Battle Rages 3 Miles
From East Prussia Line
the Germans in the streets of the capital.)
Behind Russian lines and ten-mile wide corridor thrust to the Baltic sea west of Riga, four Russian army groups gnawed at the German army groups gnawed at the Latvia and Estonia. (Prime Minister Churchill of Great Britain said from 20 to 30 divisions were cut off, a total of perhaps 200,000 to 300,000 men).
The Russians were 25 miles west of Riga and less than 20 miles to the southwest and closing in on all sides. (The Germans said 19 fresh Russian divisions were attacking in the 30-mile corridor between Lake Peipus and the gulf of Finland west of Narva, in a region less than 95 miles from the Estonian capital of Tallinn).
Just north of the Carpathians, the Russian advances placed the red army within 70 miles of Krakow, fifth city of old Poland. (A German report that the Russians had broken 17 miles across the Vistula in that area would place the reds within 62 miles of Krakow).
Marshal Konev, the hero of Moscow and Kharkov, sent columns probing at five Carpathian passes leading into Czechoslovakia, last reported 13 miles away. His advance guards in the extreme south of the active front were 120 miles from German Silesia.
Nazi Panzers Battered.
The 37-year-old Jewish general, Cherniakhovsky, was approaching East Prussia on a 200-mile front. He rained his hardest blows against a screen of German machineguns, anti-tank guns and infantry in a 30-mile sector flanking the Kaunas-Konigsberg railway north and south.
He was attacking heaviest north of the stoutly defended Masurian lake region in the south of East Prussia where Hindenburg inflicted a disastrous defeat on the czar's army in 1914.
But on the approaches to the Masuria lake region itself, another soviet challenge to plant the red flag inside the reich was pressing the Germans back in the direction of Augustow, eight miles from the frontier. (The Germans said their lines were broken at Augustow).
Germans Surrendering.
Cherniakhovsky's breakthrough to within field artillery shot of German soil overwhelmed a tank force which tried to hold the forest approaches to the homes of the Junkers militarists. Hundreds of haggard prisoners trudged back to soviet lines. The landscape was littered with derelict German tanks, burned by artillery and dive bomb hits.
Moscow newspapers reporter said the fleeing Germans fired wantonly at civilians, churches and schools as they lost village after village on the Prussian approaches. Small nazi detachments were reported fighting to the death in wood clumps. A number of villages were burned.
Nearly 200 miles of the Nieman river line which the Germans had counted upon to save East Prussia, now was left far behind the battle zone.

36,000 Idle in Labor
Disputes in Many Areas
rolet gear and axle division by naming an administrator to supplant 10 union local officers. Union members planned a meeting tonight.
A new dispute in Detroit involved 425 at the Briggs manufacturing company, trouble coming over the wearing of identification badges. But 1,000 workers at the Wayne, Mich., Stinson division of Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Co., returned to the job.
Two thousand were out at the Buffalo, N. Y., plant of the Houdaille-Hershey Corp., making airplane parts; 4,700 at the John A. Roebling's Sons and Co., in Roebling and Trenton, N. J., and 4,300 at the General Steel Castings Co., Granite City, Ill.
Nine lesser disputes kept some 3,600 more idle. But 1,300 at the Jersey City, N. J., plant of American Can Co., and 1,500 at the Pottstown, Pa., plant of Spicer Manufacturing Co., voted to end walkouts.
