made possible by Chinese reinforcements that came from the southwest—where our airfields are located.

A Chinese army spokesman says: "This removes for some time to come the threat of Jap occupation of the entire Peiping-Canton railroad, with consequent cutting of China in two."

THE Chinese spokesman's statement, on its face, sounds a bit over-optimistic. But General Chennault, who has been realistic so far, adds:

"We are now drawing into position to strike STRAIGHT AT THE HEART of the Japanese empire. The time will come soon, perhaps before another 12 months have passed, when the Japs will be driven forever from Chinese soil."

He may know something that hasn't yet been officially told.

MOUNT BATTEN tells his troops that Jap General Mutaguchi has confessed failure in his India invasion and admitted that his invading army is in desperate straits.

The Burma Chinese are only a mile from Tengchung, described in the dispatches as "an important city necessary to reopening the Burma road."

ON Saipan, our commanders offered the Jap civilians a chance to surrender, designating a route for them to come into our lines and promising them food, water and safety if they come.

J. B. Krieger, AP correspondent on the spot, cables that the trapped Japs SPURN SURRENDER and await death.

IN estimating the Jap suicide complex, we must keep this hard, realistic fact in mind: The mystic Jap savage who insists on dying for his emperor instead of surrendering when all hope is gone doesn't have to be fed and cared for by us.

WES GALLAGHER, AP correspondent in Normandy, cables that the invasion "hasn't lived up to the expectations of many of its planners."

The Germans, he explains, have fought fanatically, and the weather has been bad from the beginning, hampering our air operations and our landings.

KEEP your fingers crossed. This may be said to fool the Germans. If the Normandy landing isn't up to expectations, it would be logical to expect OTHER landings.

AS to the rocket bombs, the London Telegraph says: "Flying bombs will not be forgotten when the time comes to SETTLE ACCOUNTS with Germany. Meanwhile this desultory and indiscriminate fire will drive nobody from his post."

WHISTLING to keep British courage up? Let's see about that. Suppose the Japs were terror-

THE SOLDIER VIEWPOINT

By Charles V. Stanton

WE were reading a few days ago of the soldier who halted a jeep beside a city parking meter. Hopping out of the vehicle, he started away but was called back by a bystander. "Better put a nickel in that parking meter, Buddy, or you'll get a ticket," said the onlooker. "You put in the nickel," was the reply, "it's as much yours as it is mine."

The soldier had the right idea and the sooner we realize we are all in this war together, the sooner we will achieve victory.

There has been a studied effort in this country over a period of several years to create divisions and factions. Labor has been deliberately pitted against management. "White collar" workers have become a class. Farmers have been set aside as a group. The capitalist has been portrayed as a pariah. Class distinction has been created for use as a political weapon. Now it proves a boomerang to national unity.

Governor Earl Warren expressed this idea most aptly in his republican national convention keynote speech, when he said:

"This war cannot be fought and won as republicans or democrats. This is an all-American war. There is a place for every American in it. There is no place of honor for any American who is not in it."

"In or out of office, republicans and democrats share the responsibility of winning the war. . . . The generals who command our armies, the admirals who command our fleets are no more republican or democratic than the armies and the fleets which they command. . . . They know how to run the war and we will see to it that they have the opportunity to run it without political interference."

"There is room for honest differences among us. There is no room for disunity. We can be of differing minds. But we must be of one heart. . . . There is no place among us for malcontents."

"We are in no mood for torch-light jubilation. Whether we win as a party is less important to us than whether we win as a people."

Victory can be speeded if we will realize the soldier's viewpoint, "it's as much yours as it is mine."

Bob Redell, Roseburg city policeman, has been absorbing plenty of "ribbing" since he lost his shirt recently in getting a belligerent sailor behind jail bars.

The sailor celebrated his homecoming well but not wisely. When the policeman was called, the sailor was endeavoring to engage in battle with two soldiers, who had tried to quiet his outburst in a cafe. The sailor's mother nearly in hysterics, was unsuccessfully attempting to break up the impending attack.

The policeman was fully armed with all of the implements and gadgets usually carried by officers to handle recalcitrants. A single tap with his night stick would have quickly settled the argument.

But with the boy's mother as an onlooker, Bob treated the entire proceeding as a joke, took a chance on a beating, suffered his clothes to be torn into shreds, and received a few bruises, keeping a smile on his face while doing his duty as an officer.

When a police officer is so thoughtful of a mother's feelings that he will not inflict even temporary injury upon her son in her presence, he deserves a pat on the back.

We imagine Herr Shickelgruber is getting the idea of what Americans mean when they use the phrase: "As busy as a one-armed paperhanger with the itch."

Welcome home-boys. Here it is Monday night again and time for Chuck and the Bunkhouse boys. What with being gone two weeks ago and the boys being gone last week, it seems that it's been a long time since we've heard them; so, here's hoping they will all be on hand for tonight's show. And say, Skinny, would you, as a special favor, do "Empty Saddles" on your fiddle for us some time. We'll take your good nature for granted and say "thank you" right now. Point Sublime at 8:30 and Sherlock Holmes at 10 to round out a swell evening's entertainment.

Tuesday morning you'll hear American Woman's jury at 10:45 and Organ Chimes at 11:15. Hope you aren't overlooking The Smoothies at 1:15. Plenty good, and there's your favorite "Dusty Records" at 3:15. There's no doubt in anyone's mind around here bombing every city on the Pacific Coast, including Roseburg. Would we be coming out of the rubble of our destroyed homes with our hands in the air screaming: "PLEASE quit, we surrender!"

WE WOULD NOT. We'd be gritting our teeth and swearing to get even if it took every man, woman and child of us to do it.

TERROR-BOMBING gets nowhere save to harden resolution to shed the last drop of blood, if need be. The bomb is a MILITARY weapon, to be used for military purposes.

As a breaker of civilian morale, it is worse than a flop. Hard experience has taught us that

Edward M. Lyons, aged 78 years, died at his home in Portland, July 6. Mr. Lyons was born in Michigan and lived there until early manhood when he came west. He lived at Myrtle Creek with his sister and family, the late Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mulkey, pioneer settlers on North Myrtle creek, for several years. He is survived by his widow and two children, George Lyons of Portland and Mrs. Virgil McGee of Nyssa. Seven grandchildren and several nieces and nephews, among the latter are the Cox brothers, Frank, Henry and Glenn of Roseburg, and Frank Mulkey and Mrs. C. C. March of Myrtle Creek.

Mr. Lyons was a member of the Methodist church.

All-Stars Win From Sutherlin Caribous

Breaking a 5 to 5 tie in the sixth inning, a picked team of Roseburg All-Stars defeated the Sutherlin Caribous, 6 to 5, in a softball game at Finlay field Sunday afternoon. The Roseburg team took a one-run lead in the second inning, but the Caribous went out in front with a two-run spurge in the first half of the third inning. The All-Stars bunched three hits in the last half of the inning, however, for two runs, to regain their slim margin and added two in the fifth, only to have the Caribous tie the count with two runs in the sixth and one in the seventh.

The game went through the eighth inning with each pitcher tossing only three balls, forcing batters to hit fly balls.

In the last of the ninth, the All-Stars loaded the bases as a result of Sutherlin errors and scored when a hard infield ball was juggled momentarily and then thrown wild to the plate.

Summary: R. H. E. Sutherlin, .002 002 100 .5 6 3. Roseburg .012 020 001 .6 6 4. Batteries: Vang and Goff; Blake and Baughman.

Seals Top League; Tight Week Ahead

Topped by the San Francisco Seals, five Pacific coast league baseball teams were grouped within a game and a half today as the circuit entered the tightest week in its history.

The Seals successfully defended their lead last week against the Oakland Acoms although the two teams switched positions four times and each won four games. San Francisco won a wild-hitting double-header opener yesterday, 10 to 6, before 19,128 paid customers, largest crowd to witness a game in the Seal park. The two squads beat out 28 hits and collectively bobbled eight times, five errors by Oakland being a factor in the Seal victory. Four Seal errors marred the performance.

Seattle's Rainiers and the Los Angeles Angels moved into a second-place tie, one game behind San Francisco, as the Rainiers beat Portland, 6 to 1 and 5 to 0, while the Angels were sweeping a doubleheader with Hollywood, 3 to 2 and 7 to 5.

San Diego also swept its twin bill with Sacramento, 10 to 7 and 5 to 3, taking up fifth position one percentage point behind Oakland and one game and a half out of first.

In Saturday's games San Francisco beat Oakland, 2 to 1, in 11 innings; Los Angeles won from Hollywood, 6 to 0; Sacramento edged out San Diego, 3 to 2 and Portland defeated Seattle, 1 to 0.

Tomorrow San Francisco opens at Portland, Sacramento at Los Angeles, and San Diego at Oakland. Seattle and Hollywood will open in the northern city with a doubleheader Wednesday.

Fireproof Tents Demanded PORTLAND, July 10.—(AP)—City officials today considered a new ordinance that would bar circuses not having fire-proofed tents.
