R. H. S. Indians Lose, 12-0, to Grants Pass

Lutz' 96-Yard Run For Touchdown Star Factor Of Cavemen's Triumph

The Roseburg high school Indians were beaten 12 to 0 Saturday by the Grants Pass Cavemen in a football game which was much closer than the score would indicate. The annual Armistice day contest was played on the Grants Pass field, where the Indians found difficulty in getting accustomed to the slippery surface.

Caught flat-footed after Pollard had kicked out of bounds on the Grants Pass five-yard marker, the Indians let Jack Lutz, silver-gray Grants Pass fullback, slide through their fingers to run 104 yards, or 96 yards from the point of scrimmage, for the first touchdown. The Cavemen chalked up their second tally midway in the third period when Pollard's kick was blocked and was scooped up by Polev, who was downed on the Roseburg 23-yard stripe. Phippen passed to Lutz for nine yards, covering the only successful attempt of the game. Lutz boomed for a first down on the 10-yard stripe, and after Phippen had been boomed for a one-yard loss, Lutz again took the ball and drove to Roseburg's two-yard marker. Again the Indians smothered a play and tossed Lutz back to the five-yard stripe. On fourth down, Grants Pass went into a stored formation and Everton obtained through tackle to score. Indians Fail at Passing

The Indians, playing without the services of Harrison, block-line halfback and ace pass receiver, out with blood poisoning, could not get their passing attack working. Thirteen attempts were made through the air, but not one was completed. Grants Pass completed only one out of four.

Both teams were placed in tough spots in the early part of the game due to fumbles. Early in the contest, Grants Pass recovered a Roseburg fumble on the Indians' 36-yard line, but could not advance the ball a few minutes later the Indians were again thrown back on the defensive, when Pollard's attempted pass to Jones was intercepted by Ausland who advanced 10 yards to the Roseburg 32. Roseburg after holding for downs, took a couple of penalties, one for holding and another for offside and kicked out to midfield. But Moser fumbled the ball and Walker recovered for Roseburg on the Cavemen's 42-yard line. It was from that point that Pollard made his coffin-corner kick, only to have Lutz break out from punt formation around his right end where, with perfect interference and downfield blocking, he made his sensational touchdown run.

Flaws in Offense Work The two teams had almost equal ability in line play. Aside from the 96-yard run by Lutz, Grants Pass was held to gains of 85 yards from scrimmage, while the Indians tallied 81. Net gains, however, were 64 for Grants Pass and 78 for Roseburg. Pollard, Roseburg passer, however, was smothered twice for losses of 10 and 11 yards. Both lines were charging fast on defense, but were failing to provide protection for ball carriers on offense.

The Indians missed several scoring opportunities, the greatest threat being late in the game when Everton's fumble was recovered by Atterbury on the Grants Pass 27-yard line. The Indians were penalized five yards for too many times out. Pollard broke through for a gain of five yards but was forced to kick out of bounds on the 10-yard stripe. Scallon broke loose twice for long gains, once getting into the clear in midfield, but he hit a slippery spot on the field and fell to his knees.

Safety Rarely Missed Roseburg barely missed a safety when Robertson, kicking from behind his own goal line, was rushed hard and ran with the ball. He was thrown behind the line, but the referee ruled, amid vehement protests from the Roseburg rooting section, that the ball carrier's knee struck the ground a foot outside the line.

Featuring Roseburg's game was the brilliant defensive work of Knigge, who was in on nearly every tackle, and boomed the Grants Pass ball carriers for losses on numerous occasions.

Voters Make Few Changes At Reedsport

John Skaaluren Chosen Mayor; Death Summons New Constable-Elect

REEDSPORT—The election in the lower Umpqua valley apparently has left almost everyone with a feeling of relief and a certainty that the country is not going to the dogs after all. This being one of the democratic party strongholds in the county, especially in the Reedsport and Winchester Bay precincts, naturally Roosevelt received a very large vote here, but the congressional ticket went to the republicans with the feeling that they have done a good job for this state and district.

Naturally, the county and judiciary ticket was almost a one-man affair, so that section of the ticket caused no fight. The same may be said of the local judicial ticket, constable and justice of the peace. Fred Wright, incumbent, was the nominee of both parties for justice of the peace, but at the last minute, R. H. W. "Bob" Leathers, a local capitalist and real estate speculator, who operates an accounting business here, came out as a "write-in" candidate. He succeeded in rounding up 61 votes in Reedsport and Winchester Bay against 516 for Wright.

Death Takes Constable Otto Neumann, the candidate of both parties for constable position, and who had been ill for some time with a heart ailment, was taken to the hospital at Eugene for treatment a few days previous to election and an election day suffered a stroke and died the following day. While he was unanimously elected, the office is now vacant and an appointment will have to be made by the county court.

Mr. Neumann was an old and well known and respected citizen of the coast section of southwestern Oregon, having resided in Curry, Coos and the lower Umpqua valley of Douglas county for a number of years and has been active in sawmill work as a superintendent and manager for a number of years. He was in his early 70's and had been retired from active work for several years. He leaves a wife and a brother, a daughter, Mrs. Darwin Bernhardt and her two children, all residents of this city, and several other sons and daughters living elsewhere. The funeral was held here Sunday.

The election will also change the make-up of the Port of Umpqua a little. O. H. Hinsdale, owner of the Gardiner Lumber Co., a stockholder of the First National bank of Gardiner, as well as a former member of the Port Commission, defeated Burt Roberts of Smith River for a seat on the commission, and Nonda Anderson, of Reedsport, and James Ford, Jr., of Gardiner were re-elected to succeed themselves. Other members of the commission who are holdovers are Norman Weatherly of Scottsburg and Elvinton and H. L. Lewis of Smith River.

This election also changes the city council. John Skaaluren, an executive of the E. K. Lumber Co., will succeed Cecil Bennett as mayor. Mr. Bennett did not "choose to run." Seats on the council went to Andrew L. Knutson, a mill worker; Lloyd Richardson, hardware clerk; and M. W. Thompson, motel operator, succeeding Skaaluren; John Dye and C. F. Brown.

Mrs. Dora Ritzman, chairman of the local American Junior Red Cross, states that the program also will show the work the Junior Red Cross of Roseburg is doing.

BAD NEWS!
ALONG with all the good news of victories abroad, comes some very bad news here at home.
Fat salvage collections are TAKING A NOSE DIVE in many sections of the country.
That can mean just one thing! Too many of us are letting the good news GO TO OUR HEADS. Too many believe that, with the collapse of Germany, we can relax.
Don't these people know that the battle of Germany is just one chapter in this global war—and that we still have a long, tough road to travel in the East?
Even the TOTAL DEFEAT OF GERMANY can't help us one bit as far as the fat situation is concerned. And for a specific reason: IT'S THE JAPS WHO HAVE OUR FATS.
Our fat shortage troubles began when Japan moved into the Pacific areas and cut us off from ONE BILLION POUNDS of fats and oils we used to import every year. The Japs are still there—and we're still cut off!
So we must continue saving used fats to help make up that loss. To help make the munitions, synthetic rubber, medicines, soaps and other materials needed to finish the war, WE MUST SAVE EVEN HARDER THAN EVER. So let's get busy and send the fat collections climbing up all across America! THE NEED is SO URGENT, our government gives you 4¢ and 2 free red points for every pound saved!
SO KEEP SAVING USED FATS UNTIL V-J DAY—the day when we can celebrate final victory over our last and toughest enemy—Japan.
Approved by WPA and ORA. Paid for by Industry.
