(Continued from page 1) as may be, have ready for them an opportunity to gain these advantages which they lost when they went to the defense of their country," the senator declared.

which they have fulfilled in defending their country in war. It is an obligation we cannot, we must not shirk in any respect."

He gave his listeners a report on the work of the congress addressing the importance of committee work and expressing satisfaction in the fact that he has succeeded to the important committee appointments held by the late Senator Charles L. McNary, whom he was appointed to follow in office.

Enforced Peace Favored Describing the secrecy of the Dumbarton Oaks conference and commending the republican presidential candidate, Dewey, for his contribution to the international peace conference, by removing it from partisan politics, Senator Cordon declared that "a way must be found for international agreement and international cooperation, and force must be provided to implement it and make it effective."

Given Rousing Welcome Senator Cordon was introduced by Governor Earl Snell, who spoke proudly of the achievements of the man he had appointed to the important office.

He was entertained by the Roseburg Rotary club of noon, and in the evening was the guest of honor at a banquet tendered by war veterans.

He was "kidnapped" from the banquet by the Douglas County Mounted Police, who forced him into uniform prior to his appearance at the theater.

Delegations from nearly all Douglas county towns occupied sections in the crowded theater auditorium.

Following the broadcast, Senator Cordon was tendered a reception at the Elks lodge hall.

He left today for Eugene to begin a strenuous trip throughout all of Oregon prior to the Nov. 7 election.

er German security troops surrendered near the town, making the position of the garrison untenable. At Rion, the Germans fell back quickly.

In southern Albania other British units which landed 11 days ago continued to harass German communications leading to the small port of Sarande, supply base for the Corfu island garrison. The enemy retained artillery positions along the Sarande-Delvine road.

From Rion the British still had roughly 70 miles to travel to reach the isthmus of Corinth, which would seal off the only land escape for any German forces in the south.

On the channel coast 19,000 civilians were evacuated from Dunkerque and the attack on the Holland coast, some of the crushing British defeat in 1940, was resumed.

Air Fleet Strike Fog, cold and mud, Berlin said, covered the whole western front, but in the air, fighters and fighter bombers maintained the hammering assault on enemy positions, and heavy bombers roared out in daylight again after RAF Lancasters during the night drove a "very heavy" attack on Saarbrücken, vital rail point, in support of the Yank ground assault on the Reich.

Besides an aircraft engine plant in Berlin, the Flying Fortresses and Liberators bombed a tank assembly plant, a military depot and an ordnance depot.

Other objectives were: The Rhenania and Eban oil refineries at Harburg, six miles south of Hamburg.

Communist Support Is Disowned by Roosevelt

(Continued from page 1) whom they disagree. "They forget that we in the United States are all descended from immigrants (all except the Indians); and there is no better course of that fact than the heroic courage on our casualty lists."

Propaganda Rauced The president referred to a statement by Chairman Anderson (D-N. M.) of the house committee on campaign expenditures that 13 republicans in congress had recently sent free through the mails more than 3,000,000 copies of a colloquial speech "re-echoing more than 15 tons of sense and expensive paper and ink" at the taxpayers' expense.

This document, Mr. Roosevelt added, "says that the 'real spectre of communism is stalking our country from east to west, from north to south'—the charge being that the Roosevelt administration is part of a gigantic plot to sell our democracy out to the communists."

Continuing, the president said: "This form of propaganda is not new among rabble rousers and fomenters of class hatred—who seek to destroy democracy itself. It was used by Mussolini's black shirts and by Hitler's brown shirts. It has been used before in this country by the Silver Shirts and others on the lunatic fringe."

Charges Answered Other points he dealt with included: 1. Demobilization. He said "reckless words based on unauthorized sources" had been used by his opponents in saving the administration is ill prepared for demobilization. Such words have been used, he said, "to mislead and to weaken the morale" of soldiers and their families. He pointed that men in the armed services will be returned to civilian life "at the earliest possible moment consistent with our national safety."

2. Wartime controls. He said the American people "do not need, and no national administration would dare ask them, to tolerate any indefinite continuance in neaptime of the controls essential in wartime."

3. Register and vote. He urged all eligible citizens, particularly women, to register and vote. He advocated removal of poll taxes and other vote "restrictions" and in a reference to the soldier vote, said the people will be able to "fix the responsibility" on those

A spokesman said the fierce air onslaught plus intense anti-aircraft fire plainly indicated how important the enemy regards preservation of installations which supply 15 per cent of the gasoline and oil used by Nippon's war machine.

Palau Score Favors Yanks A communique last night at Pearl Harbor by Adm. Nimitz brought casualty figures in the invasion of the Palau up to date while maintaining the ratio of more than 10 Japanese slain for every American.

From Sept. 15, opening day of the invasion, through yesterday, the total of Japanese dead was placed at 11,043 against 1,022 Americans (771 first division marines, 251 81st division army troops). American casualties totaled 7,418, including 4,100 wounded (4,650 marines, 1,456 soldiers) and 280 missing (267 marines, 13 soldiers). Japanese forces which invaded maritime Fukien province have reached the northwestern suburbs of Foochow. The Chinese high command at Chungking said tonight.

The Japanese, who have occupied the important port before, apparently expect to take it again without difficulty. The landings in Fukien were announced by Tokyo early this week, and were pictured as part of an attempt to forestall American landings from the Pacific which would "sever our (Japanese) communications with the southern region."
