MYRTLE SHOOK AND JACK VOSBURG MARRY AT CANDLELIGHT CEREMONY

Miss Myrtle Shook, daughter of M. H. Shook of Medford, and Aviation Machinist Mate First Class Jack Vosburgh, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Vosburgh of 1270 1/2 John St., Seattle, Washington, were united in marriage, July 10, 8:30 p. m., at a lovely candlelight ceremony at the home of the bridegroom. Rev. Mr. Wilhelm officiated at the ceremony.

The room was charmingly decorated with colorful flowers and the bridal party stood beneath an improvised arch of beautiful red and white roses banking the fireplace. Miss Virginia Tarmala, sister of the maid of honor, lighted the candles.

The bride was lovely in a formal gown of white satin and carried a beautiful bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Miss Polly Tarmala, dressed in a charming floor-length rose formal, was maid of honor and Aviation Machinist Mate First Class George Otto acted as best man.

The reception was held immediately following the ceremony.

Mrs. Vosburg's going away outfit was a charming two piece, navy blue and white costume with white accessories. Her corsage was a lovely orchid.

The bride and groom spent their honeymoon in Eugene with the bride's sister, Mrs. William Foley; in Roseburg with the bride's aunt, Mrs. Charles Hahn, and in Medford with the bride's father, M. H. Shook. They will make their home in Seattle.

Mrs. Vosburgh is a graduate of Roseburg high school and Jack Vosburg, A. M. M. 1-c, has just returned after 18 months in combat area in the South Pacific and reported for 3 months coast duty.

MISS BECKY VICTOR AND CAPTAIN RINABARGER MARRIED IN IDAHO

The wedding of Miss Becky Victor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Victor of Twin Falls, Idaho, and Marine Captain R. N. Rinabarger, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Rinabarger, formerly of Medford and now of Roseburg, Oregon, was an event of July 9. The single ring ceremony was read by Dr. G. L. Clark, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Twin Falls, at 2:30 p. m. at the home of the bride's parents, and in the presence of 30 relatives and close friends.

Vows were exchanged by the couple as they stood before an improvised archway, backed by lighted tapers and flanked on either side by baskets of delphinium, white phlox and double syringa.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white afternoon dress with gored skirt, low-cut neckline and short sleeves capped with shoulder epaulets trimmed with white velvet ribbon. With it she wore a half-hat, and her corsage was an orchid, embedded in gardenias.

The bride's only attendant, Miss Mary Jean Shipman, wore a light blue street dress, designed with a draped V-neckline and cascading ruffles down the center front of the draped skirt. Her corsage was of gardenias.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Victor chose a lavender cyclé afternoon frock, and her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Don Poterfield, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was his best man.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the garden of the Victor home with the bridal pair cutting the decorated cake in traditional manner. Mrs. F. W. Neale, Goodman, Idaho, and Mrs. T. M. Baird, Twin Falls, aunts of the bride, presided. The table was covered with lace cloth and centered with the two-tiered cake, which was topped with tiny sprigs of double syringa.

Captain and Mrs. Rinabarger left later that afternoon for Roseburg where they visited his parents for a few days before continuing to El Torra, California, where they will make their home while he is stationed at the marine corps air base there. For traveling, the bride wore a brown and chartreuse cotton sport suit and matching accessories, with which she wore the orchid from her bridal corsage.

Mrs. Rinabarger attended Twin Falls high school and the University of Idaho, Moscow, where she was pledged to Alpha Phi sorority. For the past year and a half she has been employed by the Kinney Wholesale company in Twin Falls.

Captain Rinabarger graduated from Medford high school, and was a student at Oregon State college, where he was a member of Theta Chi fraternity, and the Southern Oregon College of Education before enlisting in the marine air corps in 1941. He had previously taken civilian pilot's training at the Medford airport. He returned to this country about three months ago after nearly a year of active duty in the south Pacific.

Captain Rinabarger's parents moved to Roseburg in April of this year, having lived in Medford for many years prior to that time. Other local relatives of the captain are his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rinabarger of 718 South Newtown street, an uncle, R. J. Rinabarger of Vancouver street, and an aunt, Mrs. Diamond Flynn of 1321 Queen Agne avenue.
