DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

In these tragic days many people are failing because they have no foundations. In their confusion, they turn here and there for help, but find none for they know not where to go. In the world and even in the church, there are doubtless mental wanderers, sheep without a shepherd. Blessed is that man who knows that the Lord is his strength and refuge. He can sing in the darkness of the night as well as in the day. "The Lord of hosts is with us." When we need shelter, a rock in a weary land what it means to us to know that the God of Jacob is our refuge. What more do we want? That is enough in all our trials and misfortunes in sorrow, despair, and death. God moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform. That is a great truth. But the high point of that entire teaching is in the first two words. "God moves," and he never moves backward. Out of all the present world struggle, God can bring a better world. I do not know how, but this I do know, God moves ever forward. "His purposes will ripen fast, unfolding every hour, the bud may have a bitter taste, but sweet will be the flower." Amen.
