BOND SHOW IS COLORFUL AFFAIR AT HUNT'S INDIAN

The Wednesday night war bond show at Hunt's Indian theatre proved to be one of the most successful ever sponsored in Roseburg. Ushers at the theatre wore special formal gowns of pink and white. The ushers included: Nita Wimer, June Lyster, Shirley Carter, Yvonne Byrd, Shirley Parker, Leona Talbert, Patricia Nichols and Joyce Bartley.

The Drum Corps girls, in very attractive uniforms, entertained the audience before the main show and between shows. The Minute Maids added much to the occasion in their costumes. They included: Helen Cordon, Dorothy Puckett, Joanne Hume, Patricia McClintock, Florence Hamilton, Anita Young, Meta-Marie Amiot, Vivian Kershner and Peggy Blaker.

The audience reports that the main feature, together with the visiting army band and show, proved one of the finest entertainments ever enjoyed here. The Bond committee has expressed appreciation to Mrs. Donn Radabaugh, manager of the theatre, for her fine cooperation in making the show possible.

Los Angeles	42	43	.494
Sacramento	37	46	.446

(By the Associated Press.)
The San Francisco Seals clung to a slim half-game lead in the Pacific coast baseball league today but they face a battle to retain that position this week as they meet the tough Oakland A's, who have won their last four series.

The Seals lost the lead Saturday but regained it yesterday with a 9 to 4 win over the San Diego Padres followed by a 3-0 tie while the A's won their 3-0 tie over the Seals.

The game at San Diego resulted when officials called the contest during the eighth inning at the agreed time of 5:45 to permit the Padres to catch a train.

The Seals were leading, 5 to 3, but the score reverted to the seventh inning tally.

Oakland easily won the opener of its doubleheader with the Beavers, but was forced to go 10 innings to win the scheduled seven-inning affair.

Seattle also won a double bill with Los Angeles, making it three in a row and dumping the Angels from a tie for third to seventh position over the weekend.

The Rainiers took the 10-inning opener, 4 to 2, and the nightcap, 4 to 0. The Sacramento Solons and Hollywood split, the Solons winning the opener, 3 to 0, behind the four-hit pitching of Guy Fletcher, while the Stars pulled the nightcap out of the fire with two runs in the seventh frame for a 2 to 1 win.

Saturday's scores: San Diego 4, San Francisco 1; Oakland 4, Portland 1; Seattle 10, Los Angeles 1, and Hollywood 5, Sacramento 4.

In addition to the Seals-Oakland series this week, San Diego will play at Sacramento, Seattle at Portland and Los Angeles at Hollywood. All teams will open tomorrow with doubleheaders.
