VICTORY COUNCIL AIDS

By Charles V. Stanton

DOUGLAS COUNTY has achieved a remarkable record in the Fifth War Loan campaign. It is believed we were the first county to complete the Series E bond quota...

Credit for all series other than E, F and G bonds, halted July 8, this being necessary because of the interest factor...

Fifth War Loan Series E bonds alone are expected to total 75 million or more individual pieces, compared with 69,856 in the Fourth War Loan...

Dr. E. E. Boring, the Fifth War Loan chairman; H. O. Pargeter, chairman of the county war finance staff; Horace Berg, chairman of the payroll deduction division of the county staff...

It obviously is impossible to give individual mention to each of the hundreds of assistants in the war bond sales campaign. But one group in our opinion is deserving of special and honorable mention...

The issuance of bonds, as previously stated, has grown from 19,000,000 in the First War Loan to more than 75,000,000 in the current drive. This growth is in almost direct proportion to the increase in the number of inches of cooperative war-aid advertising...

The Roseburg Victory Council during the Fifth War Loan drive furnished cooperative advertising in a much larger degree than in any previous effort. At the same time Douglas county set an unusually high sales record, particularly on Series E bonds...

More than 80 persons compose the Victory Council, contributing small sums monthly into a fund to be expended for cooperative war-aid advertising, under the supervision of the retail merchants committee of the Roseburg Chamber of Commerce...

INVADE through Mexico.

He says he got the plan through diplomatic sources, and when he brought it back to this country he found the state department knew all about it.

IT sounds bad.

Still we must remember that all general staffs have plans to invade ALL countries. They use some of the plans, and some of them gather dust in the archives indefinitely. It is probable that even in our most pacifist years, our own general staff had plans for invading Germany and Japan.

It isn't at all unlikely that we even had plans for invading England. Making such plans are what general staffs are for. It would be highly unusual if Hitler's war lords didn't have plans for invading us.

STILL, we must remember that world conquerors (such as Hitler) are always likely to ACT on these plans as well as make them. World conquerors are like mad dogs. No one can tell where or when they will bite.

One of the things we simply MUST do if the world wars are to be avoided is to learn to recognize world conquerors IN TIME for the mad dogs they really are and take steps (in conjunction with other nations, if possible; BY OURSELVES if we have to) before they have time to launch themselves on a biting spree.

History, fortunately, has established for us the pattern of the world conqueror. It is a CLEAR pattern. We can't fail to recognize it.

In Hitler, we recognized the pattern clearly enough, but we had neither the foresight nor the realistic courage to ACT.

CHINESE inflation note:

The banks in Chungking are GIVING AWAY low denomination banknotes to refugees who are fleeing the war-threatened zones of China. These notes are so numerous and so BULKY that the banks had to move disposing of them would be a problem.

The refugees who get them carry them away from the banks in bundles slung to POLES over their shoulders. (You can form a guess from this as to their value.)

In this country, inflation has been a good deal like the weather—everybody talks about it but nobody DOES much. And, so far, nothing much has happened.

But every now and then (as in Greece and in China) inflation does GET LOOSE. When it gets loose, the results are terrible.

DIAL LOG

By SUSAN. It seems that we were a little previous in saying "welcome home" to Chuck and the Bunkhouse Boys—because Chuck is in the bunkhouse for sure. It seems that he and his horse had an argument and from Chuck's appearance today (Monday) we'd say the horse had the best of it all the way. Anyway, we're not being facetious—Chuck really did meet with an accident and won't be able to put on the show for another week or so—and we're sorry as we can be. For tonight at 5:45 you'll notice a change on the format of the news—it's title is now "Night News Wire" and you'll hear both Gordon Burke and Harrison Wood. The news released on this spot will come exclusively from the night wires of the news services, so that you'll get nothing but the latest news on this broadcast—sounds like a good set-up to us. Don't forget this is the night Esther Geddes plays for you on Music You Remember at 6:30, and if you like blood and thunder, there's True Detective Mysteries at 7:30 and Eye Witness News at 8:00. Freedom of Opportunity at 8:30 sometimes is a bit hair-raising too—but we can't offer any tips on what to expect this week, since we haven't any advance publicity on what's cooking. Just as an after-thought, in case you are wondering why "Welcome Inn" was transcribed this afternoon—Esther Belt is off vacationing, and, since we just had our turn at loafing we don't dare say we envy her—.

Caen Folk Are Happy When Allies Come

By ROGER GREENE

CAEN, France, July 10—(AP)—Tears of happiness streamed down the cheeks of the townspeople of Caen today as they reclaimed their city from four bitter years of German overlordship.

They proudly raised the tricolor of France to the top of a lamp-post in a ceremony in front of the town hall. The ceremony was a scene of high-pitched emotion as the red, white and blue banner was hoisted aloft and a crowd of about 700 of the city's normal 61,000 massed about the square and sang the Marseillaise in voices that began almost timidly, then swelled to a joyous crescendo.

The final chorus came out like thunder.

Several times while the civilians, white-helmeted French gendarmes and British Tommies waited for the ceremony, there came a detonating crash and the crowd surged back into the shelter of the great Caen Cathedral. German planes were flying overhead, but it was uncertain whether the blasts were from bombs, time bombs or demolition charges.

British bulldozers already were clearing the wreckage which clogged the main street to the heart of the inland port city. The British also were wrecking dangerous walls.

When the tricolor unfurled and sprang to life in a breeze on its makeshift staff, the voice of French men, women and children lifted in cheer after cheer.

"Vive les Anglais! Vive les Américains," they cried.

I talked with the postmaster, Madame Tinel. "Everybody is happy, so happy," she said. "The Germans looted the city before they fled across the Orne taking food, wines and everything they could carry. They were very bad, very drunk, very nervous."
