AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE FIGHTER STATION, England, Captain Robert R. Bonebrake of 1301 Lake Drive, Taylor, Texas, a P-47 Thunderbolt fighter pilot, has been awarded a first and second oak leaf cluster to his Air Medal for "meritorious achievement" during twenty combat operational sorties over enemy occupied continental Europe.

The presentation was made by his commanding officer, Colonel Frederic C. Gray of Abilene, Texas, at a recent ceremony held on their eighth air force fighter base. Capt. Bonebrake had previously won the Air Medal, and each cluster is equivalent to another award of the medal.

ENJOY INEXPENSIVE PRIZE-WINNING ORANGE MARMALADE

It's Easy To Make Anytime With This Simple Recipe

- 6 Medium Sized Oranges (2 lbs. Sliced) 6 Cups Water 1/2 Cup Lemon Juice (About 6 lemons) 1 Package M.C.P. Pectin 9 1/2 Level Cups Sugar (Measured ready for use)

- 1. Cut oranges in cartwheels with very sharp knife to make slices thin as possible. Discard the large flat peel ends. Sliced fruit should weigh 2 pounds. 2. Put sliced fruit in 8-quart kettle. Add the water and lemon juice. 3. Bring to a quick boil; boil gently for 1 hour (uncovered). If peel is not tender in 1 hour, boil until tender. 4. Measure the cooked material. Due to boiling, the volume will be reduced below 7 cups. Add water to make total peel and juice exactly 7 cups. 5. Put back in kettle. Stir in M.C.P. Pectin; continue stirring and bring to a full boil. 6. Add sugar (previously measured). Stir gently until it has reached a full rolling boil, and BOIL EXACTLY 4 MINUTES. Remove from fire; skim and stir by turns for 5 minutes. 7. Pour into jars. If you use pint or quart jars, seal hot and invert jars on lids until Marmalade begins to set. Then, shake well and set jars upright. This keeps the peel evenly distributed throughout.

NOTE: This recipe works equally well with Navel Oranges or Valencia. When either variety is over-ripe and peel is soft, use 3/4-cup Lemon Juice instead of 1/2-cup. (Be sure to discard any seeds.) This recipe makes 7 pounds of prize-winning Orange Marmalade.
