Marry at Presbyterian Church

Graham-Brust Wedding Party

The wedding of Miss Erika Hielene Brust, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Brust, and Warren Ray Graham, WT 3/c, U. S. N. R., son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert E. Graham, took place in the First Presbyterian church at Roseburg Thursday, June 22, at ten o'clock in the morning. Dr. Morris H. Roach, pastor of the church, performed the impressive ceremony.

The ceremony was preceded by Mrs. Paul Geddes playing "I Love You Truly" on the pipe organ. The wedding party approached the altar to the strains of Richard Wagner's Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin. The bride was preceded by Mrs. Garth Duval, matron of honor. Abraham L. Schroeder acted as best man.

The bride was very attractive in a two-piece dress of winter white trimmed with gold embroidery. She wore a floral hat of cream silk veiling and pink rosebuds, sweetpeas and stephanotis. She carried a white prayer book, a gift from the bridegroom, and her mother's wedding handkerchief of lace.

The matron of honor wore a two-piece dress of powder blue. The bride and matron of honor wore matching corsages of pink rosebuds, sweetpeas and stephanotis.

The bride's mother wore an attractive ensemble of black with jersey trim and black accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua dress with black accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pastel blossoms.

The altar was decorated with three baskets of gladioli; one white and the other two of pink Canterbury bells and lavender gladioli.

Besides the family those present were: Mrs. Erwin Short and daughters, Marie and Loretta Jean; Mrs. C. A. Chamberlin and daughter, Ida, Erwin Stevens, Mrs. R. L. Hudson, Mrs. V. W. Shaw, Mrs. B. W. Wynter and daughter, Janice Lynn.

Following the ceremony, a wedding reception was held at the bride's home for the bridal party, relatives and close friends. This was followed by a wedding dinner for the bridal party, after which the bride and bridegroom left on their honeymoon.

MISS LOIS FENN BECOMES BRIDE OF JESSE B. DeWALD

CANYONVILLE—The J. A. Fenn home near Canyonville, was the scene of a charming home wedding on Tuesday, June 20, when Miss Lois Fenn became the bride of Jesse B. DeWald, in the presence of immediate relatives.

Mrs. A. M. Shaffer played the wedding march, preceded by the singing of "I Love You Truly," by Mrs. Ruth Parker. The bride and groom took their places before the fireplace, which was banked with greenery and outlined with syringa, and the impressive double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. A. M. Shaffer, of the Canyonville Bible academy. On the mantel was a long bouquet, flanked by white tapers, and a basket of white flowers—baby gladioli, asters and stocks—were placed on each side of the fireplace.

The bride was lovely in a floor-length gown of white taffeta with a long veil of tulle and lace. She carried a bouquet of gardenias, orchid and bride's lilies, and wore blue flowers in her hair. Following the ceremony, the bride and groom cut the wedding cake, which had been prepared by Mrs. H. L. DeWald, aunt of the bridegroom. A buffet luncheon was served to the bride couple and: Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cooper and Miss Mary Anne Cooper of Myrtle Point, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Shaffer, Mrs. Ruth Parker, Robert Shaffer, Mrs. Emma DeWald, Mrs. H. L. DeWald, Mrs. Jessie L. Quait and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fenn.

The bride spent her early years in this community and was graduated from the Canyonville high school in 1931 and for several years was engaged in the florist business at Coquille. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Emma DeWald, whose parents were among the early settlers of the valley. Mr. and Mrs. DeWald will make their home on a farm near Days Creek, which Mr. DeWald operates.

MRS. W. M. CAMPBELL IS HONORED AT LOVELY LUNCHEON ON THURSDAY

A delightful no-host luncheon was served in the church parlors of the Presbyterian church last Thursday by the Steadfast Sunday school class, honoring its teacher, Mrs. W. M. Campbell.

The tables were beautifully decorated with early summer flowers and the many baskets of flowers around the rooms made a lovely setting.

Mrs. Jim Pinkerton presented the honor guest with a lovely corsage and a gift from the class in appreciation for her efficient and tireless efforts in behalf of the Sunday school class and the church in general.

After a short business meeting, a program and visiting were enjoyed.

Those present were: The honor guest, Mrs. W. M. Campbell and her husband, W. M. Campbell, Dr. Morris Roach, Mrs. Morris Roach and daughter Betty, Mrs. G. G. Sewell, Mrs. Polly Bellows and granddaughter, Bonnie Bellows, Mrs. Mary Meyers and daughter Marilyn, Mrs. G. S. Campbell, Miss Margaret Baldwin, Mrs. Marion L. Richmond, Mrs. Della F. Green, Mrs. Mary H. Travis, Mrs. R. W. Rodgers, Mrs. O. S. Chambers, Miss Estella V. Conover, Mrs. George Kohlgren, Mrs. S. A. Sanford, Mrs. U. H. Richardson, Mrs. Mabel Hollwell, Miss Margaret Clapp, Mrs. Reba Hartley, Miss Louise Smith, Mrs. W. M. Chalmers, Mrs. Florence Pinkerton, Mrs. Anna Fisher, Mrs. W. G. Blake and Mrs. Ida M. Bailey.

TWELVE AND WON CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING

Tuesday, Mrs. Gertrude Felkert entertained the Twelve and Won club at the lovely country home of Mr. and Mrs. Jane Moran. A delicious potluck luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Moran. Mixed supper flowers and roses formed the attractive bouquet on the table and were used about the rooms.

A short business meeting was held and Mrs. Felkert was initiated into the club. The next regular meeting was changed from July 4 to July 6.

High score prize for the afternoon's social hour was awarded to Mrs. Richardson with Mrs. Ellison receiving the low score prize. Those present were: Mrs. Felkert, Mrs. Eunice Sory, Mrs. Fred Ritman, Mrs. Hallie Richardson, Mrs. Lucy Jennings, members, Mrs. Moran and Mrs. Ellison, guests.

Mrs. Eunice Sory will entertain the club at her home at 312 N. Chadwick street on July 6.

ENJOYABLE DINNER GIVEN AT MONTGOMERY HOME MONDAY EVENING

Sergeant Melvin H. McCord, home from the fighting front in Italy, and Miss Estelle Woods were dinner guests Monday evening of Mr. and Mrs. John Montgomery on Claire street.

Following the dinner the group enjoyed motion pictures taken by Mr. Montgomery of scenes in relation to the forest service and also of his family. Sgt. McCord and Mr. Montgomery are close friends as both were with the Umpqua forest service before the war.

Marry at Beautiful Service Thursday

Lt. and Mrs. Charles Frederick Hary

At the largest and most beautiful wedding of the year, Miss Carolyn Jeanne Allen, lovely daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Clair K. Allen, of Roseburg, became the bride of Lt. Charles Frederick Hary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Hary, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Thursday evening, June 22, at the First Presbyterian church in this city. Dr. Morris H. Roach, pastor of the church, performed the impressive ring ceremony at eight o'clock in the evening in the presence of about three hundred friends and relatives.

The altar background was fashioned with huge baskets of white gladioli, lilies, ocean spray and peach bells, carrying out an all-white motif. Tall cathedral candles were artistically arranged and the center aisle was marked with bouquet sprays of fern and white lilies.

Miss Athalie Taylor and Miss Anita Young, both in lovely pink formal gowns with pink satin bandeaus with sweetpea rosettes in their hair, lighted the altar candles. Mrs. Homer W. Groat and accompanied Mrs. Joseph Deets, who very charmingly sang "Because."

With the opening strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, the bridal party advanced to the altar.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a floor-length gown of white net, fashioned along Princess lines. The full skirt was arranged in tiers and the sweetheart neckline was outlined with rows of tiny net ruffles. Her full length wedding veil and train were held in place with sprays of orange blossoms. She carried a spray of orchids and gardenias tied with a shower of satin ribbons knotted with bouvardia.

Miss Margaret Hamilton, Portland, was maid of honor and was lovely in a floor-length gown of pastel yellow and Miss Patricia McClintock, also a sorority sister of the bride, and Miss Florence Hamilton, were bridesmaids and wore charming in formal gowns of pale blue. The three attendants wore satin bandeaus with sweetpea rosettes in their hair and carried old-fashioned nosegays fashioned with sweetpeas and Cecil Brunner roses.

The bride's mother was very lovely in a floor-length gown of deep blue, fashioned with a draped skirt and bodice. Her corsage was a large, deep pink orchid.

P. M. Lee was best man and L. E. McClintock and H. H. Turner were ushers.

At the close of the ceremony, Mrs. Groat played Mendelssohn's Recessional Wedding March.

A reception followed at the attractive home of the bride's parents on Watson street, to which one hundred and twenty-five guests were invited. Gorgeous bouquets of roses, delphinium, peach bells and other pastel colored summer blossoms were artistically arranged about the rooms.

The serving table, covered by a lovely hand-crocheted lace cloth, was centered with an arrangement of waxy magnolia blossoms and tall white tapers. White tapers also flanked the bouquets on the buffet and fireplace mantel.

The lovely three-tiered decorated wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom and was served by Mrs. C. B. Wade and Mrs. Roy O. Young. Mrs. R. L. Bathrick and Mrs. A. B. Taylor poured. Mrs. L. E. McClintock and Mrs. P. M. Lee had charge of the serving and were assisted by Miss Joanne Hume, Miss Athalie Taylor, Miss Anita Young, Miss Fritzie Hamilton, Miss Priscilla Wade, Miss Merilee Yeager and Miss Nancy McClintock. Mrs. Fred Richter, of Oakridge, had charge of the room displaying the many beautiful wedding gifts and Suzanne Lee had charge of the guest book. Decorations at the church and reception were in charge of Mrs. C. B. Wade, Mrs. L. L. Wimberly and Mrs. C. E. Wimberly.
