DINNER PARTY ENJOYED AT GEORGE F. BELLOW'S HOME IN INDIANA

Of interest here is the dinner-party given by Mr. and Mrs. George F. Bellows at their home in Gary, Indiana, recently and attended by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bellows of Roseburg, their son, Lt. Robert Bellows and Mr. and Mrs. Cline of Corvallis and their son, Lt. Cline.

The affair honored the two fathers, Mr. Cline and Roy Bellows and was also a birthday dinner honoring Lt. Bellows. A beautiful birthday cake was cut in honor of the occasion and a pleasant social time was held.

Mr. and Mrs. Cline and Mr. and Mrs. Bellows went to Chicago to meet their respective sons to be with them a few days before the latter two were sent overseas for army duty. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bellows returned to their home in Roseburg last week and the Clines returned to Corvallis.

George F. (Fred) Bellows is well known in Roseburg, having been graduated from Roseburg high school. He is a nephew of Roy Bellows and the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Bellows of this city.

LADY ELKS ANNUAL SUMMER TEA IS CHARMING AFFAIR OF FRIDAY NIGHT

The Lady Elks sponsored their annual summer bridge tea Friday evening at the temple, with Mrs. Paul Geddes as general chairman of the successful and enjoyable event.

Gorgeous bouquets of mixed spring flowers were artistically arranged by Mrs. L. L. Wimberly and Mrs. Adrian Fisher. The tea table, covered by an attractive lace cloth, was especially beautiful with a flower arrangement centerpiece of pastel-colored summer flowers and tall lighted tapers. Mrs. Wimberly, president of the Lady Elks, and Mrs. Fisher poured.

Following the card play, lovely refreshments were served. Mrs. L. E. McClintock won the high score prize for ladies at bridge with Mrs. Maurice L. Hallmark winning the second high score and Harry S. Black winning the men's high score prize. The pinochle high score prizes were won by Mrs. Al Collins and Val Strong and the five-hundred high score prize was won by Mrs. David Meyers.

FOURTH OF JULY PICNIC IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR AT AUTO PARK

Members of George Starmer camp and auxiliary to United Spanish War Veterans and their families enjoyed a delightful Fourth of July picnic Tuesday noon at the Roseburg Auto Park at the Deer Creek bridge. Covers were placed for thirty-one. Ice cream, lemonade and coffee were furnished by the camp and auxiliary.

The table was decorated by an arrangement of gorgeous lilies, grown by O. L. Lehne of Sutherlin, Mr. Lehne is well-known for his very beautiful flowers and shrubs, as he has one of the finest gardens in Douglas county.

Games were played and a baseball game was held. Plans were made for a group of camp and auxiliary members to attend the state convention to be held July 9-12. Supper was served in the early evening.

Both the camp and auxiliary will adjourn meetings for the remainder of the summer.

MR. AND MRS. CALDWELL HONORED WITH DINNER SATURDAY EVENING

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Caldwell of Seattle, Wash., who have been vacationing here for the past ten days at the home of the latter's parents, were honored at a delightful out-door buffet dinner, given by Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Marsters, on Saturday evening, July 1, at their beautiful home, "Friendelliff," on S. Kane street. Guests enjoying the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geddes, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Grow, Mrs. Robert Irving, and Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Nelson. After dinner the guests enjoyed "mob" ping pong. At 9:45 all the party went to the Ray Hampton home in Laurelwood for the dessert course. Music, games and group singing were then enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell left for their home in Seattle July 3.

FOURTH OF JULY PICNIC SUPPER ENJOYED AT WIMBERLY HOME

A very delightful Fourth of July picnic supper was enjoyed in the beautiful garden of the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wimberly. A long table, attractively decorated in the Fourth of July motif, was arranged on the lawn.

Covers were placed for: Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ellison, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cramer, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher and daughter, Susan; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Lee, Mrs. Ward Cummings, Mrs. Leslie C. Cummings, H. H. ## Marry at Impressive Ceremony

P. F. C. and Mrs. William H. Bigelow

Miss Ruth Blake, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Blake, Roseburg, and Private First Class William H. Bigelow, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Bigelow, of Centralia, Wash., were married at a very beautiful ceremony Friday evening at eight o'clock at the First Presbyterian church in Roseburg. Dr. Morris H. Roach, pastor of the church, performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of 250 friends and relatives.

White calla lilies, pink, blue and white hydrangeas and sprays of pastel blue and pink summer blossoms were used in the five large baskets forming a semi-circle at the altar. Tall white cathedral candles in candelabra flanked the flower arrangements.

Proceeding the ceremony, Mrs. Homer Grow played pipe organ music and accompanied Mrs. Glen Caldwell (nee Betty Marsters) of Seattle, who charmingly sang, "I Love Thee," by Grieg and "At Dawning" by Cadman. The altar candles were lighted by Leslie Miller.

With the opening strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, the bridal party advanced to the altar.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a floor-length gown of white net over white taffeta, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline. Her finger-tip veil was edged with lace and was fitted with a tiara of orange blossoms. She wore a strand of pearls, a wedding gift from the bridegroom. Her large shower bouquet was fashioned with gardenias, carnations and stephanotis with long satin ribbons tied with tiny knots of stephanotis blossoms.

Miss Louise Blake, of Roseburg, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore an attractive blue organdy frock and Miss Louise Fancher, of Longview, Wash., was bridesmaid, and was charming in a pink organdy frock. Both wore corsages of carnations and stephanotis.

Bill Roberts, of the U. S. marines, acted as best man and Staff Sergeant Leslie Miller was an usher. Little Judy Bellows and little Glenda Marshall, the latter a niece of the bride, were flower girls and wore attractive yellow organdy frocks and carried bouquets of sweetpeas.

The bride's mother wore an attractive plum-colored lace dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a chateaux-colored ensemble. Both mothers wore corsages of pink and white stephanotis. At the close of the ceremony Mrs. Homer Grow played Mendelssohn's wedding recessional. A reception followed in the
