DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

Many thinkers are expecting an entirely new world after the war is over. They look for a new political, economic and social order with peace, justice and freedom for all. Great minds are already working on such plans. We, as Christians, want to share in the new world order. We believe that apart from political plans, all men need a complete moral regeneration. Without that, all political plans will come to nothing. Pride, greed, hatred, materialism must be eradicated or humanity will eventually come to destruction. No matter what kind of government may be set up, we Christians believe that only through Christ is it possible to build a new world, based on personal and social righteousness. Therefore, by precept and example, we must lead the greatest number of people to accept Christ, their saviour and follow His teachings, that they may be the salt of the earth, and the light of the world. For "only the Golden Rule of Christ can bring the Golden Age of Man." Amen.
