

Society and Clubs

By LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

MISS ASAM CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Jeannette Asam was hostess to a group of friends Saturday evening, July 22, at a lawn and supper party to celebrate her birthday anniversary.

Many lovely gifts were presented to Jeannette by the guests. Streamers and decorations were made by the group to decorate the playhouse. Games were played after which a delicious supper was served by Mrs. Asam.

Guests invited by Jeannette were: Eleanor and Linda Moore, Gertrude Schoss, Arlos and Arlene Oppertshauer, Novella Harris, Emma Jean Hodges, Marion Evans, and Fred Bueckley. Also calling during the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hodges and sons, Virgil and Earl.

MRS. ERICKSON HONORED WITH SHOWER

Mrs. Erwin Clark entertained at a charming pink and blue shower in compliment to Mrs. Iver Erickson. Beautiful bouquets of summer flowers were attractively arranged about the rooms.

Sewing and visiting were enjoyed and later the beautiful shower gifts were presented to Mrs. Erickson from Mrs. Rose Clayton, Mrs. Jane Coffman, Mrs. Willie Ann Churchill, Mrs. Claude Wasson, Mrs. Myrtle Denton, Mrs. Fream, Miss Ella Emmitt, Mrs. Hugh Carter, Carol and Glen Clark, Miss Edith Morgan, and the hostess, Mrs. Clark.

Later in the afternoon Mrs. Clark served delicious refreshments.

THE W. S. C. S. HOLDS MEETING LAST WEEK

ELKTON—The W. S. C. S. of the Methodist church met last week, with Vice President Erda Chestnut presiding. Mrs. Edith Adams was appointed secretary of supplies, filling the unexpired term of Mrs. Beth Cherry. Refreshments were served to nine members and three guests by Mrs. Alice Warnock and Mrs. Erda Chestnut.

POTLUCK DINNER AT HOME OF MRS. KROGEL

CAMAS VALLEY—Miss Mary Maw, food demonstrator, met with the women of the valley on the lawn at the home of Mrs. Bert Krogel. After a potluck dinner, Miss Maw demonstrated sulphuring fruits for drying and gave an interesting talk on dehydrating both fruits and vegetables.

Those present were Mrs. Louis Papp, Mrs. Harry Boyle, Mrs. Rose Kinnan, Mrs. Ralph Perry, Mrs. Lee Banks, Mrs. Guy Lawson, Mrs. Guy Moore, Louise and Gail Church, Jeanne Milton, Joanne Lawson, and Mrs. Bert Krogel.

The women will meet again on Tuesday, Aug. 1, at the home of Mrs. Guy Lawson. This meeting will be a silver tea to add to the girl scout fund. Mrs. Guy Lawson and Mrs. Guy Moore will have charge of the program for the afternoon. All women of the valley are cordially invited to attend and all newcomers are urged to come and get acquainted with their neighbors.

UMPQUA REBEKAH LODGE HOLDS MEETING

ELKTON—Umpqua Rebekah lodge 173 met last week in regular session with twenty-three members present. Secretary Lois Beckley's resignation was read. Mrs. Gertrude McKinney was appointed chairman of the good of the order committee for the coming year. After the meeting, a potluck supper was served by Mr. and Mrs. Newton Henderer and Mrs. Agnes Hudson.

THE F. C. CLUB ENJOYS PICNIC AT PARK

The F. S. club met Tuesday with a picnic dinner at Winchester park. A delicious potluck dinner was served at noon to Mrs. B. H. Laird, Mrs. Earl Deckner, Mrs. G. R. Chapman, Mrs. C. H. Wickham, Mrs. H. F. Hatfield, Miss Marie Martins, Mrs. R. W. Melssner, Mrs. Jess Patrick, and Mrs. H. T. Bloom. A lovely gift was presented to Mrs. Patrick, the former Mrs. Nellie Ford, by the club members. Sewing and visiting were enjoyed during the afternoon.

The next meeting will be August 23, with a picnic at the home of Mrs. Jess Patrick on Houck street.

EVERGREEN GRANGE HOLDS MEETING

The Evergreen grange met early at the hall Monday night for work on the grounds and around the hall.

About 9 o'clock the ladies of the order served a lovely potluck supper, including many things from the farm, to all members present and their families.

After the supper the members went to the hall where the master, Leland Bloom, called the meeting to order for regular session.

The Blue Cross hospital plan was discussed and adopted by several of the members.

The chaplain received her check for $10.24 for her relief work, Belle and Isabel Johnson were accepted as new members and the grange voted to hold two picnics; one to be held at the Cooper Springs August 6, and the other at the Bruce Spackman Grove on the South Umpqua river at Dillard, Sept. 3. All members, their families and friends are invited to attend. Each grange family is to bring its own table service and lunch which will be spread on a large table.

Vera Rice, local sales slip chairman, reported the sales slips coming in good and she urged all grangers to buy as much of their purchases as possible at these places who advertise with the Grange Bulletin. She also suggested that all newcomers to our district or county be advised as to the value of trading with these firms where they are assured of fair and courteous treatment.

The members voted to meet early at the hall August 1, in special session to see if they could complete the work on the rest rooms.

At the next regular session, August 14, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Spackman, Robalee Cooper, and Vera Rice have charge of the refreshments.

BUSY STEPPERS HOLD MEETING

"The Busy Steppers" held their regular meeting of the month, at the home of Mrs. Junia Byron. A delicious potluck dinner was served at 12:30. The afternoon was spent visiting and electing new officers. Mrs. Mary Hodges was elected president, Mrs. Kate Northcraft, vice-president, and Mrs. Arwell Muetzel, secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. Earl Ollivant, who is moving to Medford temporarily paid her dues and asked to still be remembered as a member.

Mrs. Norman Lewellyn and Mrs. Arwell Muetzel took pictures of the new service flag and the club women.

There were four generations present at the club. Mrs. Rene Jenkins, great-grandmother, Mrs. Vivian Falmsbee, grandmother, Mrs. Harry Morgan, mother and Richard Eugene, child.

Members present were: Mrs. Earl Ollivant and granddaughter, Donna Friend; Mrs. Melina Peron, Mrs. Canfield, Mrs. Kate Northcraft, Mrs. I. B. Nichols, Mrs. Cyril Nichols and daughters, Miss Nancy and Davlin; Miss Lilly Davlin, Mrs. Mary Hodges, Mrs. Jones Smith and daughters, Margaret and Laura; visitors: Mrs. Alpha Rowland, Mrs. Anna Ireland, Mrs. Norman Lewellyn and daughter, Darlene; Mrs. Geo. Ratliff, Mrs. Rene Jenkins, Mrs. Harry Morgan and son, Richard Eugene; Mrs. Vivian Falmsbee, Mrs. Arwell Muetzel, and the hostess, Mrs. Junia Byron.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Lilly Davlin, August 3.

GLENGARY SEWING CLUB MEETS

The Glengary Sewing club met July 27, with their secretary, Mrs. Sinsley. With 16 members and one visitor, Mrs. Edwards and five children present. After the meeting the hostess held a clever contest for entertainment. Miss Clover Kerr won first prize and Mrs. Cooper the second. The rest of the afternoon was spent visiting, and cool refreshments were served. The next meeting will be Aug. 10, with Mrs. Anderson as hostess.

MRS. G. R. CHILD TO BE HONORED AT TEA THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The Roseburg Woman's club members will be hostesses at a tea Thursday afternoon, Aug. 3, from three to five o'clock at the attractive home of the president, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, on Glenn street, in compliment to Mrs. G. R. Child, of San Francisco.

Mrs. Child, who organized the club in 1895 and was its first president, is spending her annual summer vacation in Roseburg. All members of the club are urged to be present to honor Mrs. Child and all former members of the club are being invited to attend as special guests.

Myrtle Creek

MYRTLE CREEK—Mrs. Johanna Eleihorn Mack, who is very well known in the Myrtle Creek community, but who for some time has, with her son William, been operating the Ludwig apartments in Monte Rio, California, died suddenly at her home there Wednesday, July 10. She had apparently recovered from a recent illness but suffered a stroke and lived only a few moments. Besides her son William she is survived by her two daughters, Mrs. Alice Noack of Monte Rio, Mrs. Nellie McAllister of Salem, and her son, Herman F. Mack of the U. S. army. The funeral was held at the Tunnell Funeral home at Guerneville, Saturday with the Rev. Thomas Beverly Marsh of Santa Rosa officiating.

The study of the book of Revelation will be taken up at the regular midweek Bible study and prayer meeting on Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. Everyone interested in gaining an insight into this wonderful book should plan to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Rulen of Coburg were old-time friends of the E. W. Powells visiting here last Sunday.

Mrs. Lester Spencer and small son, Allan, of Riddle, were business visitors here Monday, as Mrs. Spencer was in to see about having the splints removed from her son's arm, which was broken last May by a fall from a teter at the school house.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sheldon

Democap

All hatted up for the Democratic National Convention in Chicago is Margaret Merchant, pictured above wearing her new "democap" featuring bright-eyed donkeys, cut out of reptile skins.

Beach, Calif., is here for a visit with relatives and old-time friends and neighbors. Mrs. Brewer is the daughter of Henry Jones, who homesteaded the Jones place on N. Myrtle, and a sister of H. W. Jones who still lives on part of the old donation claim.

First Lt. R. J. Loesch, U. S. M. C., is visiting here with his mother, Mrs. L. R. Gregory after a period of 32 months' overseas service.

tal clip which she said she valued at $175, told the police she was anxious to recover it because her six-months-old son used it for a teething ring.

She said the coral, turquoise and gold clip fell from her dress through a sewer grating as she was alighting from a bus.

ODDITIES

BACKFIRING PRANK TACOMA, Wash.—Bob Derby's life-of-the-party prank backfired—literally.

The 26-year-old Tacoman told hospital attendants that he prepared a "blank" cartridge to explode under the chair of a friend at a party. He made the mistake of trying it on himself first. A police ambulance took him, lying face down, to the hospital.

COSTLY TEETHING RING NEW YORK—A local resident reported the loss of an ornament

WANTED LOG TRUCKS CAT SKINNER DOGGER EDGERMEN

Southern Oregon Sugar Pine Company Tiller, Oregon Or Phone 9-F-12

FARM AUCTION

Sunday, August 5, 1944
Starts at 1:00 p. m.
3 miles west of Lookingglass on Larson road.

FURNITURE

Davenport, dining table, rug, washing machine, circulator, range, kitchen tables, library table, electric sweeper, commode, army cot, 2 bedsteads, 1 spring, 1 mattress, dresser, sewing machine.

FARM IMPLEMENTS

Tractor, disc, plow, manure spreader, mowing machine, hay wagon, garden plow, wood saw, leader bars, cream separator, cream cans.

LIVESTOCK

2 cows, 1 bull, 2 steers, 1 bull calf, 1 5 yr. mare.

Fruit jars, 1-16 shot gun, 2 box shells, 30 gallon range boiler.

OTHER MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES

Frank L. Bledsoe, Owner.
Schricker and Cooper, Auctioneers

They Write Front Line History!

Associated Press war correspondents landed with the first waves of Allied troops invading France. By land, sea and air they are reporting the greatest news story of our times for this newspaper. The Associated Press invasion staff is the No. 1 corps of American-trained newsmen abroad. A few of them—on the job—are shown here.

Tom Yarbrough, veteran of campaigns in the Pacific and Europe, aboard a warship.

Gladwin Hill, left, head of AP's air staff, ready to take off in a Marauder medium bomber.

John Moroso, cited for his heroism under fire, aboard a ship in the invasion armada.

Robert Bunnelle, chief of The AP's London bureau who directs a staff of nearly 150 persons.

Lewis Hawkins, right, gets first hand advice from Rear Admiral Barry Wilson.

Ed Ball, left, AP naval reporter, talks with a boatwain's mate aboard an invasion craft.

Roger Greene, second from the right, accompanies Prime Minister Churchill during troop inspection.

Wes Gallagher, left, head of AP's invasion staff, discussed strategy with Brig. Gen. T. J. Davis.

Henry Jameson, first correspondent casualty of the invasion, coming aboard a cruiser after his injury.

Columnist Hal Boyle goes to work on the invasion after reporting the war in Africa and Italy.

William Smith White, center, interviews members of the Canadian First Army.

Don Whitehead, who has made five amphibious landings in this war, writes on a beachhead.

Watch for their graphic Associated Press dispatches in this newspaper!