Sports Fans of Roseburg Offered Chance to See Girl Battery Champs In Action Against Local Leaguers

The world's champion battery, pitcher and catcher, in women's softball, will be seen in exhibitions Friday by sports fans of Roseburg and vicinity. Betty Evans, pitcher, and Dorothy Moore, catcher, pictured above, aided the Lind and Pomeroy team of Portland in achieving the world's softball championship for women at the national tournament recently.

The Portland florist firm, which sponsors the team, permitted Miss Evans to come to Roseburg Friday for a joint demonstration before students to inspire additional interest in athletics. The two girls will act as battery for student teams in an exhibition at 2:30 p. m. at the school baseball diamond on Finlay field.

At the request of Principal Omer J. Monger, the Portland firm consented to permit Miss Evans to remain in Roseburg Friday night and the two champions will be seen in an exhibition between halves of the football game between the Roseburg Indians and Junction City. A group of players from the Roseburg Softball league will be invited to attempt to hit the mound offerings of the sensational woman pitcher.

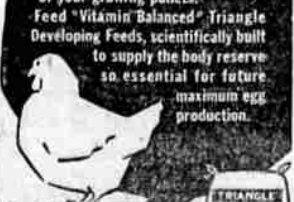

Miss Moore, girls physical education instructor in the Roseburg schools, was granted a leave of absence to participate in the national softball tournament.

NEWS OF OUR MEN-WOMEN IN UNIFORM

Vernan Clifton Zimmerman, Roseburg, recently graduated from the aviation electrician's mate school at Jacksonville Fla., and was promoted to seaman first class in the U. S. navy. Entering the navy Jan. 3, 1944, he received his recruit training at Farragut, Ida., before being transferred to the naval air technical training center. Zimmerman is now a qualified aviation electrician's mate and will probably see service with a naval air unit.

According to word received, Captain O. R. Hess, U. S. army medical department, arrived this month in India. Previous to being sent overseas, he was stationed at Camp Kohler, Sacramento, Calif., and had a special course of instruction at the Mayo hospital at Rochester, Minn. Before entering the service, he was a business partner of Dr. E. B. Stewart. Following the war, he expects to resume practice in Roseburg. His wife and two children, Susan and Robert, make their home on Overlook in Roseburg.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

As American as Huckleberry Finn

About the best-read books in our town are the works of Mark Twain—who wrote Tom Sawyer and Huck Finn and all those other lovable, undying stories.

And I think it's because he's the most American of all our writers. He understood his fellow men—and loved them as he loved all humanity.

You may remember what he said of Tolerance and Freedom—those principles so basic to our way of life. Mark Twain believed in them, of course. He fought for them. But he cautioned: "Never let tolerance become indifference, never let freedom become license."

From where I sit, that's timely wisdom for a troubled world—whether it applies to international politics, or to a man's right to enjoy a friendly glass of beer occasionally.

For tolerance—respect for the other fellow's rights—is important not just in the big things, but in the little human everyday things, too.

Joe Marsh
