going. That is something new in recent republican leadership.
 If Willie (unquestionably able and dynamic) knew where he was going in 1940, he lacked the ability to TELL OTHERS. Among his followers (of whom this writer was one) there was always a disturbing feeling of confusion as to objectives.
 Landon had NO IDEA where he was going. He just wanted to go back SOMEWHERE and make a new start.
 Dewey knows what he's after.

LISTENING to the speech of acceptance (in which Dewey reveals himself) and then reading the convention platform, this writer gained the impression that the platform is an acceptable statement of Dewey's principles.
 That is as it should be. A candidate running on a platform that means NOTHING to him is like a man trying to ride two horses going in different directions.
 The result is certain to be a humiliating fall.

THE platform has a liberal, tolerant and sincere tone. Its attitude toward New Deal experimental legislation is to keep the good, discard the bad and MAKE IT WORK.
 It sounds as if the men who wrote it MEANT IT. It promises no rabbits pulled out of hats.

WINNING the fight that Dewey and the platform makers have outlined will be no easy job.
 Here in this country, we've been taught too long this cynical political creed: "Where and how DO I GET MINE?"
 This is the question we must face and answer in this campaign: "What can I do to SAVE MY COUNTRY?"

It's the old battle of patriotism vs. the fleshpots.

IN the Pacific, we're slowly (and bloodily) winning the infantry battle of Saipan. Our planes and warships are blasting the nearby Marianas islands. The Japs send bombers and torpedo planes against one of our task forces engaged in this job. Our navy reports tersely: "The attacks were unsuccessful."

At the same time, one of our navy task forces BOMBARDERS the of the islands of the KURILES. We're covering a lot of territory.

LITTLE by little, news filters through the double censorship that keeps China shrouded in secrecy—the Chinese censorship and ours. What filters through isn't reassuring as to China.
 We had an important AIR BASE at Hengyang. The Japs have TAKEN it. Before leaving, we destroyed as much of it as we could.

We have other air bases in this area. The Japs are gunning for them.

THE Russians are booming westward with astonishing speed, taking town after town. These fallen places have been UP TO NOW impregnable German

SO, YOU'RE OUT OF DEBT

By Charles V. Stanton

SO, you think you're out of debt!
 You possibly are one of the several millions of individuals in the United States who have been taking advantage of higher wages and lack of consumer goods to retire the bills you have been owing the doctor, the grocer, the automobile dealer, the furniture dealer, or, perhaps, retiring happy because you don't owe a cent and have money in the bank and a few war bonds tucked away for a rainy day.

But wait a minute! If you are a married man with two minor children you are in debt to the amount of $6,044.44.
 Do you have the money? Probably not.
 Every man, woman and child in the United States owes $1,511.36. That is his or her share of the national debt.
 By the time the war is over the per capita debt will be much higher. In the year 1943, alone, we spent more money than in the first 150 years of the life of our nation. In the 12 years of the New Deal administration we have incurred a debt equal to twice the total assessed valuation of all taxable property in the United States. If you own a home or a farm, your share of the national debt is double the assessed valuation of that piece of property.

The above figures are furnished by Senator Harry Byrd of Virginia, the spokesman for the "anti-pump primers," as quoted by Samuel B. Pettingill for his column, "Inside Your Congress."

Let's compare these with some local figures.
 The average person in Roseburg had a buying income of $1191 during 1943, according to a survey just released by the research department of the Oregon Mutual Life Insurance company.

In other words, your share of the public debt is 37 per cent more than you spent last year for food, clothing, drugs, furniture, general merchandise, chewing gum, ice cream cones, motion picture shows, etc. Yet your buying income, if you live in Roseburg or vicinity, is eight per cent greater than the national per capita income.

Estimating Roseburg's population at 7,000 persons, our aggregate share in the national debt would be $10,579,520.
 Our total retail sales for 1943, according to the insurance company's research department, were $9,805,000. Thus it would take more money than passed through all of our retail outlets in one entire year to pay off our proportion of what we eventually must remit to Uncle Sam. Yet Oregon ranked sixth highest in the nation in 1943 retail sales per capita.

It is small comfort to know that we're better off than most people, when it comes to considering the staggering burden of taxes that are ahead of us.

We hear New Deal economists say, "So what? It's a debt we owe ourselves."

Certainly it's a debt we owe ourselves, but it is a debt that must be paid. If it is not paid we lose every investment we have made—life insurance, social security, stocks, bonds and what have you.

Yes, it is a debt which must be paid, and with interest.
 And right there is another interesting comparison, for it will take around a quarter of a million dollars this year just to pay Roseburg's share of the interest on the national debt.

So, you're out of debt? That's what you think!

strongholds.
 One guesses the Germans are falling back to a new defense line somewhere in Poland.

THE big tank battle at Caen, where the British are fighting to widen our toe-hold on the coast of France, continues unabated.

It is announced that we now have 1100 square miles of the soil of France. That is about one-half of one per cent of France's total area of around 212,000 square miles. (The area of France is a little better than twice the area of the state of Oregon.)

If you want a mental picture of the ground we've won so far in the invasion, try to visualize an area 11 miles long by ten miles wide.

It isn't much. But you must remember that we're ONLY BE-GINNING.

Red Cross Directors Postpone Local Meeting

A meeting of the board of directors of the Douglas County chapter of the American Red Cross has been postponed from Monday, July 3, to Monday, July 10, it was announced today. The postponement was ordered because of the holidays and the desire of several members to take brief vacations over the three-day holiday period.

OUT OUR WAY

By J. R. Williams

DIAL LOG

Hey music lovers—(nice beginning... so zghteel), Big Doin's tonight from Grant park in Chicago. The Chicago Theatre of the Air is staging Minstrels of the Masses, featuring a full hour of the famous music of Stephen Foster and George M. Cohan. These two boys probably turned out more familiar and oft-whistled tunes than any two other Americans to date, and this festival should be a honey. That's 6 tonight.
 Downbeat Derby at 8 brings out the fanciest waxes of all times, plus a hot-shot musical guest star. It's a full hour show, and not bad.
 Seventy-three gives you Victory Auction—famous personalities offer prized possessions at auction for war bonds. Novel show.
 And don't forget the Salute to Service Men at 9:15.
 Sunday: Hookey Hall takes a make-believe trip to the zoo.
 Young Bobby has Termitte Dan-jels, Rosanne Biber and Daisy Dimwit as guest stars. You'll like the Mysterious Traveler at 2:30, and Roosty of the AAF at 3:30.
 Upton Close, the guy with the swell voice that you heard during the republican convention, is on at 3:30. The (weird) Adventures of Leonidas Witherald at 6, and Paul Winchell and Jerry Mahoney—ventriloquist and dummy—at 8.
 And say, The Human Adventure at 9:30 Sunday night will dramatize for you the story of anaes-thesia (not Anaesthesia Jones).
 Monday: It's a holiday but all regular network programs will be on, and all local news will be broadcast with KRNR running full time schedule but without commercials. Army Air Forces at 6:30—Chuck and the Bunkhouse boys have whipped up to St. Paul for the Rodeo and won't be heard, but a new show of western tunes is scheduled. Point Sublime at the usual time, and don't forget Sherlock Holmes at 10. The ole sleuth slips into a fussy little thing called "The Adventure of the Amateur Medicant Society." Tuesday: Aw heck, you'll be vacationing to your heart's content—but we'll be runnin' tune in and take potluck with us.

Visiting at Needham Home—Miss Virginia Lee Cox, of San Jose, Calif., has arrived in Roseburg to spend the summer with her maternal grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Needham, on South Jackson street. She is a daughter of Mrs. W. E. Cox, nee Nina Needham.

Kentucky Visitors Here—Mrs. Maude Taitt, Mrs. Florence Byrne and two children, James and Jo Anne, and Miss Evelyn Davis, have arrived from Kentucky to visit Mrs. Taitt's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ryce Wilson and family, on Claire street. Mrs. Byrne is a sister of Mrs. Wilson.

Visiting at Cannon Home—Mrs. Ivan Brown and her friend, Miss Ruby Seitz, of Portland, are spending the weekend visiting at the home of the former's mother-in-law, Mrs. Therman Cannon. Both Mrs. Brown and Miss Seitz are engaged in national defense work in Portland. Mrs. Brown's husband, Air Cadet Ivan Brown, is stationed at Maxwell field, Ala., taking training.

Move To Laurelwood Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Fries and three children, newcomers to Roseburg, have moved into their home on Riverside drive in Laurelwood, which they recently bought. Mr. Fries is connected with the Roseburg branch of the U. S. National bank. The home was formerly occupied by Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Jump and children, who left a few weeks ago for the east to make their home.

Will Visit in Brownsboro—Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Gilbert of Roseburg are leaving Monday night for Brownsboro, Ore., to visit over the Fourth with the latter's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Marshall, and the Marshall's son, William, Jr., who is home on furlough from army service in the Aleutians. Mr. Gilbert is manager of the Roseburg F. W. Woolworth company store.

Visiting Here—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Levy of Portland, who have been spending their vacation in Palo Alto and San Francisco, have arrived here to visit Mrs. Levy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Byrd. They were accompanied here by Mrs. Levy's sister, Mrs. Betty Saari, of Palo Alto, who is also visiting her parents. The Levy's daughter, Patricia Sue, remained in Roseburg, while they went on to California. Mr. Levy, who is with the Oregon Journal in Portland, will return north Monday, while Mrs. Levy will remain for a longer visit. Both Mr. and Mrs. Levy were formerly employed by the News-Review.
