IT PAYS TO LOOK BACKWARD

By Charles V. Stanton

THERE is an old adage to the effect that "foresight is better than hindsight." But this saying is not altogether true when applied to operation of motor vehicles, asserts Ward McReynolds, license examiner for the state motor vehicle department.

McReynolds, who has conducted tests of many thousands of applicants for drivers' licenses, says that lack of alertness to rear traffic is the principal cause of automobile accidents. More wrecks occur from rear than from frontal traffic, he states, basing his statement upon a long study of official reports.

Failure to give proper signals and improper turning habits are also contributing factors to many accidents, both, however, being related to a disregard of traffic approaching from the rear, McReynolds says.

Too much reliance, the examiner declares, is placed upon the rear view mirror, which affords a very limited range of vision and often fails to show vehicles which have crawled up in passing position. Many collisions result from automobiles pulling out into traffic from parking places before drivers have ascertained that there are no cars approaching from the rear, while in many cases no signal of intention is given.

Drivers preparing to make a right turn will often pull out to the center lane to secure a wider sweep in changing directions, McReynolds reports. Following drivers frequently mistake the intention of the operator of the car ahead and cut over to the far right thus causing a collision. The examiner was witness to a fatal accident which resulted from the same fault applied to a left turn.

The driver of the leading vehicle gave clear signal of his intention to turn left, but instead of pulling out to the center lane, went to the extreme right. The following driver, presuming the signal to have been in error, stepped on his accelerator and the resulting collision killed the driver of the leading automobile.

"Applicants occasionally form the impression we are unduly severe when we refuse licenses because of poor grades in the written test or because of a lack of driving ability," the examiner said. "But these people just don't know what is going on in the traffic world. They don't see the people mangled or killed because of ignorance or carelessness. We conduct examinations because by doing so we promote traffic safety. We must insist that drivers be familiar with traffic rules and regulations and that they have sufficient ability to assure reasonable safety in operating motor vehicles."

He recommends that every person planning to take a driver's test secure and study the driver's manual furnished free of charge by the secretary of state. Even a person who has had much driving experience will find difficulty with the written examination unless he has refreshed his memory by a careful study of the rules and regulations set forth in the manual. This is particularly true, he reports, in the case of drivers from other states. He cites the case of an applicant who had driven an automobile for 25 years in another state and who became very indignant when refused an Oregon license because of failure to comply with state rules.

McReynolds also warned that driving tests must be refused applicants who report with unsafe equipment. Drivers often appear for tests in automobiles lacking adequate brakes or having improper headlights, inoperative windows, or possessing other defects, he states. Tests in such cases must be refused.

Oregon has made great strides in its traffic safety program. The system provided for examining and testing drivers before permits are granted has been an important factor in accomplishing these most desirable results. If, at times, the program seems irksome to those who are required to submit to the examinations, or, if the examiners may seem unreasonable in granting requests, it should be borne in mind that the entire set-up is one to promote greater traffic safety and that the lives of the applicants and other drivers are affected by the efficiency with which the service is performed.

taking no chances. Two red armies are converging on the Galati gap, and are only 35 miles away.

Russian political officers, accompanying the troops and authorized to speak officially for the soviet government, are informing the Romanians flatly that liquidation of the German forces must be achieved before the fighting stops and an armistice is concluded.

They add that Russia will NOT annex any Romanian territory, will change no existing social regimes and will not harm Romanian independence.

A mass of other rumors, the Cairo radio (British) says Romania has declared war on Germany and that German planes have bombed Bucharest.

It is reported and is easy to believe that Bulgaria is slinking in hot boots. There are hints that the Germans are getting swiftly out of Greece and Yugoslavia. Hitler's job now aside from sending his rocket coast is to get as many Germans as possible back onto the borders of Germany for the last final stand he has been talking about.

Says Liquor Board Lax In Temperance Promotion

PORTLAND, Aug. 28 (AP)—L. B. Sandblast, Portland attorney, has charged the Oregon liquor commission with violating a state statute directing it to promote temperance.

It did so in offering purchasers of two bottles of rum, brandy or gin an extra bottle of whisky.

LETTERS to the Editor

FORMER WPA WORKER SAYS AGENCY ENTITLED TO CREDIT

EDITOR NEWS-REVIEW—I have read several of your columns and your political views. Why don't you give a little credit where credit is due? I happen to have worked on WPA. Logging trucks are running over roads that were built with money you claim was thrown away. Roseburg and vicinity is changing hands mighty fast. I ate G. O. P. "sympathy" from 1924 until 1932 and it wasn't very satisfactory.

That is something else I would like to know. Why does it take a democrat to show republicans what to do? Then the republicans come back to the public with democratic ideas and say that this is something new.

I know now why Roseburg bought the new street sweeper. It was to clean up the political mud.

I do not think you are doing your cause any good by slinging mud, such as the article on page one of Tuesday, Aug. 15, News-Review, or the one in the editorial column of the same dated paper.

Anyone may catch a few rats, but I wouldn't call him a first class trapper.

Think it over and see if Roseburg hasn't grown bigger than you.

STANLEY BRINT, Lookingglass Route, Roseburg, Oregon.

NEWCOMERS FROM CALIFORNIA WILL VOTE FOR DEWEY

EDITOR NEWS-REVIEW: May I take this opportunity to tell you how much we enjoy your editorial. Your recent "Contrasts" was splendid. We are for any article that shows up F. D. R. and all of his alphabetical playmates. It will be a great relief to have an honest-goodness real American family in the White House again. As you may surmise, we are for Mr. Dewey. We recently moved here from California, but truly love this great state of Oregon, and have registered already.

Hope it isn't too late for you to assist in Gabriel Heatter. Somehow we've gotten out of the habit of mentioning him lately and it was revealed to our mind by a mass note we received mentioning that he tops all competing network shows on a Heaper rating. In case that's Greek to you it's the result of those phone calls you get from time to time when a pleasant voice says "to what station and program are you listening?" Army Air Forces are with you at 6:30. Here Comes the Band at 8, and Point Sublime at 8:30. Now that it appears that Dewey is going to live, we'll tell you that we were wrong in our heads. We had an idea that he was going to leave the cast and that the writer was going to let him die and so eliminate him once and for ever without any explanation; but we must have been wrong and we're very happy that you had Point Sublime without Dewey wouldn't be Point Sublime. This is the night that Sherlock Holmes dies his sleuthing at 10 o'clock. It's "Diminished the Divine" with Dr. Watson

U. S. Employees in Oregon Asked For Campaign Funds

PORTLAND, Aug. 28 (AP)—State Senator Lew Wallace, democratic national committeeman for Oregon, has asked the state's 22,000 federal employees to contribute from $10 to $100 to the democratic campaign fund, the Oregonian said yesterday.

The paper quoted Wallace as saying the democratic national committee has asked him to raise $30,000 in Oregon.

Wallace's circular letter, quoted in part, said: "Next to winning the war and a permanent peace, the most pressing matter before the American people is the reelection of Franklin D. Roosevelt."

"The president is entitled to your support in this election and there is nothing in the Hatch act or in the civil service regulations which prohibits you from expressing your political views or contributing to the support of your party or candidates."

State Press Comment

THE GRANDSTANDER (Corvallis Gazette Times) It would be a shock to the American people if the expense of Mr. Roosevelt's recent junket would be exposed as it should be.

He traveled on one of our newest superliners, protected by a bank of destroyers. Arriving in Hawaii he was guarded by armoured troops riding in cars. In addition to his own expense, there was the expense and danger of building General MacArthur from Australia to Honolulu and all for what? Politics.

The entire expense of his trip.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

The early disciples earned in was to hold the mighty hand of came to know that one with Him is more than all the host of the enemy. They discovered how they could be endowed with indomitable courage. Because they consciously lived in the presence of Christ, they gained a spiritual peace, an inner resourcefulness, and a steadfastness of soul that can be explained only by the means of His comradeship. We too need the same courage today. Life frequently becomes desperately difficult without the presence of Christ in our lives. Sooner or later hopelessness and despair overtake us, and we are ready to give up because the odds are apparently all against us. In a shaken world such as ours, there is increasingly being found upon us the imperative necessity for this Divine comradeship. Without it we can have no assurance of a blessed future, either for ourselves or for the world. Our Christ is the mighty Redeemer who can save to the uttermost even in a world like ours. Amen.

should be charged to political activities, for he had nothing to contribute to the war strategy in the Pacific. The army, navy and marines have been getting along very well without his advice. He knows nothing of military affairs and only the fact that he wants to emphasize, for political reasons, that he is commander-in-chief could have induced him to make this expensive trip. If the American people will but see the politician behind the commander-in-chief mask, they will arise who ever thought A SYNTHETIC TIRE COULD BE SO GOOD!

Even tire men had their fingers crossed when they were faced with the job of building tires entirely from the new government synthetic rubber GR-S. Many said it couldn't be done. But it was done! And in record time! Today, the new U.S. Royal DeLuxe synthetic tire, when driven at wartime speeds and given the kind of care any good tire deserves is doing a job so good that it's close to pre-war performance—and improvements are still being made. When you are eligible for new tires, remember, the new U.S. Royal DeLuxe synthetic tires are good tires!

IT'S VENTILATED! The open-spaced tread design and deep-cut shoulders allow cooling air to circulate freely drawing heat away from the body of the tire. This is vitally important in synthetic tires.

IT'S SAFETY BONDED! Every cord is bathed in a specially compounded solution that locks the cords firmly into layers of synthetic
