Marry at Pretty Home Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin H. McCord.

Miss Estella B. Woods, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Woods, of Glide, became the bride of Sergeant Melvin H. McCord, son of M. H. McCord, Sr., at Glide, at a very beautiful wedding Sunday, July 2, at the home of the bride's parents, Glen Warner, student pastor of the Glide Church of Christ performing the impressive ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon.

A very beautiful archway and improvised altar was arranged on the spacious porch of the Woods home and was fashioned with pink and white roses and fern, forming the archway, and flanked by large baskets of roses, Madonna lilies, greenery and stringa.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attractive in a pastel pink street dress. She carried a bouquet of lilies and pale-pink rosebuds, Miss Bette Greenley was bridesmaid and was lovely in a pastel-blue street dress. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds. Charles R. Woods, brother of the bride, was best man. The bride's mother wore an attractive dress of peach-colored lace.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Ruth Davis very charmingly sang "I Love You Truly."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held and the bride's mother served a fried chicken dinner. The beautifully appointed serving table was centered with
