I SAW

By PAUL JENKINS

A PORCUPINE, which had the poor taste and bad judgment to wander down from Mt. Nebo and onto the premises of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Cyrus at 1158 Military street, Roseburg, some evenings ago. Mr. Cyrus and Pete Smith, a next door neighbor, relieved him summarily of the burden of life. They hung his carcass in a tree where I saw it the next morning and took a picture of it, with nine-year-old Virginia Cyrus, who wasn't as afraid of its needles as she might have been. I suppose the old boy would weigh about 20 lbs. He had lost many of his quills in the post-embryo number remained, hidden beneath long, coarse hair, which may or may not show in the picture above.

Finds Flocks of 'Follow Me' Fans

Some months ago, WAC Cpl. Dorothy Auten of 21st Ferrying Group, ATC, at Palm Springs, Calif., was the subject of the photo (inset) which she is pictured holding. Briggs, tec. 4, paratrooper from Camp Mackall, North Carolina. They plan to fish the North Umpqua a few days before returning to their bases. The Fred Briggs spent several days in Corvallis with Lieut. Briggs' parents before coming to Roseburg.

Dewey Promises Best Peace World Has Ever Seen

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 1. — (AP) — In his first platform speech of the campaign Governor Thomas E. Dewey told a Springfield crowd today that if he is elected "in the next four years we shall build the best peace world this world has ever seen."

Greeted by an enthusiastic crowd which massed about the rear end of his train, Dewey asserted that America will win the war because "our strength depends upon the American people and upon no one man."

The crowd cheered when Dewey promised, if elected, to "restore the government to the people of the United States."

The republican nominee took a fling at what he described as the "Roosevelt depression," asserting that it "took a war to stop it." On the other hand, he said, the election of the republican ticket would provide for the postwar period "jobs and an all-around economy."

Here for preliminary meetings before a republican governors conference opening in St. Louis tomorrow, Dewey arranged to talk with a group of 27 farm organization leaders later in the day.

Rommel Reported Fatally Wounded In Normandy Area

ALGIERS, Aug. 1. — (AP) — The French underground has reported that Marshal Erwin Rommel and Gen. Otto von Stuelpnagel both died in France, the committee of national liberation said today.

Rommel, German ground commander in Normandy, was said to have been fatally wounded in the head during an air attack on the Normandy front. (The German radio denied yesterday that Pommel either was dead or seriously wounded.)

Stuelpnagel, military administrator of occupied France, was reported to have committed suicide following failure of the general's plot on Hitler's life.

(NBC Reporter Merrill Mueller said in a pool broadcast last night based upon reports from France that Rommel "is definitely out of the war, due to his injuries from the allied aerial strafing attack on July 17 and it would be a medical miracle if he is still alive.")

(Caught on the Douvre road, Rommel was found at a German emergency field station to have suffered a serious wound at the base of his skull and "sustained a fractured skull and jaw," Mueller said. "One eye was permanently damaged and three shots had lodged in his chest, two in one lung." The damaged eye was reported removed at the German surgical hospital at Bernay.)

News of 4-H CLUBS

Members of the Myrtle Creek Canning club met at the home of Marianne Shircliff Thursday evening, July 20. Regular business matters were taken care of and a short discussion on canning. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.
