The next meeting will be a one o'clock dessert-luncheon October 10 at the home of Mrs. Paul Geddes with Mrs. C. M. Stark in charge of the program on "Home Designing."

REPUBLICAN WOMEN INVITED TO MEET WITH WAYNE L. MORSE TUESDAY

The republican headquarters will sponsor a very interesting one-hour meeting next Tuesday, Oct. 3, from four to five o'clock at the republican headquarters rooms in the Masonic building for the women to meet Wayne L. Morse, republican candidate for United States senator.

Every republican woman interested in the November election has been asked to attend this one-hour meeting next Tuesday with Mr. Morse.

Mr. Morse will spend the day here meeting with republicans and will attend the Kiwanis meeting at noon. In the evening, he will meet with the republican men at a dinner at the Umpqua hotel and will give a speech over KRNR from 8 to 8:15 o'clock, which will be carried by direct wire to Portland and broadcast by KALE.

Arrangements for the meetings to be held here by Mr. Morse were made Friday by his sister, Mrs. H. V. B. Kline, nee Caryl Morse, who makes her home with the Morse family in Eugene. Her husband is in the U. S. navy and is serving overseas.

WEST MELROSE CLUB MEETS AT COOPER HOME ON THURSDAY

The West Melrose club was entertained Thursday at the home of Mrs. George Cooper. The members knitted for the Red Cross. At the tea hour, delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Cooper to: Mrs. Etta Ward, a guest, Mrs. Amy Criteser, Mrs. H. G. Thompson, Mrs. Kenneth Conn and son, Stephen; Mrs. J. Gravening, Mrs. George Osterman and Mrs. F. O. Heminger. The next meeting will be October 5 at the home of Mrs. Amy Criteser. All newcomers in West Melrose are especially invited.

SECRET MOTHERS HOLD SUCCESSFUL PARTY ON SUNDAY EVENING

The Secret Mothers of the Methodist Keystone class spent a delightful time with their chosen daughters last Sunday evening. Mrs. Adrian Fisher was the general chairman of the affair and was assisted by Mrs. Bruce Elliott and Mrs. Clifford Smith. The table from which the punch, sandwiches and cookies were served was very beautiful in autumn colors. Get-acquainted games were played when the young people arrived and were divided according to the season in which they were born. Mrs. Paul Geddes and Mrs. Myrtle Burr entertained the group by playing the piano in their incomparable manner. Mrs. C. K. Rand introduced her Sunday school class of intermediate girls and they read a Psalm. The seasonal captains introduced the mothers and daughters in their groups and they were as follows: Fall, Mrs. Myrtle Burr, Janice Zimmerman, Barbara Rand, Ruth Collett, Doris Rand, Leah Rand, Alice Harrison, Marilyn Dixon, Lois Wainscott and Margaret Harvey. Winter, Mrs. Marion Cobb, Alma Kelley, Lucy Todd, Larraine Stritzke, Eugenia Wolsk, Ruth Froman, Margaret Atherton, Alice Findlay, Norma Jean Elliott, Amy Adair, Rinke Feenstra, Clare Feenstra; Spring, Miss Edith Rand, Zona Wilshire, Betty Ann Harvie, Violet Wilshire, Mildred Joelson, Kitty Marsters, Flora Harvey, Barbara Wickof and Cherry Ann Arney; Summer, Mrs. Esther Geddes, Darlene Morris, Harriet Booth, Hallie Felter, Florene Keel, Laura Dingler, Gerald Heilman, Edith McKay, Mary Ellen McKay and Mildred Nelson.

ROSEBURG WOMAN'S CLUB TO OPEN FALL MEETINGS WITH GUEST-DAY AFFAIR

The annual fall-guest day affair of the Roseburg Woman's club will mark the opening of the first meeting of the season at a one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon next Tuesday at the clubhouse. Members may bring as many guests as they desire, but are asked to call the hostess committee and tell the number they expect to bring.

Mrs. Len B. Fishback and Miss Helen Casey will be joint chairmen of the hostess committee, assisted by members of the executive board.

Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, president, will conduct the meeting. A rummage sale has been dated by the club for Nov. 13 and 14 and a chrysanthemum exhibit will be a highlight sponsored by the club during November, the date of which will be announced later.

Mrs. Homer Grow, program chairman, has secured Mrs. E. J. Loney as the guest speaker for this first meeting. Mrs. Loney will talk on "China," which will prove most interesting, as she formerly made her home in that country. Mrs. Loney is a very fine speaker and members are anticipating her talk with much pleasure.

Mrs. Paul Geddes and Mrs. Gordon Stewart will play special musical numbers and plan to play music of the gay nineties, as this is the Woman's club fiftieth year, and will also play modern music. Mrs. H. W. Pattison will be the guest vocal soloist.

Roll-call topic speakers for this first meeting include: Mrs. A. R. Lundeen, Mrs. Donn Radabaugh, Mrs. Kenneth Ford and Mrs. W. R. Brown.

MRS. L. L. WIMBERLY ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB AT CHARMING LUNCHEON

Mrs. L. L. Wimberly entertained her bridge club at a charming one o'clock al fresco salad luncheon at her beautiful home "Pine Ridge" Wednesday. Gorgeous bouquets of mixed fall flowers lent a colorful note to the rooms.

Members and guests enjoying the occasion with Mrs. Wimberly included: Mrs. George Wharton, Mrs. O. M. Berrie, Mrs. Adrian Fisher, Mrs. H. H. Turner, Mrs. H. S. Black, Mrs. R. L. Whipple and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

Contract bridge was in play during the afternoon with high score going to Mrs. Porter, second high to Mrs. Black, and the traveling prize to Mrs. Wharton.

DONALD STUMBO IS HONORED AT DINNER ON BIRTHDAY SUNDAY

Donald Stumbo was honored on his 9th birthday Sunday at a very delightful dinner given by Mrs. Amy Strong at her home on North Pine street. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stumbo and three sons, Donald, guest of honor, Lloyd and Howard and the hostess, Mrs. Strong.

Joines Waves

News-Review engraving
Genevieve Blake

Miss Genevieve Blake, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Blake, Roseburg, has enlisted in the Waves, and is to leave October 1 for indoctrination school, Hunter college, New York, where she will take her basic training in the A. S. V-10, U. S. navy reserve.

She was born at Mitchell, Ore., and moved to Roseburg while a student in high school. She was graduated from Roseburg high.

She was a charter member of the Stage Door Canteen in San Francisco and served there as a junior hostess. In 1943 she was a guard on board ship at Moore Dry Dock in Oakland, Calif., at which time she was employed as a specialist and was sworn into the Coast Guard reserve and was given an honorable discharge to take up flight training at the Wasps Conner Field, Ariz. This program was discontinued by act of congress. She continued her flight training at Reno Sky ranch, Reno, Nev., and recently received her private pilots license from there. She was sworn into the Waves at Reno, Nevada, recruiting office, which is a branch of the San Francisco Naval Officer Procurement.

While in Nevada, she sold advertising for the Alumni magazine published by the Alumni association of the University of Oregon.

She is a member of the Gallon club in the Red Cross blood donor service, having given nine pints of blood to date. She is a member of the Christian church and of the "Women Fivers of America."

She has two brothers in service: Cpl. William E. Blake, 247th Signal Operations company, Fort Lewis, Wash., and Allan S. Blake, F 1/c Navy Seabees, in the Southwest Pacific. Her two brothers-in-law, Cpl. Marl Liles, U. S. army, is now in Burma, and Lt. Norman B. Benson, army engineers, is serving in the Southwest Pacific.

EXECUTIVE BOARD HAS MEETING AND ENJOYS TEA TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The Roseburg Woman's club executive board, officers and committee chairmen met at the beautiful home of the president, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Tuesday afternoon to make plans for the activities of the club for the year.

Colorful fall flowers were arranged about the rooms. At the tea hour, Mrs. Wimberly served lovely refreshments and Miss Marie Martens and Mrs. L. A. Wells poured.

Those enjoying the occasion with Mrs. Wimberly included: Mrs. W. H. Richardson, Miss Marie Martens, Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. R. W. Marsters, Mrs. I. B. Riddle, Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mrs. A. S. Coen, Mrs. Velle Broadway, Mrs. H. C. Pargeter, Mrs. L. A. Wells, Mrs. Len B. Fishback, Mrs. H. B. Carter, Mrs. O. S. Chambers, Mrs. A. J. Geddes, Mrs. Morris H. Roach, and Mrs. F. W. Chase.

MRS. KERMIT JOHNSON COMPLIMENTED AT BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mrs. R. W. Marsters entertained at a very charming six-thirty o'clock birthday dinner at the Hotel Umpqua Monday evening in compliment to her daughter, Mrs. Kermit Johnson. Roses formed a very beautiful motif for the table.

Guests entertained by Mrs. Marsters in honor of Mrs. Johnson included: Mrs. A. J. Ellison, Mrs. Edwin Booth, Mrs. George Churchill, Mrs. John William Robertson, Mrs. E. F. Waggoner and Mrs. Vera McClintock Jones.

Following the dinner, the group enjoyed a delightful social hour at the Marsters home on North Jackson street and lovely birthday gifts were presented to the guest of honor.

MR. AND MRS. CUMMINGS ENTERTAIN BRIDGE CLUB AT DELIGHTFUL DINNER

Colorful fall flowers carried out a pretty motif for the six-thirty o'clock dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cummings, when they entertained their bridge club Saturday evening.

Covers were placed for: Dwayne Drake, Namp, Ida., and Ward Cummings, Jr., both of the U. S. navy reserve training school at Willamette university, Salem, guests, and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Patterson and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Cummings.

Contract bridge was in play during the evening with Mrs. Cummings and Mr. Lee winning the high scores.

Morse Dated For Political Talks at Drain, Roseburg

Wayne L. Morse, republican candidate for U. S. senator, has announced that he will speak at the Drain community hall Monday, Oct. 2, at 8 p. m. He will be introduced by James A. Rodman, chairman of the central committee of Lane county, Mr. Morse's home county. The meeting arrangements will be in charge of Henry Goodmanson, precinct committeeman in Drain. The public is invited to attend.

Mr. Morse will come to Roseburg Monday to be guest speaker at the Kiwanis noon luncheon. He will visit Myrtle Creek in the afternoon and will return to Roseburg for a meeting with republican women to be held from 4 to 5 o'clock at the republican headquarters. He will hold a dinner meeting with republican men at the Hotel Umpqua in the evening and will broadcast a speech over KRNR from 8 to 8:15.

Sutherlin Wac Escorts Body of Enlisted Man

Wac Pvt. Ada Lund, stationed at New York, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Graham, Sutherlin, is belived to be the first Wac to accompany the body of an enlisted man to his home, according to a report made by a N. Y. paper last week.

Pvt. Lund, hearing of the death of Sgt. Waldo Pena, of Laredo, Texas, asked that she be the military escort with the body as her son. Corporal Monte Rowntree, section B-1, was stationed at the LAAF in that city. The mother and son were granted a three-day delay en route and met last Friday at the Missouri Pacific station for the first time since last June. Cpl. Rowntree entered the army March 25, 1942, and his mother followed suit in November, 1943.
