Top Medal Given To Heroic Marine SEATTLE, July 20. (AP)— PFC Richard Kelt Sorenson of the marine corps, who saved lives of five comrades by throwing himself on a Japanese grenade in the Marshall Islands invasion, was presented with the congressional medal of honor yesterday by Maj. Gen. Joseph C.
 Fegan, commanding the corps' Pacific headquarters.
 Sorenson, 20, of Anoka, Minn., was in a shell hole with five other marines on Namur atoll, Kwajalein, when a Japanese tossed a grenade into the hole.
 "I just threw myself on the grenade," he said. "There was nothing else to do."
 Badly wounded by the explosion, Sorenson is convalescing at the naval hospital here and expects to return to general duty.
 Only one other living enlisted marine wears the nation's highest award. He is gunnery Sgt.
 John Basstone of Haritan, N. J., who distinguished himself on Guadalcanal.

State Press Comment
TWO MAHONEYS.
 (Klamath Falls Herald-News.) There are two Mahoneys involved in Oregon politics, and some newcomers and casual followers of political news seem to be getting them confused.
 Willis E. Mahoney, former Klamath Falls mayor, is the democratic nominee for the short-term United States senate position. Mahoney, although he claims Klamath Falls as his residence, has lived for a number of years in Washington, D. C., and operates a private business there.
 Thomas Mahoney of Portland has been in the state legislature a number of years, and currently is the chairman of the Oregon delegation to the democratic national convention.

Both Mahoneys are strongly politically-minded, as is apparent.
 No love is lost between them, we are told, and it was rumored last spring that Thomas Mahoney of Portland might come out against Willis Mahoney for the senatorial nomination, if for no other reason than to confuse the situation by name duplication.
 This brings us to a bit of political reminiscence.
 When, in 1932, Willis Mahoney ran for mayor of Klamath Falls, he was forced off the ballot because he had lived here less than one year, and came out as a write-in candidate.
 This involved quite a campaign among his disciples to get them to remember to write the name correctly with an X in front of it. In fact, Willis signed his name for a while as X. W. E.
 Mahoney to get the idea across.
 A man named Mahoney was running for state treasurer that year, and the returns indicated that Mahoney, though defeated, got a lot of votes in Klamath county from people who thought they were voting for Mahoney when they marked an X for Mahoney.
 Some people told Mahoney after the election that they thought his name was ruled off the ballot, but had found it there and voted for him.
 Mahoney, incidentally, got a plurality of the votes for mayor and took office after another legal fight. But that is another

GIVE CREDIT WHERE DUE

By Charles V. Stanton

THE Japanese government has changed horses in the mid-of a stream—a veritable torrent, in fact.
 Stalwart political ballyhoosers keynoting the democratic convention, bluntly credited the New Deal party with forcing the removal of the Japanese dictator, but we have a sneaking suspicion that Admirals Nimitz, Halsey and Spruance have had some influence on the decision of the sun-god emperor to find himself a new cabinet, and that General MacArthur, whom the New Deal has tried unsuccessfully to relegate to an obscure role, also has figured prominently in the causes for the Japanese shake-up.
 It would be surprising indeed if the New Deal leadership, as a matter of political expediency, failed to take advantage of the opportunity to steal credit for the Japanese cabinet change. (The republicans would have done the same had they been in power. Politicians do not overlook anything that may gain votes.) But we must not be misled by campaign oratory. The full glory for the change in Japanese military and political leadership belongs to those boys who have battled so bravely at Guadalcanal, New Guinea, Tara-wa, Biak, Saipan and all the other island points furnishing stepping stones to Tokyo. Our own boys from Douglas county are in that fight and we have every reason to be proud of their achievements and to sorrow over the casualty reports which bear the names of our brave heroes.
 When we learn, as we do today, of the death of boys like Staff Sergeant "Bob" Dumont, of Glide, who gave his life on Biak island, the credit-stealing tactics of political leadership, regardless of party affiliation, become somewhat disgusting, to use a mild word.

The fates are being very unkind to the New Deal party.
 The New Dealers had attempted, by invasion timing, to steal the spotlight from the republican nominating convention.
 Now, along comes the kick in the pants to Tojo, the attempted assassination of Hitler and other big-time news to sidetrack the democratic convention.

But, forgetting politics for the moment, we had opportunity a short time ago to hear an "off-the-record" talk by a news correspondent just back from the Pacific theater. He predicted the Japanese government would soon start making peace overtures. He expressed fear that the American people, in their instinctive hatred of war and in concern over the safety of their sons, might yield to the temptation to negotiate a peace with Japan. He pleaded with the press to insist upon a finish fight—a fight in which Japan will be so completely whipped that it can never again enter tain grandiose ideas of military conquest.

We do not believe the American people are in any danger of compromising their demands for complete and final victory in any theater of the war. We are glad that the spokesmen of our military leadership are outspoken in their declarations that Japan's defeat must be made decisive. The Japanese are mistaken if they think a change in rulers "will make us forget the treachery and barbarity of their behavior," declares Acting Secretary of War Patterson. And from Joseph C. Grew, former ambassador to Japan, now chief of the state department's office of far eastern affairs, comes the announcement that the resignation of the Tojo cabinet, "will entail no fundamental change in policy in fighting the war to the bitter end."

These are the kind of words which we believe will appeal to the American public, and which will be received in Tokyo with fear and trembling. We like that kind of talk far better than the words we hear from any political convention.

Rainers Defeat Seals, Regain Tie For Third Place

Seattle climbed back into a tie for third place in the Pacific coast baseball league scramble last night—the only upper division nine to post a win in the evening's festivities.

The Rainiers blew a 5-1 lead and then rallied to eke out a 6-5 triumph in the last of the ninth over San Francisco.

Hollywood, behind the five-hit pitching of Mishasek, pounded out 14 baseknocks off the offerings of Portland's Helsler to win 8-0.

Chinese Fight Doggedly To Retain Hengyang

(By the Associated Press)
 China fought doggedly today to hold Hengyang. Enemy reinforcements were brought up to force a decision at this Canton-Hankow rail junction and Chungking said the battle was nearing its climax. The Chinese said their troops broke through the Hengyang besieger's and that another force was driving against Chenghsan, Jap headquarters in Hunan province.
 Chungking said relief appeared in sight for the Hengyang garrison, with units of the rescue force in earshot. The U. S. 14th air force slashed at extended Japanese supply lines to bolster the Hengyang defenders.
 The Sunday school bus chartered by the churches of the city will make the rounds again Sunday, leaving at 9:15 a. m. and calling first in Edenbower, proceeding by way of Winchester and Second Avenue South to the new housing projects. Everyone is welcome to take advantage of this convenience. Passengers are assured of transportation home again, also.

Wadsworth One With Dewey On Postwar Power

ALBANY, N. Y., July 19. (AP)— Rep. James W. Wadsworth, Jr., co-author of the selective service act, said today that he and Governor Dewey are "in agreement" that what he termed the weakening of United States military strength after world war I "should not happen again."
 Wadsworth, an overnight guest of the republican presidential nominee, told reporters they "discussed generally having this country made strong and kept strong after the war."
 Asked the trend of their conversation, Wadsworth, former chairman of the senate military affairs committee, said it was "by contrast with 1920-22 when we sank our navy, cut our army down and promised Japan we would not fortify some Pacific islands."
 "The governor and I are in agreement that sort of thing should not happen again," Wadsworth asserted.
 Declaring their talk included discussion of post-war military bases and many other subjects involving security, Wadsworth said he and Dewey covered generally what he termed "the high desirability of maintaining our military strength so as to be not only secure but influential."
 Meantime the pattern of Governor Dewey's "front veranda" summer campaign to seat himself in the White House appeared to hinge on party organization.
 Observers of the republican presidential nominee's political methods said it had become apparent the 42-year-old governor was laying the foundation of his election drive on the time-tested formula of state and local party teamwork.
 They based their conclusions on Dewey's almost uninterrupted post-convention series of huddles with G. O. P. congressional leaders.

DIAL LOG
 By SUSAN.
 Goodness gracious! Did you ever try to settle down to work with a political convention going great guns in both ears? Well, our very best advice to you is not to try it, because it's practically impossible. Anyway, now it's Friday—tonight at 6:15 you'll hear Bret Morrison on Screen Test. If you like him, why not write in and say so? It would be a nice gesture in return for all the entertainment he has given us. Double or Nothing, back in New York after their road trip, at 6:30 and Name That Song at 8:30. Saturday's program is pretty much as usual, Chicago Theatre of the Air presents an original musical-dramatic production, "A Woman of Arles," based on the Daudet story as set to music by Bizet. Most of the music, we admit frankly, is totally unfamiliar to us, but Mrs. B. says you'll recognize adagio from "Arienne" Suite No. 1, and minuet from the same deal, Suite No. 2. Boy, oh boy! Here's where our short-hair cultural tendencies show us up in a big way. Why can't they stick to stuff we recognize—like "Carmen" and "Faust" (well, we recognize a song or two from each of them)—or good old "Il Travatore?" Moving down to the 8 o'clock time on Saturday eve—now there's a different story—we recognize most of the music and even if we don't, it's nothing to worry about. Anyway, Downbeat Derby gives with best recordings and is a good show—so bend an ear come bath night.

Senator Cordon Plans to Return Here About Aug. 1

U. S. Senator Guy Cordon expects to return to his home in Roseburg about Aug. 1, according to word received by Mrs. Cordon. He is now en route from Washington, D. C., to Tucson, Arizona, where he will visit with his son-in-law and daughter, Lieutenant and Mrs. Donald Crouch (Carolyn Cordon). He will be in Sacramento July 24 for a week's hearing being conducted by the senate reclamation committee, and will then proceed to his home in Roseburg. Senator Cordon reports he expects to spend about two weeks touring the state during his brief vacation from the national capital.

Leland Wimberly Will Train as Aviation Cadet

Leland K. (Babe) Wimberly, son of Circuit Judge and Mrs. Carl Wimberly, left Wednesday for Monterey, Calif., where he will visit briefly before reporting July 28 at Amarillo, Texas, to begin training as an aviation cadet. He enlisted in the army air forces several months ago and has been awaiting call for training. He was taken to Eugene by Judge and Mrs. Wimberly, and proceeded by train from Eugene to Monterey.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"I don't blame the fellows overseas for gettin' all het up over it, Judge. For the likes of me I can't see what's all the hurry about holdin' these local prohibition elections while they're away."
 "I agree with you, Steve. Time after time... in their letters, in articles, in polls taken to get the views of our fighting men... they have indicated in unmistakable terms that they don't want any action taken on prohibition, either local or national, until they get back."
 "Too bad there isn't a law or somethin' to be sure their wishes are carried out, Judge."
 "There is in one state I know of, Steve. Just recently it passed a law prohibiting the calling of any prohibition election until a year after the peace is declared."
 "That really makes sense to me, Judge."
