Roseburg Boy Marries in England

Of much interest in Roseburg is the wedding Saturday in Lotage Road Methodist church, Aldbourne, England, of S. Sgt. Leo Deleaine Boyle, former Roseburg boy, son of Mrs. Charles M. Spain, of 944 W. Brazil street, Compton, Calif., and the late Harry Boyle of Roseburg, and Miss Winifred Louise Hawkins, of Aldbourne, England, youngest daughter of C. R. Hawkins, of Baydon Hill, England, and the late Mrs. C. R. Hawkins.

The Rev. Mr. H. J. Sadd conducted the service and Mrs. W. Mayes presided at the organ. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a pale blue crepe afternoon dress with maroon accessories and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and lilies-of-the-valley. The best man was First Sergeant W. Evans, U. S. Army. Special hymns were "O Perfect Love" and "Lead Us Heavenly Father."

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride and was attended by Lieutenant Winbers and Lieutenant Welch of the bridegroom's unit.

Sgt. and Mrs. Boyle received many beautiful wedding gifts and numerous checks from friends and relatives. Their honeymoon was spent at the home of the bride's sister at Slough.

The bridegroom is with the 506th Infantry, Company E, U. S. Army, in England. He was recently discharged from the base hospital, having recovered from injuries received in the service.

MISS VIRGINIA COUR HONORED WITH PARTY BY MR. AND MRS. CRAMER

A lovely farewell party was held for Miss Virginia Cour, July 15, by Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cramer. A steak barbecue was enjoyed in the grove at the Veteran's facility and then everyone returned to the Cramer home for games. Mrs. Cramer had her home delightfully decorated with many spring flowers. Miss Cour was presented by her many friends with a lovely brooch and carrying set of sterling silver. Those honoring Miss Cour were: Mr. and Mrs. Ted Post, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Adran Fisher, Miss Helen Casey, Miss Naomi Scott, Mrs. Paul Jenkins, Ernest and Harry Butler, Monroe Smith of Fort Wayne, Indiana, father of Doyle Smith whom he is visiting, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Cramer. Mrs. Irvin Brunn and Mr. and Mrs. John Macdonald were unable to attend.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY GIVEN IN HONOR OF E. G. CLOAKE

E. G. Cloake was very pleasantly surprised on his birthday Tuesday evening, when a group of friends called at his home. Five-hundred was in play during the evening and later lovely refreshments were served and a beautifully decorated birthday cake was cut in honor of the occasion.

Those enjoying the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Cloake included: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Marks, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Tipton, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Myers, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cloake.

EPISCOPAL POTLUCK DINNER TO BE HELD AT PARISH HALL SUNDAY

A one-thirty o'clock potluck dinner will be held by the congregation of St. George's Episcopal church Sunday, July 23, at the parish hall. Those attending are asked to bring either a hot dish or a salad. For further information, call 636-J.

Meat, dessert, bread and drinks have been planned by the committee.

MRS. EVERETT HOSTESS TO FORSYTHE GUILD AT CAMPBELL HOME FRIDAY

The Forsythe Guild of the Presbyterian church met Friday evening at the home of Mrs. W. M. Campbell, with Mrs. Jean Everett as hostess. Mrs. Archie McNeil was guest speaker.

Plans were discussed for entertaining Miss Irene Forsythe in the near future. Miss Forsythe is the missionary for whom the Forsythe guild is named.

The hostess, Mrs. Jean Everett, served dainty refreshments to Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mrs. Archie McNeil, Mrs. Lena Slattery, Miss Dolma Grobe, Mrs. E. M. Hayward, Miss Elizabeth Campbell, Mrs. Paula Anderson, Mrs. Jim Sawyers, Miss Gertrude Rast, Mrs. Reba Hartley and Miss Vera Fredericksen.

ELLISON-JOHNSON LUNCHEON GIVEN FOR VISITORS TUESDAY

Mrs. A. J. Ellison and Mrs. Kermit Johnson were joint hostesses at a charming one o'clock luncheon at the Hotel Rose Tuesday in compliment to Mrs. Paul Warren, of Portland, and Mrs. Warren Gardner of San Mateo, Calif.

Covers were placed at a prettily appointed table for: Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. Warren, guests of honor, Mrs. T. R. Burr, Mrs. B. A. Young, Mrs. Paul Geddes, Mrs. Edwin Booth, Mrs. R. C. Gile and the hostesses, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Ellison.

Following the luncheon, the guests were entertained at bridge at the home of Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. R. W. Marsters, on North Jackson street. Guest prizes were given to Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. Warren and the afternoon's high score bridge prize was won by Mrs. Geddes.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren and two children left Thursday for their home in Portland, following a visit at the F. C. Gile home, where they were entertained at several informal affairs during the week. Mrs. Gardner and children have been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Chase on Visia avenue, and were joined here Friday by her husband, Dr. Gardner, member of the state board of health of California.

H. E. C. HAS POTLUCK LUNCHEON MEETING AT GRANGE HALL

The Riversdale Home Economics club met at a delightful one o'clock potluck luncheon Wednesday at the Riversdale grange hall with Miss Mary Maw, Douglas county home demonstration agent, giving a talk on canning vegetables and fruits.

Mrs. Arlene Myers, president, conducted the business meeting and announced the meeting of the Douglas County budget committee for July 24 at 1 o'clock at the courthouse. She urged all members of the club, as well as presidents and members of all women's organizations and clubs, to attend this meeting to secure a permanent home demonstration agent for Douglas county.

It was announced a social night will be held at Riversdale grange hall Saturday, July 29, at 9 p. m. Members and guests are invited. Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Ogle and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ulrich will have charge of the kitchen committee.

A five-hundred and pinocle card party has been planned to be held at the hall the evening of August 7 at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend. Reservations may be made by calling either Dossie Tipton at 16-F-14 or Arlene Myers at 152-L.

The next regular meeting of the club will be August 11 at a 1 o'clock potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Lucy Cloake. The program will be in charge of Mary Love and Kathryn Ewens. Guests present were: Mrs. Emma Williams, Miss Mary Maw and Merle Hampton. Members present were: Arlene Myers, Viola Chilson, Ramona Hampton, Dossie Tipton, Mary Love and Kathryn Ewens.

ART AND EMBROIDERY CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING WEDNESDAY

Mrs. F. J. Cornell graciously entertained the Roseburg Art and Embroidery club at her home Wednesday. Sweetpeas, gladioli, daisies and fern formed a pretty motif for the occasion. An interesting business session was followed by a Pollyanna game and the remainder of the afternoon was spent in sewing and visiting.

At the tea hour Mrs. Cornell served delicious refreshments to: Mrs. L. C. Davis, Mrs. Susan Bowman and Mary Ann Bowman, guests, and Mrs. Frank Beels, Mrs. C. W. Lawson, Mrs. A. Neal, Mrs. J. Miller, Mrs. H. Erskine, Mrs. Frank Kent, Mrs. George Cluck, Mrs. T. Hoffmeister, Mrs. P. Napier, Mrs. Henry Worthington, Mrs. Frank Bergh and Mrs. H. F. Snyder.

J. C. DAVIS HONORED WITH BIRTHDAY DINNER TUESDAY

J. C. Davis, manager of the Western Auto Supply store, was honored Tuesday evening with a picnic birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Elliott by the personnel of the store. The dinner was held outside where the table was placed on the lawn. The evening was spent visiting and telling fortunes.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis and son and daughter, David and Glenna, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and daughter, Sharon, Dottie Fenley, Alta Arthur, Charles Carter, Jack Maris, Carl Cornish and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Elliott.

Marry At Beautiful Ceremony

Five huge baskets filled with white gladioli and white Shasta daisies, flanked by candelabra holding white cathedral candles formed the beautiful background for the impressive wedding Monday evening, July 17, of Miss Florence Hamilton, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton, and Corporal Gene Powell, U. S. Army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Powell. Dr. Morris H. Roach performed the double ring ceremony at eight o'clock in the evening at the First Presbyterian church in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Baskets of white hydrangeas and daisies marked the center aisle of the church. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Homer Grow played softly on the pipe organ and accompanied Mrs. Vera McClintock Jones, who charmingly sang, "Because."

Mrs. Robert C. Snoddy, in a blue floor length formal gown, and Miss Athalie Taylor, wearing a pink formal gown, lighted the altar candles.

With the opening strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, the bridal party advanced to the altar.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was very beautiful in a floor-length wedding gown of Duchess white satin, fashioned with a long train, wrist length sleeves and close-fitting bodice. Inserts of white lace trimmed the bodice and waistline. Her finger-tip tulle veil was held in place by a Juliet head-piece and she carried a white Bible topped by a large orchid tied with a shower of white satin ribbons.

Miss Fredericka Hamilton, only sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor and was charming in a floor length gown of pastel blue georgette fashioned with lace inserts on the bodice and skirt. She carried a round shower bouquet of gladioli buds and pink roses.

Miss Joanne Hume, Roseburg, and Miss Lorraine Davidson, Portland, a sorority sister of the bride, were bridesmaids and wore matching pastel-colored blue formal gowns. They carried round shower bouquets of gladioli buds and roses. The three attendants wore attractive headbands of rosebuds.

The bridegroom was in the summer uniform of the U. S. Army and his best man, Seaman Le William Chalmers, was in navy uniform. Leland Kent Wimbler and Delwin McKay were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a lovely dinner gown of pale rose, fashioned on princess lines and orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore navy blue velvet and laced an orchid corsage.

At the close of the ceremony, Mrs. Grow played Mendelssohn's Wedding recessional. Photographs at the church were taken by Mrs. C. W. Clark of Clark's studio.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the lovely home of the bride's parents on Blakeley street. The serving table, covered by an exquisite lace cloth, was centered by an arrangement of silver king and white gladioli. The beautiful three-tiered wedding cake, topped with bride and groom, was cut by the bride and bridegroom.

Decorations at the church and home were in charge of Mrs. L. L. Wimbler, Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mrs. Gordon Stewart, Mrs. Clair K. Allen and Mrs. A. E. Kent. Colorful bouquets of pastel-colored roses, larkspur, delphinium

Hochradel, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Roy O. Young and daughter, Anita; Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Lee, Mrs. Leslie C. Cummings, Mrs. J. T. Woodward, Mrs. T. B. Virden, Carmen Abeel, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Lane, Mrs. Florence Moore, Madame M. J. Shoemaker, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Woodford, Mrs. Richard Young, W. C. Harding, Mrs. Jean Everett, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Marsters, Mrs. Louella Powell, of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Keith Venters and son, Ronnie, of Salem, Mrs. John Herman, Miss Lorraine Davidson, of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

For traveling the bride chose a street frock of crepe fashioned with a pale-gold bodice and draped black skirt. Her hat and accessories were black and her corsage was a large orchid. Following a honeymoon at coast points and a few days in Roseburg the bridegroom will leave for Fort Dix, New Jersey, to report for duty and re-assignment, while the bride will remain in Roseburg until he is sent to his new base, at which time she expects to join him.

The bride, one of Roseburg's loveliest members of the younger set, is a talented pianist. She was graduated from Roseburg senior high school in 1941 and since that time has been a student at University of Oregon. She is a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority. The bridegroom was graduated from Roseburg high school in 1940. He was employed as an engraver at the Roseburg News-Review and later attended Oregon State college, where he majored in engineering. He is a pledge of Kappa Sigma fraternity. Since entering the army, he has been receiving special training on the east coast.

FORMER ROSEBURG BOY TO BE MARRIED IN SALEM TUESDAY

The wedding plans of Corporal Hugh William McElhinny and Miss Marjorie Hill were revealed on Tuesday by parents of the couple. Miss Hill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hill and Cpl. McElhinny is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McElhinny, Salem.

The wedding will be performed in the garden of the groom's parents on Tuesday night at 7 o'clock. Rev. David Nielsen will perform the wedding rites.

Cpl. McElhinny is at home on furlough from Ft. Bragg where he is stationed with the field artillery. He served in the Aleutian Islands before being assigned to duty in the states.

FOOD DEMONSTRATION TO BE HELD MONDAY NIGHT, JULY 24TH

The Methodist Keystone club has invited the public to attend a food demonstration meeting to be held at 8 o'clock Monday evening at the church parlors.

Miss Mary Maw, Douglas county home demonstration agent, will conduct the demonstration on freezing of foods. She will also demonstrate the use of pressure cookers and will answer questions on foods and cookers.

MRS. H. A. CANADAY ENTERTAINS AT LOVELY LUNCHEON ON SATURDAY

Pink waterlilies and fern graced the beautifully appointed table used by Mrs. H. A. Canaday Saturday, when she graciously entertained a group of friends at a charming one o'clock luncheon at her home on South Jackson street.

Covers were placed for: Miss Bertha Swearingen and Miss Hazel Renn, both of whom left Monday for Portland to take examinations for entering the Waves, Mrs. Floyd (Lucille Ellsworth) McElroy, Miss Marion Pearson, Mrs. F. G. Burr and the hostess and her brother, Mrs. Canaday and Forrest Williams.

FAMILY REUNION TO BE HELD SUNDAY AT GEORGE STALEY HOME

Mr. and Mrs. George Staley of Roseburg will enjoy a family reunion at their home Sunday, at which time their daughters will be present including: Mrs. Bert Courtney and children, Corlyss and Bob, of Los Angeles; Mrs. George Geddes and son, George Staley Geddes, of Portland; Mrs. Ross Miller of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Owen of Eugene.
