach and supervisor of the summer recreational program, announced today.

The school is to be sponsored by Umpqua post of the American Legion in place of the junior baseball activity maintained in years prior to the war. The school, Ingram reports, will be held three days each week from 4 to 6 p. m., for a period of five weeks.

Ingram also is preparing to organize a softball league for boys. Approximately 40 youngsters registered for the league and are to be divided into teams which will be sponsored by local firms and individuals. Sponsors will pay only the cost of balls and bats. The league will start after the holidays.

Assistance also is being given by Ingram in the adult softball league, which is under the sponsorship of the Lions club. Games will be played on regular schedule this week, but all games will be cancelled next week due to the holidays. Games this week are to be played as follows:

Tonight — Roseburg Lumber Co. vs. Roseburg Alloys; Young's Bay Lumber Co. vs. Sutherland Caribous.

Wednesday — Olympia Supply Co. vs. Dunham's Transfer; Sutherland Caribous vs. Roseburg Alloys.

Friday — Young's Bay Lumber Co. vs. Olympia Supply Co.; Roseburg Lumber Co. vs. Dunham's transfer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Frederick Hand, 84, died Sunday at the home of his son, Alfred H. Hand, in Oakland, Oregon, following a long illness. Born in Oxford county, England, Oct. 10, 1859, he came to the United States with his mother and two brothers in 1861. He first lived in New York, moving later to Michigan, and came to Oregon in 1906. He had been a resident of Oakland since 1908.

Mr. Hand was a pioneer of the South Dakota Black hills, freighting there with an ox team during the Indian uprising and was acquainted with many of the noted plainsmen, including General Custer and William (Buffalo Bill) Cody.

He was married June 8, 1881, to Mrs. Clara Stocks, who died April 20, of this year.

Surviving are four sons and a daughter: John C. Hand, Provo, S. D.; Edgar G. Hand, Hot Springs, S. D.; Alfred H. Hand, Oakland; Ralph A. Hand, Palouse, Wash., and Mrs. Paul Verman, Los Angeles.

The body has been removed to Stearns mortuary, Oakland. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Elkton — Mrs. A. R. McDonald has returned from a trip to Astoria, where she visited Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Griffith.

Mrs. Anna Bauer has gone to Portland to attend summer school. She will study public

Boys between the ages of 13 and 17 years will have an opportunity to learn the fine points of baseball at the American Legion baseball school, scheduled to start July 10. Mel Ingram, high school athletic coach and supervisor of the summer recreational program, announced today.

The school is to be sponsored by Umpqua post of the American Legion in place of the junior baseball activity maintained in years prior to the war. The school, Ingram reports, will be held three days each week from 4 to 6 p. m., for a period of five weeks.

Ingram also is preparing to organize a softball league for boys. Approximately 40 youngsters registered for the league and are to be divided into teams which will be sponsored by local firms and individuals. Sponsors will pay only the cost of balls and bats. The league will start after the holidays.

Assistance also is being given by Ingram in the adult softball league, which is under the sponsorship of the Lions club. Games will be played on regular schedule this week, but all games will be cancelled next week due to the holidays. Games this week are to be played as follows:

Tonight — Roseburg Lumber Co. vs. Roseburg Alloys; Young's Bay Lumber Co. vs. Sutherland Caribous.

Wednesday — Olympia Supply Co. vs. Dunham's Transfer; Sutherland Caribous vs. Roseburg Alloys.

Friday — Young's Bay Lumber Co. vs. Olympia Supply Co.; Roseburg Lumber Co. vs. Dunham's transfer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Mrs. Clyde Lunnan and daughter, Barbara Jean, returned to their home here recently after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and spending several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank from Los Angeles spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Newman.

Frederick Hand, 84, died Sunday at the home of his son, Alfred H. Hand, in Oakland, Oregon, following a long illness. Born in Oxford county, England, Oct. 10, 1859, he came to the United States with his mother and two brothers in 1861. He first lived in New York, moving later to Michigan, and came to Oregon in 1906. He had been a resident of Oakland since 1908.

Mr. Hand was a pioneer of the South Dakota Black hills, freighting there with an ox team during the Indian uprising and was acquainted with many of the noted plainsmen, including General Custer and William (Buffalo Bill) Cody.

He was married June 8, 1881, to Mrs. Clara Stocks, who died April 20, of this year.

Surviving are four sons and a daughter: John C. Hand, Provo, S. D.; Edgar G. Hand, Hot Springs, S. D.; Alfred H. Hand, Oakland; Ralph A. Hand, Palouse, Wash., and Mrs. Paul Verman, Los Angeles.

The body has been removed to Stearns mortuary, Oakland. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Elkton — Mrs. A. R. McDonald has returned from a trip to Astoria, where she visited Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Griffith.

Mrs. Anna Bauer has gone to Portland to attend summer school. She will study public

Boys between the ages of 13 and 17 years will have an opportunity to learn the fine points of baseball at the American Legion baseball school, scheduled to start July 10. Mel Ingram, high school athletic coach and supervisor of the summer recreational program, announced today.

The school is to be sponsored by Umpqua post of the American Legion in place of the junior baseball activity maintained in years prior to the war. The school, Ingram reports, will be held three days each week from 4 to 6 p. m., for a period of five weeks.

Ingram also is preparing to organize a softball league for boys. Approximately 40 youngsters registered for the league and are to be divided into teams which will be sponsored by local firms and individuals. Sponsors will pay only the cost of balls and bats. The league will start after the holidays.

Assistance also is being given by Ingram in the adult softball league, which is under the sponsorship of the Lions club. Games will be played on regular schedule this week, but all games will be cancelled next week due to the holidays. Games this week are to be played as follows: