G. O. P. PERFORMS MIRACLE

THE Republican party candidates deserve a clean sweep from Douglas county voters in the coming general election, in the opinion of Roy O. Young, Roseburg realtor, and a leader in veteran circles. The Republican party, Young says, already has proven its ability to do the impossible. It has accomplished, even at this early stage, something that no Douglas county resident could imagine being achieved by any organization political or otherwise.

The Republican party has succeeded—hold onto your hats; here it comes!—in inducing the Southern Pacific company to run a passenger train over the tracks between Eugene, Oregon, and Dunsmuir, Calif., IN DAYLIGHT! Of course, it was a special train, chartered by Vice-Presidential Candidate John W. Bricker, governor of Ohio. But it was a passenger train. And it came through Roseburg in daylight instead of sneaking through after dark.

School children, dismissed early from their classes, stood agape at such a sight. One elderly man with long whiskers and leaning heavily on a cane broke into tears as with nostalgic memories he recalled the days when each incoming passenger train was greeted with a charivari of bells and triangles from a half-dozen eating houses which fronted upon the station platform.

At last the children of Roseburg have been given the opportunity to see a passenger train in daylight. A passenger train which rolled right over the main line tracks and stopped at the Roseburg depot. It's almost unbelievable! And it was the Republican party which accomplished this miracle!

And from James Thrasher, our Washington observer, we learn that a crusade for the return of the two-pants suit has been launched by Representative E. P. Scrivner, who is a Kansas Republican.

While the New Deal party teems with defeatism, a Republican congressman, doubtless wearing blue serge trousers which glisten as did the shining armor of the knights of old, to use Thrasher's description, shows the ultimate in Republican optimism in talking about two pairs of pants. Since when has a Republican been able to afford a two-pants suit? But, says Thrasher, "This of course is a far cry from the days when the Republicans were not asking, but promising, things in two—two cars in every garage and two chickens in every pot." Now Congressman Scrivner wants a promise of two pants with every suit.

But we doubt if the petition of the Kansas congressman gets very far, because he bases his plea on a matter of economy. Economy in government is a lost art and carries no popular appeal. Now if the Kansas congressman would introduce a bill whereby the federal government would furnish, as a subsidy, the second pair of trousers with every suit and toss in a matching pair of slacks for friend wife, he would have something that would get immediate action instead of having to wait for the Republicans to get back into power.

But with a slogan of two pairs of pants with every suit and a demonstrated ability of running a daylight passenger train over the Southern Pacific railroad in Roseburg, we don't see how the Republican candidates can fail to win this election. It's a cinch!

Lieut. Comdr. Hill Ends Leave With Kin at Days Creek

Lieutenant Commander Robert V. Hill, who has been visiting at Days Creek with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hill, and his brother, Carl, M. Hill, while on a short leave, left Friday for a California port. He expects to go soon to join his squadron in Australia.

A graduate of Days Creek high school in 1932, he studied medicine in the University of Oregon, graduating from medical school in 1936, taking his internship at King county hospital, Seattle. He enlisted in the navy at Seattle and was given officer training in Alaskan waters, participating with the medical forces in the invasion of Attu and Kiska islands. After two years in the Alaskan theater, he was sent to Florida, where he has been given a special course of instruction in aviation medicine, preparatory to appointment as a flight surgeon. He is now being returned to active duty.

R. H. S. Football Eleven Loses To Cottage Grove, 28-6

The Roseburg high school Indians showed vast improvement last night in the football game at Cottage Grove, where they were defeated by a veteran team by a score of 28 to 6. The Cottage Grove team included 12 lettermen, with 10 regulars from last year's squad, while the Indian team is composed very largely of players who had had no experience previous to this season.

The Indians punched over the first score of the game, taking the opening kick-off on their own 35-yard line and marching straight down the field on a series of running plays, which ended with Pollard carrying the ball on the scoring play. The attempt for the extra point failed.

Cottage Grove, however, went out in front a few minutes later when they duplicated the Roseburg feat and marched down the field and converted to make the score 7 to 6 in the first quarter. Cottage Grove scored in each of the remaining quarters of the game.

Roseburg had two very tough breaks, one a punt which fell dead on the 3-yard line and set up the Lions for a touchdown, and another a forward pass attempt which went incomplete with the receiver in the open and in scoring position when the ball trickled through his fingers.

The Indians made as many first downs as did the Lions, and were also equal in passes, the game plainly being decided on the greater experience of the Cottage Grove players.

Roseburg's next game will be played on the home field, when the Indians meet Junction city in a night battle Friday, Oct. 20.

Sugar Robinson Wins Over Jannazzo by T. K. O.

BOSTON, Oct. 14—(AP)—The untitled "Sugar" Ray Robinson, considered the scourge of the world's welterweight and middleweight boxers previous to his induction into the U. S. army, today proved that 14 months in the armed service had not dulled his old-time skill.

For his first opponent since being discharged, "Sugar" drew Izzy Jannazzo and the Harlem flash made it three in a row by guilting a technical knockout verdict over the Brooklyn veteran in the second round of their scheduled 10-round bout.

DAILY DEVOTIONS DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

Among the gods of the sixteenth century China are some that seem to me ugly and grotesque. But the artisans of the Ming dynasty created at least one image that has a lesson even for us today. It is a woman's figure, finely molded with twenty-four outstretched hands and open arms. She is known as the many-handed goddess of mercy. How many hands has our God? God has no hands but our hands do His work today.

And if tight-walled sixteenth century China needed a many-handed god to relieve distress, how much more does our God need our hands today, with the multiplicity of the needs of a war stricken world, a suffering bleeding world, in that striking scripture of the final judgment day in Matt. 28: "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these my brethren ye did it unto me."

At the impulse of his love; Take my silver and my gold; Not a mite would I withhold. Take myself and I will be; Ever, only, all for Thee. (Haverlag) Amen.

New Members Sought For Roseburg Band

An appeal to persons who play band instruments to join the Roseburg Municipal band is being made by the majority of its members to the armed services, the organization has dwindled in size to the point where monthly allowances by the city have been discontinued. Reorganization is desired and all interested persons are requested to bring their instruments to report Tuesday night, Oct. 17, at 8 o'clock at the city hall.

The band has some spare instruments and can obtain others, if there are musicians who do not have their own instruments, it is announced.

DIAL LOG

Chicago Theatre of the Air's performance of "Vanished Voices" tonight at 6 will be highlighted by the duet from act III of "Rigoletto," as sung by Virginia Haskins and Bruce Foote, and "Tschalkowsky's 'Sleeping Beauty Waltz'" as sung by the chorus. Undoubtedly the Colonel will be there too—but we wouldn't call him a highlight; would you? Red Ryder at 7:30, Downbeat Derby for half an hour at 8 (Semi-stress Martha Tilton guests on tonight's performance); Governor Bricker at 8:45, and "Swing up again" and "Promenade" all at 9:30 with the Shady Valley Barn Dance. That's it for tonight. Tomorrow there are two new shows—that is one brand new one, "Your America," which makes its premiere airing with a salute to the plywood industry and the reappearance of two of your favorites. The old "Cantata Chorus" steps up again at 12 noon under the title of "Canary Pet Shop." Later in the afternoon there's Cleveland Symphony—so it's at a and day featuring Brahms Fourth Symphony for their first performance of the season with Vladimir Golschew conducting. In between those two there's The Shadow at 2:30, Quick as a Flash (with radio's Charlie Chan as guest this week) at 3 and Dick Brown with a swell line-up of popular tunes at 3:45. More good music at 6, 6:45, 8 (California Melodies in this spot) and fair entertainment at 8:30 with Tonight at Hoagy's—good orchestra here but after a sample of Mr. Carmichael's vocals we think he'd do better if he'd stick to composing such tunes as Stardust and Lazy Bones. The Mysterious Traveler at 9:30—if you can stand any more children after the Shadow has reduced you to a bundle of nerves in the afternoon—but we like him.

Prejudice Only on Home Front, Educator Says

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 14—(AP)—American servicemen are learning to judge their fellows by character, not creed or color, while the home front remains steeped in racial and religious prejudice, Dr. Willis A. Sutton, Reader's Digest education advisor, said at Portland.

Daughter Won't Contest Aimee M'Pherson's Will

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 13.—(AP)—The will of Aimee Semple McPherson, disposing of her personal property estimated by her attorney to be worth less than $10,000, probably will be filed today. Simultaneously, the evangelist's daughter, Mrs. Roberta Salter, said she had no intention of contesting provisions of the will. Joseph Falner, attorney for the founder of Angelus temple and the Foursquare gospel, said the will "mentions only blood relations; no strangers or others are mentioned."

He added it made no provision for Mrs. McPherson's suggestion as to head of her denomination by her son, Rev. Rolf McPherson, who had been so designated before her death in Oakland, Calif., September 27.
