Ceiling Prices for New Peach Crop Listed by Board

Ceiling prices for the new crop of peaches have been received by the local War Price and Rationing board, according to an announcement by L. V. Hammock, chairman.

Peaches grown in Oregon, graded and packed in the approved No. 35 lug, weighing not less than 17 pounds nor more than 19 pounds, may not exceed $1.48, f. o. b. the farm, for sales to other than ultimate consumers. This same lug when sold to the ultimate consumer, f. o. b. the farm, may not exceed $2.54. When delivered to the premises of the retail store the farmer may get $1.91. When purchased from a retail store the ceiling price is $2.63.

Oregon peaches graded and packed in an approved No. 36 lug, weighing not less than 19 pounds nor more than 21 pounds, are priced at $1.64, f. o. b. the farm, to other than consumers. When sold to the consumer, f. o. b. the farm, the price may not exceed $2.83. This size lug delivered to the premises of the retail store may not be sold for more than $2.13. The retail price to the consumer is $2.93.

Peaches packed in any other size container, loose and ungraded (orchard run) are 6.6 cents a pound f. o. b. the farm except when sold to the consumer, when the ceiling price is 12 cents a pound. If the farmer delivers the peaches to the retail store his price may not exceed 9 cents a pound and the ceiling price to the consumer on that basis is 13c a pound.

Peaches sold in bulk should be weighed and priced according to the above prices, Hammock said.

Bible School Set By Presbyterians

Daily Vacation Bible school will begin Monday at the First Presbyterian church in Roseburg under the direction of Miss Helen Carlson. The military motif will be used again this year. Miss Carlson has announced the school as a "Training Division of the Army of the Lord."

There will be ten days backed with interest for the boys and girls—songs, story hours, drills, and awards. Miss Carlson, who teaches vacation Bible school work at the Multnomah School of the Bible, will be the "general" and Dr. Ronch, the pastor of the church, will be the "commander." All the boys and girls who enlist will have a chance to advance in rank. The school will be held from 9 to 11:45 a. m., Monday through Friday, from July 31 to August 11. All children 4 years and older are cordially invited to attend. As many as possible are urged to register Saturday, July 29, at 2:30 p. m. at the First Presbyterian church at the corner of Lane and Jackson streets.
