

4th Term Opposed By Demo Publisher

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 20—(AP)—The Harrisburg Patriot and the Evening News, two papers published by Vance C. McCormick, who as chairman of the national democratic committee helped to re-elect Woodrow Wilson for a second term during World War one, said editorially today that they cannot support President Roosevelt for a fourth term.

The editorial states that four years ago the papers could not support Roosevelt for a third term and "clearly cannot sanction the greater violence to American tradition in a fourth term." The editorial concludes with: "Should Mr. Roosevelt, by death or any other reason be unable to serve, does any American in his right senses think that Generals Marshall, Eisenhower, and MacArthur, Admiral King, General Arnold, their staffs and subordinate officers clear down to the lowest private could not and would not win this war with a satisfactory peace to follow?"

Death Driver Fined $200 PORTLAND, Ore., July 20—(AP)—Mrs. Rose Greer, whose car killed a five-year-old boy in a marked crosswalk four months ago, stood convicted today of hit-and-run driving and failure to yield right of way. She was fined $200.

Navy Plants in Need of 30,000 More Workers

WASHINGTON, July 20—(AP)—Ralph A. Bard, undersecretary of the navy, reported yesterday a shortage of 30,000 workers in navy shipyards and production plants, "principally on the Pacific coast."

He gave the figure in a statement addressed to workers in all navy establishments, in which he said that the navy's production program "is still increasing."

An end to the war in Europe, he said, is not expected to affect the program.

"Our battle of production," he said, "will end only with the defeat of Japan."

YOUR WASTE PAPER

SOFTENS UP THE ENEMY

Showings of propoganda leaflets are falling on Germany these days.

By themselves, they might not be so effective. But when punctuated by bombs, they certainly undermine morale.

This is only one of the thousands of jobs for waste paper products in this war. Waste paper makes or wraps 700,000 other items, too.

Today waste paper is our No. 1 war shortage! Make a habit of saving waste paper. Help to soften up the enemy!
