EVERGREEN GRANGE TO SPONSOR SUPPER-DANCE AT HALL THIS EVENING

A most cordial invitation has been extended by the Evergreen Grange to the public to enjoy a supper-dance at 7:30 o'clock to-night, July 1, at the hall. An admission charge will be made for the supper. The dance will be held free. The home economics chairman, Gertrude Hess, and the entertainment committee chairman, Mable Gerrick, are in charge of the affair.

The grange met Monday evening at the hall with Mr. and Mrs. Hindbeck and Mr. and Mrs. Harriman being taken into the organization as new members. The charter was draped in memory of Henry Lander, Sr.

Vera Rice, saleslip chairman, reported that slips are being turned in and asked the grange for a vote of appreciation to Helen and John Lander for their exceptionally fine work on this committee.

A very interesting report on the state grange meeting was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Spackman.

A short program was presented by Vera Rice, lecturer pro-tem, at which time she read the following poem urging the sale of war bonds:

"If we grangers,—and we might, Put our money in this fight, Then we, on victory day, Can hold up our heads and proudly say: Boys we helped you all the way."

The grange presented a beautiful grange pin to Vera Rice as a token of appreciation for her work in the organization.

DOUBLE WEDDING ANNIVERSARY IS CELEBRATED SUNDAY

A very interesting and pleasant affair of the week was the double wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Orvid Guy Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hodges Sunday at the Ted Hodges home in Lookingglass.

A beautiful gift was presented with a very lovely Biblical picture to both families by their friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Alma Jay LeClere and Mrs. Joe Guthrie had charge of the guest books, which were presented to the honored guests. A delightful potluck dinner was followed by a most enjoyable musical program.

Miss Mildred Wallace, charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Wallace, Roseburg, and Meredith Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wilson, of Umpqua, were married at a very pretty wedding at eight o'clock Thursday evening, June 29, at the home of the bride's parents.

An improvised altar was formed with two large baskets of mixed summer flowers, centered with a huge basket of gladioli. The altar was flanked by candleabra holding white candles. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. H. V. Crook, sister of the bride, played softly on the piano and played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bridal party to advance to the altar. Dr. Charles A. Edwards performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

Proceeding the ceremony, Miss Dorothy Mabley and Miss Betty Greenley, dressed in pink sheer formal and wearing corsages of sweetpeas, descended the open stairway and lighted the altar candles.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was very lovely in a floor-length satin wedding gown of white, fashioned with a full train, sweetheart neckline and long sleeves coming to a point at the wrist. Tiny buttons fastened the bodice at the back and the wasteline was outlined with an edging of seed-pearls. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis, pink baby Penocchio roses and centered with a large orchid. A shower of satin ribbons and stephanotis fell from the bouquet. Her veil was finger tip in length and was held in place with a halo of stephanotis.

Miss Eleanor Updegrade, a former room-mate of the bride at boarding school, was maid of honor, and was attractive in a floor-length gown of blue with a lace bodice and full marquisette skirt. Her flowers were pink roses and stephanotis.

Stanley Long, of Umpqua, a close friend of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride's mother wore a black ensemble and the bridegroom's mother wore a rust-colored dress. Both wore corsages of white carnations and sweetpeas. The bridegroom's two grandmothers, Mrs. Ora Banker and Mrs. Wilson, Sr., wore corsages of white sweetpeas.

A reception followed and the three-tiered decorated wedding cake, topped by a miniature sailor bridegroom and bride, was cut by the bride and groom and served by Mrs. DeWitt, of Sutherlin. The lace-covered table was centered with a very beautiful arrangement of carnations and roses and tall tapers. Miss Beryl Scoles, Miss Dorothy Mabley and Miss Betty Greenley served and Mrs. O. N. Wallace cut the ices. The wedding photographs were taken by Paul Jenkins.

The bride's wedding bouquet was caught by Miss Scoles. For traveling the bride chose an aqua green two-piece suit with tan accessories and her corsage was a large orchid. Following a wedding trip to points north, the bridegroom will return to Farragut, Idaho, to resume his training in the Navy and the bride will return to Roseburg.

The bride was graduated from Laurelwood academy near Portland and spent a year attending Walla Walla college. The bridegroom attended the Roseburg schools and was graduated from Riverside Military academy in Georgia. He recently enlisted in the Navy. The bride's father is a retired contractor and is well-known all over the state. The bridegroom's father formerly operated the Ford garage in Roseburg, until purchasing the large ranch near Umpqua a few years ago, and which he still operates.

Guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wilson, Mrs. Ora Banker, Mrs. Wilson, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Wallace, Mrs. DeWitt, of Sutherlin; Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Crook, Miss Dorothy Mabley, Miss Betty Greenley, Miss Eleanor Updegrade, Stanley Long, Dr. Charles A. Edwards, Miss Beryl Scoles and Miss Berniece Stoner, of Eugene; Wallace and Gordon Crook, Billy and Everett Greenley and Robert Wallace.

POET'S CORNER

HIT IT, FOLKS, HIT IT!

"Hit the ball," folks, for the boys. They are not the "kids" needing toys; They are men, and I mean men, And we want them home again. "Hit the ball," folks, for the boys.

Buy bonds, folks, for the boys. You can't do better, for future joys; You can help yourself and them And bring the boys home again. Buy bonds, folks, for the boys.

Praise God, folks, for the boys. Praise Him sincerely, not just noise. Hit the ball, buy bonds, do it all, Help finish the job this fall. Praise God, folks, for the boys. —R. J. BRISCOE.
