MISSIONARY HEARD AT DINNER MEETING AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. Stanton Lautenschlager, Chengtu, China, representative of the Presbyterian board of missions, was guest speaker at the 6:45 o'clock potluck dinner at the Presbyterian church Thursday evening, which was atteded by 90 members and friends.

Rev. Mr. Lautenschlager talked on "China, Come and See." He stated that one-fourth of the population of the world was in China; he discued the Hinduland of that country and mentioned as a high-light that nations must work together to help China solve her great economic and poverty stricken conditions. He reported that 20 denominations were in that country with only five Christian schools with an enrollment of 28,000. He discussed at length the great suffering of the people of China, their lack of food, medical supplies and doctors. He stated that China's response to the gospel in that country was eagerly sought and that the people there are brilliant. He discussed at large the Communist and Nationalist parties and stated that they must work in harmony for the good of the country. He reported on the evangelistic work being done and stated that the three big needs of China today include: aid financially; aid of young people to do missionary work in China, and a great need of medical aid. He stated American churches are responding wonderfully to the needs of China and he closed his talk by stressing "Today is the day to make China Christian."
