News of 4-H CLUBS

Members of the Lookingglass Livestock club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Jacoby Tuesday evening, Nov. 7.

The girls of the sewing club met on Thursday under the leadership of Mrs. C. R. Bartlett.

They decided on their projects. Group I will make a tea towel, work dress, work apron, and hot dish holder. Group II plans on making a needle case, lunch cloth, wall-hanger, pin cushion, and a hand-bag. They filled in their record books.

The first Thursday club met for the first time Tuesday. Mr. Welt is leader of the club. The officers elected were: president, Austin Welt, vice-president, Tommy Findlay, and secretary, Bill Harris. They received their record books.

The rest of the clubs plan to meet next week.

The Roseburg branch of the United States National bank of Portland is again sponsoring the five-year pin program for 4-H club members in Douglas county.

There are 49 boys and girls in the county eligible to receive their five-year pin this year. The pins have been received from the state club office in Corvallis and will be presented to the boys and girls in the very near future.

Five clubs were definitely organized during the National Achievement week of Nov. 4 to 11. Numerous other schools throughout the county started or organization work for the coming year. The window decorations in J. C. Penney company store in Roseburg were put in as a part of the Achievement Week program and were viewed by numerous people. The exhibits on display in the window were those taken to the state exhibit at Portland.

The clubs organized this past week were a woodworking club in the Lookingglass area with Grace Bellinger as president, Rowena Williams, vice-president and Duane Cheek as secretary. Mrs. Ralph Heater is leader of the wood-working club and Mr. A. A. Jacoby of the livestock club. Two clubs were organized in the Roseburg area. One is a health club elected Bonnie Smith, president, Danny Dahl, vice-president and Ada Kruse, secretary. The hobby club has Danny Dahl as president.
