JOANNE RIDGEWAY HAS ENJOYABLE PARTY ON FOURTH BIRTHDAY

Joanne Ridgeway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ridgeway, celebrated her fourth birthday Tuesday, September 12, by inviting a group of small friends to her home in Roseburg.

Games were played and lovely gifts were presented to Joanne from: Judy Edwards of Oakland; Harriet, Leon and Dorell Biers of Sutherlin; Janet and Judy Van Roy, Janet Travis, Billy and Kathleen Haskin, Gene Rapp and Mary Beth Greenwood.

Later in the afternoon Mrs. Ridgeway served lovely refreshments and a beautiful birthday cake was cut in honor of the occasion.

MISS NAOMI SCOTT TO OPEN VIOLIN STUDIO IN MASONIC BUILDING, OCT. 2

Miss Naomi Scott, who needs no introduction to Roseburg as an exceptionally talented violinist and teacher of the violin, has returned here to make her home and has announced that she will open a violin studio in the Masonic building on Oct. 2.

Registration of students of the violin is now underway and anyone desiring to register for lessons has been asked to call the residence telephone number 427-J, where Miss Scott makes her home with Miss Helen Casey at 134 Blakeley street.

Miss Scott, who was in Roseburg a number of years, at which time she conducted a music studio for violin pupils, was very successful both as a teacher and for her own fine artistry. She is being welcomed back here by a host of friends, who are delighted to have her make her home in Roseburg again. Former pupils, as well as new pupils will be welcomed by Miss Scott.

After leaving Roseburg, Miss Scott went to California, where she studied under Naoum Blinder, famed violinist, who is concert master of the San Francisco symphony and who plays first violin in the San Francisco string quartet and also plays for the San Francisco Opera company. With Miss Scott's exceptionally fine background of training, she is able to bring to her pupils, the very latest technique in violin instruction. The urging of her many friends to re-open a studio of violin in Roseburg, has prompted her decision to open the school here on October 2.

DELIGHTFUL AFFAIRS ENJOYED DURING THE WEEK HONORING VISITOR

First Sergeant Clifford Barker, medical department of the U. S. army, who has been spending the week in Roseburg with his son, John, his mother, Mrs. J. F. Barker, and two sisters, Mrs. W. Josse, was honored at several delightful affairs during the week.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Josse entertained Sgt. Barker and son, John; Mrs. J. F. Barker, Mrs. Velle Broadway and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wharton, at a delightful dinner at their beautiful place, "Freemont lodge" on the North Umpqua river.

The following evening, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Sawyers and the latter's sister, Miss Gertrude Rast, entertained the Barker, Josse and C. W. Wharton families at a lovely dinner at their home on North Stephens street.

Thursday evening, Mrs. H. H. Stapleton entertained at a charming dinner at her attractive home on Chadwick street, having Sgt. Barker, his son, John; Mrs. J. F. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Josse and Mrs. Velle Broadway as guests.

Sgt. Barker, who is a veteran of World War I, entered the U. S. army with the national guard in Washington in 1940. Previous to that he was employed by Sears-Roebuck in Seattle for 14 years. For the last two years he has served with the army in North Africa and Italy and is now on furlough in the states. He leaves this evening for Santa Barbara, Calif., where he will report for reassignment.

MR. AND MRS. FINDLAY ENTERTAIN AT LOVELY DINNER WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Findlay entertained at a very lovely dinner Wednesday evening honoring Ensign J. J. Whittman of the merchant marines, who is here visiting his aunt, Mrs. Steve Lorenz, and family.

Ensign Whittman recently was graduated from officers training school at Alameda, Calif. Covers were placed for Ensign Whittman, guest of honor, Mrs. Steve Lorenz and daughters, Annabelle and Beverly Rae, and son, Buddy, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Findlay and daughters, Ruby Jo, and Brenda, Colleen, and son, Tommy.

TEACHERS TO BE HONORED AT RECEPTION BY P. T. A. TUESDAY

Teachers of the junior and senior high schools will be guests of honor at a reception to be given by the Junior-Senior high P. T. A. next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock at the junior high school building.

Mrs. Alta Arthur, president, has announced that an interesting program has been planned for the occasion. All parents and teachers are urged to be present.

TEA AND EXHIBIT WILL BE LARGE EVENT OF NEXT WEDNESDAY

One of the largest events scheduled for the early fall months will be the fifth annual exhibit and tea to be sponsored by the Roseburg W. C. T. U. next Wednesday from 12 noon to 5:30 o'clock at the First Methodist church. The general public has been most cordially invited to enjoy this benefit affair, which is given annually to raise funds to carry out the W. C. T. U. projects including its support of the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis.

Mrs. J. D. Osborn and Mrs. George M. Brown are co-chairmen of the apron bazaar and white elephant sale. They report that a large assortment of women's aprons have been made up from pre-war materials. Dressy aprons as well as plainer types will be available. They will also have a large assortment of children's aprons made during the last week from some of the latest materials to be obtained. They will be assisted by Mrs. James Pinkerton.

Mrs. W. J. Adair and Mrs. V. J. Micelli will have charge of the exhibit section, which will include many beautiful and interesting articles.

Mrs. W. H. Carter is chairman of the quilt section and will be assisted by Mrs. J. R. Wilson, Mrs. W. G. Rochester and Mrs. J. B. Needham. The rug department will be in charge of Mrs. E. E. Hofffield, chairman, Mrs. C. H. Wickham, Mrs. W. J. Adair, Mrs. Mable P. Taylor and Mrs. W. R. Allen. The lace section will be in charge of Mrs. Otto Olson, chairman, assisted by Mrs. G. W. Leeper, Mrs. Linn Emmonds and Mrs. V. J. Micelli.

Decorations for the affair and the tea table will be in charge of Mrs. Foster Butler and Mrs. I. B. Riddle. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Len B. Fishback and Mrs. R. D. Knigge and the tea and punch committee will be headed by Mrs. L. Kohlhaas, Sr., assisted by Mrs. Grace B. Foster, Mrs. Fred L. Southwick, Mrs. Foster Butler, Miss Edith Staggs and Mrs. J. H. Wolford.

The literature table will be maintained by Mrs. C. A. Edwards, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Adah Jones and Mrs. R. A. Hercher.

Special features of exhibit will be the large display of salt dishes to be arranged by Mrs. J. D. Osborn; rug braiding demonstration by Mrs. Ben Zenor, and spinning demonstration by Mrs. Jeff Williams.

Mrs. Annie L. Fussell, president of the W. C. T. U., has announced that all committees are working hard to make their displays as attractive as possible and to make the event truly worthwhile and enjoyable. Patrons of the exhibits held previously are anticipated with much pleasure the fifth annual exhibit to be held next Wednesday.

REPUBLICAN WOMEN TO HOLD DINNER MEETING MONDAY NIGHT

Mrs. John Y. Richardson, state vice-chairman of the Republican Central committee, will be guest speaker at a meeting of the Precinct committee women and the republican workers Monday evening, September 25, at a six o'clock no-hostess dinner at the Hotel Umpqua.

All persons desiring reservations for the dinner are asked to call headquarters 740-Y. The dinner will be followed by a meeting to be held at the republican headquarters in the Masonic building at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Richardson will be in Drain Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Marguerite La Grand to hold a meeting with the republican women of the northern part of the county.

Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Richardson will hold a meeting at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. G. R. Bates in Myrtle Creek with the republican women of the southern part of the county.

INTERESTING MEETING PLANNED BY B. P. W. C. FOR MONDAY EVENING

The Roseburg Business and Professional Women's club will hold its second meeting of the year Monday evening, September 25, at 8 o'clock at the Woman's clubhouse.

Members in charge of the program will be Verna Carothers, Katherine Kenny and Carmen Clark. The evening's subject will be "How do we rate ourselves?"

Some very interesting new business will be taken up and all members are urged to be present. Prospective members and friends are also invited.

The first meeting of the year was held September 11th at the clubhouse with the executive board in charge of the program and social hour. The prize for playing Keno was won by Helen Westfall. Following the meeting, refreshments were served.

EXECUTIVE BOARD OF WOMAN'S CLUB TO MEET ON NEXT TUESDAY

The Roseburg Woman's club first executive board meeting of the fall will be held at two o'clock next Tuesday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, on Glenn street. All officers, board members, directors and committee chairmen are requested to be present.

Plans for the year's activities of the club will be outlined. The first regular meeting of the club will be held October 3 at the clubhouse at a one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon.

COMMUNITY CONCERT ASSOCIATION MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN TO OPEN MONDAY

The second annual membership campaign of the Community concert association (to bring leading artists to Roseburg in concert) will officially open at a dinner at six-thirty o'clock at the Hotel Umpqua Monday night, Sept. 25. Miss Gladys H. Strong, president, and Miss Helen Casey, membership chairman and her assistant, Mrs. Charles A. Brand, are urging all members of the board and membership campaign workers to attend the dinner. Mrs. Gilbert Walters is in charge of the dinner arrangements.

David Ferguson, representative for Columbia Artists Inc., will be guest speaker at the dinner and will remain in Roseburg during the campaign, which will remain open for one week only, closing on Saturday, Sept. 30. There will be no membership taken after the closing of the campaign.

Residents of Douglas county who desire to obtain a membership and who are not contacted by a campaign worker may secure their membership by calling or writing to the campaign headquarters at the chamber of commerce office, where Mrs. A. R. Lundeen will act as campaign secretary.

Mrs. E. C. Young is in charge of the membership campaign in Oakland and Mrs. G. R. Bates, Myrtle Creek; Mrs. Clifford Parrott, Sutherlin.

Memberships for adults are $5, plus government tax, and $2 for students, plus government tax.

Last year was the first season for the Community Concert association in Roseburg. A membership of more than 800 was enjoyed.

Three concerts are guaranteed annually by the association. The first year the association presented four concerts and officers of the organization are hoping to do equally well this year.

In recent years, Roseburg has shown a definite trend toward good music. Numerous residents made trips regularly to Eugene and Portland to hear famed artists presented in concert. Through the Community Concert association, it was possible to bring these same artists to Roseburg, which enables hundreds of members to enjoy, whereas only a few in previous years could leave the city to enjoy such musical events.

No tickets are ever sold at any concert. Only members of the association are privileged to attend and no memberships are sold following the closing date of the campaign.

Mr. Ferguson will be accompanied to Roseburg Monday by his wife.

D. O. U. V. HAS SEWING MEETING AT SEBRING HOME

MISS BERTHA PRESCHERN BECOMES BRIDE OF CPL. KENNETH MCCOY

White gladioli, pink rosebuds and ghost bush formed the beautiful archway and improvised altar for the impressive wedding Wednesday, September 20, when Miss Bertha Preschern, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Preschern, became the bride of Corporal Kenneth McCoy of Freeport, Illinois, at the beautiful home of the bride's parents on the Melrose road. Dr. Morris H. Roach, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Roseburg, performed the ring ceremony at high noon in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

Mrs. Enos Handy played, "Wonderful One" and followed by playing the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin.

The bride was very attractive in a chaste, colored two piece suit with royal purple accessories. Her corsage was a large orchid. Mrs. Otis L. Sarten was matron of honor and was charming in an aqua-colored suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias. Corporal Walter Kruegar acted as best man.

The bride's mother wore an attractive frock of sky blue and her corsage was fashioned from rosebuds.

A wedding reception followed the ceremony. The beautifully decorated wedding cake was cut and served from an attractively appointed serving table. Ice cream and punch were also served. The many beautiful gifts were displayed in one room.

Those attending the ceremony were: Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Preschern, Mr. and Mrs. John Preschern, Mrs. Lewis Miller, of Clatskanie, (aunt of the bride), Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sadt (grandparents of the bride), Mr. and Mrs. Otis Sartin and children, Anne and Ronald; Mrs. Enos Handy, Corporal Walter Kruegar, Major Magen, Set. Dryden, Private Polowski and Dr. Morris H. Roach.

Following the reception, the bride and bridegroom left for Crater and Diamond lakes to spend their honeymoon.

KEYSTONE CLUB HAS DELIGHTFUL MEETING ON MONDAY EVENING

The Methodist Keystone club held its first fall meeting at a delightful seven-thirty o'clock dessert-supper Monday evening at the attractive home of Mrs. Bruce Elliott on East Third street with Mrs. R. A. Feenstra and Mrs. Loren Harvey assisting hostesses. Twenty-six members and guests enjoyed the occasion.

Covers were placed for: Mrs. Adrian Fisher, Mrs. Clifford E. Smith, Ruth Froman, Mrs. Lucien Cobb, Mrs. W. E. Baell, Mrs. Harl Kelley, Mrs. Vernon Keel, Mrs. Paul Geddes, Mrs. Leroy Hatt, Mrs. Ned Dixon, Mrs. Earl Henry, Mrs. John Todd, Mrs. Albert Joelson, Mrs. E. E. Willener, Mrs. George Churchill, Mrs. S. W. Warg, Mrs. M. M. Nelson, Mrs. Gladys Elliott, Mrs. Bruce Elliott, Mrs. Orville Dingle, Mrs. C. K. Rand, Mrs. W. H. Pattison, Mrs. Glenn Forrest, Mrs. R. A. Feenstra and Mrs. F. G. Burr.

The regular business meeting was held and reports from the various committees were given and plans were made for the coming winter. The Keystone club has sponsored several projects during the summer months and expects to continue its work during the year. The club voted to buy a new service flag for the church as the present one is not large enough to accommodate the long list of names of men and women now in the service.

Plans were also made for the "to be given by the Secret Mothers for their Secret Daughters" next Sunday night at 5:30 o'clock until 7 o'clock at the Methodist church parlors. This is one of the projects the club members feel will be very much enjoyed by both the mothers and daughters.

Plans were outlined for a "Hallowe'en party" the date of which will be announced later. Husbands of the members and guests will be invited.

Sewing and visiting were enjoyed and group singing closed the delightful evening. The October meeting will be held on the 18th at a 7:30 o'clock dessert supper at the home of Mrs. Earl Wiley on South Kane street.
