

Store Salesmen Warned On Insulting Speech

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Elmer Wheeler, author of eight books on salesmanship, says that salesmen who specialize in snappy comebacks when asked for war-scarce items are slitting their own throats.

"When a customer comes in and says he would like a pack of cigarettes, don't snap 'so would I'," he advised 2,000 retail grocers last night.

And, he added, "when a customer wants a pound of butter, don't yell: 'Hey, Joe—there and take a look at this guy who wants a pound of butter. He doesn't know there's a war on.'"

Wheeler warned that many customers keep a "black book" of such insults and resolve to take their trade elsewhere after the war. He advised patience, courtesy and special attention to regular customers.

Bad Luck Dogs Auto On Churchill's French Trip

PARIS, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Prime Minister Churchill this week visited the French first army in the Jura mountains approaching Germany and in rapid succession:

1. A tire on his car blew out.
2. The chains came off on a perilous, ice-caked road, and
3. The car was bogged down in a snowdrift for 15 minutes.

"Thank heavens, the grand old man didn't get out in the bitter cold to push," one of the party said, "it's a wonder he didn't. There surely is a limit to what the prime minister should be asked to do in such weather."

Driving to a nearby town from the French command post 3,000 feet in the mountains, Churchill stood without hat in a heavy snow storm to receive the cheers of the French people.

Coin Toss Decides Race For K-Falls Council Seat

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Nov. 15.—(AP)—Angus Newton won the toss of a coin last night and became city councilman from the First ward of Klamath Falls.

Newton and Matt Finnigan received 546 votes each in the council election last week. Following the legal provisions for settling a tie vote, Police Judge Franey called the candidates in and offered to pitch a coin.

Finnigan called "tails" and Newton "heads." The coin fell heads up and Newton, a former American Legion post commander here, was immediately sworn in as councilman.

Yule Party Advanced For Child Near Death

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 15.—(AP)—There isn't much time left. That's why Nubbins will have his Christmas party Sunday.

Three-year-old Forest "Nubbins" Hoffman has an incurable kidney disease, so his father, Marshall F. Hoffman, decided to move the holiday celebration up to Sunday "because the doctor says Nubbins won't be with us for Christmas."

It's out of season for Christmas trees, but the park commission, when it heard of Hoffman's problem, cut a branch off one of its large evergreens.

Mother's Protest Upset By Message of Death

INGLEWOOD, Calif., Nov. 15.—(AP)—Sgt. Elmer Murray's name inadvertently was included among those of hero dead inscribed upon a memorial obelisk dedicated here Armistice day.

The paratrooper's mother protested that he merely was missing. "As soon as the rain stops, we'll remove his name," the committee told her.

The sun shone yesterday, but Murray's name remains upon the obelisk.

His mother had received another telegram, "Killed in action," it said.
